Representations of the Holocaust Simone Gigliotti, Jacob Golomb, Caroline Steinberg Gould, 2013-11-22 The American Jewish philosopher Berel Lang has left an indelible impression on an unusually broad range of fields that few scholars can rival From his earliest innovations in philosophy and meta philosophy to his ground breaking work on representation historical writing and art after Auschwitz he has contributed original and penetrating insights to the philosophical literary and historical debates on ethics art and the representation of the Nazi Genocide In honor of Berel Lang s five decades of scholarly and philosophical contributions the editors of Ethics Art and Representations of the Holocaust invited seventeen eminent scholars from around the world to discuss Lang s impact on their own research and to reflect on how the Nazi genocide continues to resonate in contemporary debates about antisemitism commemoration and poetic representations Resisting what Alvin Rosenfeld warned as the end of the Holocaust the essays in this collection signal the Holocaust as an event without closure of enduring resonance to new generations of scholars of genocide Jewish studies and philosophy Readers will find original and provocative essays on topics as diverse as Nietzsche s reputed Nazi leanings Jewish anti apartheid activists in South Africa wartime rescue in Poland philosophical responses to the Holocaust hidden diaries in the Kovno Ghetto and analyses of reactions to trauma in classic literary works by Bernhard Schlink Sylvia Plath and Derek Walcott Art History and Visual Studies in Europe ,2012-06-22 Reflection on the history and practice of art history has long been a major topic of research and scholarship and this volume builds on this tradition by offering a critical survey of many of the major developments in the contemporary discipline such as the impact of digital technologies the rise of visual studies or new initiatives in conservation theory and practice Alongside these methodological issues this book addresses the mostly neglected question of the impact of national contexts on the development of the discipline Taking a wide range of case studies this book examines the impact of the specific national political institutional and ideological demands on the practice of art history The result is an account that both draws out common features and also highlights the differences and the plurality of practices that together constitute art history as a discipline Unquiet Understanding Nicholas Davey, 2012-02-01 In Unquiet Understanding Nicholas Davey reappropriates the radical content of Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics to reveal that it offers a powerful critique of Nietzsche s philosophy of language nihilism and post structuralist deconstructions of meaning By critically engaging with the practical and ethical implications of philosophical hermeneutics Davey asserts that the importance of philosophical hermeneutics resides in a formidable double claim that strikes at the heart of both traditional philosophy and deconstruction He shows that to seek control over the fluid nature of linguistic meaning with rigid conceptual regimes or to despair of such fluidity because it frustrates hope for stable meaning is to succumb to nihilism Both are indicative of a failure to appreciate that understanding depends upon the vital instability of the word This innovative book demonstrates that Gadamer s thought merits a radical reappraisal and that it is more provocative than commonly supposed The Routledge Companion to the Philosophies of Painting and Sculpture Noël Carroll,Jonathan Gilmore,2023-06-30 Comprising 45 chapters written especially for this volume by an international team of leading experts The Routledge Companion to the Philosophies of Painting and Sculpture is the first handbook of its kind The editors have organized the chapters across eight broader sections Artforms History Questions of form style and address Art and science Comparisons among the arts Questions of value Philosophers of art Institutional questions Individual topics include art and cognitive science evolutionary origins of art art and perception pictorial realism artistic taste style issues of race and gender art and religion art and philosophy and the end of art The work of selected philosophers is also discussed including Diderot Hegel Ruskin Gombrich Goodman Wollheim and Danto With an introduction from the editors and comprehensively indexed The Routledge Companion to the Philosophies of Painting and Sculpture serves as a point of entry to the subject for a broad range of students as well as an up to date reference for scholars in the field Nancy and the Political Sanja Dejanovic,2015-01-21 Focussed around three core themes capitalism the metaphysics of democracy and aesthetics these 11 essays emphasise the potential of Nancy s political thought and collectively situate it within a broader intellectual context which includes engagemen The Language and Style of Film Criticism Andrew Klevan,Alex Clayton,2011-04-26 The Language and Style of Film Criticism brings together original essays from an international range of academics and film critics highlighting the achievements complexities and potential of film criticism In recent years in contrast to the theoretical historical and cultural study of film film criticism has been relatively marginalised especially within the academy This book highlights the distinctiveness of film criticism and addresses ways in which it can take a more central place within the academy and develop in dynamic ways outside it The Language and Style of Film Criticism is essential reading for academics teachers students and journalists who wish to understand and appreciate the language and style of film criticism Badiou and Deleuze Read Literature Jean-Jacques Lecercle,2010-06-26 Considers the strong readings that Alain Badiou and Gilles Deleuze imposed on the texts they read Why do philosophers read literature How do they read it Does their philosophy derive from their reading of literature If so to what extent Anyone who reads contemporary European philosophers has to ask such questions Lecercle demonstrates that philosophers need literature as much as literary critics need philosophy it is an exercise not in the philosophy of literature where literature is a mere object of analysis but in philosophy and literature a heady and unusual mix Encyclopedia of Philosophy Donald M. Borchert,2006 This volume covering entries from Abbagnano Nicola to Byzantine philosophy presents articles on Eastern and Western philosophies medical and scientific ethics the Holocaust terrorism censorship biographical entries and much more Art Journal ,1960 Sport and Art Andrew Edgar,2016-04-08 Sport and Art explores relationship of sport to art It does not argue that sport is one of the arts but rather that sport and art hold common ground Both are ways in which humans confront philosophical challenges though they do this through very different media While art deploys sensual media such as paint or sound sport is the pursuit of a physical challenge at which the athlete may fail This is to propose in an argument that has its roots in Hegel s aesthetics that sport may be interpreted as a way of reflecting upon metaphysical and normative issues such as the nature of human freedom fate and chance and even our sense of space and time This argument is developed by proposing the concept of a sportworld an atmosphere of theory and a knowledge of history through which an event is interpreted and thereby constituted as sport Ultimately Sport and Art argues that in order to be truly appreciated sport must be understood within a modernist aesthetics That is to say that sport is not about beauty but rather about the struggle to find meaning in sporting triumph and crucially sporting failure This book was published as a special issue of Sport Ethics and Philosophy
