Quetzal Summer:

The Quetzal Summer Katie Hickman, 1992 Quetzals Sandra Donovan, 2002-01-01 An introduction to the habitat physical characteristics behavior and life cycle of quetzals beautiful birds that live in the rain forests of Central America and South America From New National to World Literature Bruce King, 2016-07-05 From New National to World English Literature offers a personal perspective on the evolution of a major cultural movement that began with decolonization continued with the assertion of African West Indian Commonwealth and other literatures and has evolved through postcolonial to world or international English literature Bruce King one of the pioneers in the study of the new national literatures and still an active literary critic discusses the personalities writers issues and contexts of what he considers the most important change in culture since modernism In this selection of forty five essays and reviews King discusses issues such as the emergence and aesthetics of African literature the question of the existence of a Nigerian literature the place of the new universities in decolonizing culture the contrasting models of American and Irish literatures and the changing nature of exile and diasporas He emphasizes themes such as traditionalism versus modernism the dangers of cultural assertion and the relationships between nationalism and internationalism Special attention is given to Nigerian West Indian Australian Indian and Pakistani literature The House at Bishopsgate Katie Hickman, 2017-05-16 A haunting magical story of a cursed gem and the people who suffer in its wake set in seventeenth century London Most men of stature wouldn't marry their betrothed after she'd been kidnapped and forced into sexual slavery in the harem of the Great Turk but Paul Pindar wealthy merchant and former ambassador to Constantinople is not most men When Paul and Celia finally reunited return to London in 1611 his house at Bishopsgate has stood empty for nearly a decade A phalanx of carpenters upholsterers and gardeners have been summoned to restore it to its former glory But all is not as it seems Celia is frail and their marriage despite her longing is childless Traumatized by her experiences she is unprepared for English society and the duties of managing a house with a full staff Paul arranges for Celia's old friend Annetta to join them in England as Celia's companion but Annetta arrives to find that another woman the widow Frances Sydenham has insinuated herself into the Pindar household Lady Sydenham seems to have a mysterious hold over Celia and Annetta suspects increasingly over Paul Who is this woman and what are her motives Like everyone else including members of the royal family and Pindar's greedy brother Rafe she is fascinated by the Sultan Blue the legendary diamond Pindar has brought back from the Middle East All of London wants to get their hands on the jewel despite the dark magic properties that are said to surround it but Paul Pindar might be the only merchant who doesn't have a price Sailing to the Edge of Time John Kretschmer, 2018-11-13 John Kretschmer is sailing's practical philosopher as much a doer as a thinker And that is the overarching theme of this chronicle of a sailing life Often amusing sometimes poignant occasionally terrifying but always inspiring his deeply personal account is a welcome reminder of the good life waiting at sea With hundreds of thousands of nautical miles under his keel John's adventures have taken him several times around the world with challenging crossings of the Atlantic and the Pacific a narrow escape from a coup in Yemen an unlikely deliverance from a coral reef off Belize as well as more serene introspective passages where trade winds are blowing and stories are flowing His crew has included CEOs actors writers teachers kids in essence everyone John's narrative is interwoven with practical tips and advice in seamanship but also and just as importantly his hard won insights about making the most of our lives He truly believes we find out who we really are and what we are capable of far from the shackles of land when we find a place where time changes shape days may merge into one another but minutes are memorable To live adventurously is to live more fully and that is the life John Kretschmer continues to live In this book he shares his simple profundities that will inspire those who live to sail and those seeking something more rewarding from life
