Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology H.

Russell Bernard, Clarence C. Gravlee, 2014-07-08 The Handbook of Methods in Cultural Anthropology now in its second edition maintains a strong benchmark for understanding the scope of contemporary anthropological field methods Avoiding divisive debates over science and humanism the contributors draw upon both traditions to explore fieldwork in practice The second edition also reflects major developments of the past decade including the rising prominence of mixed methods the emergence of new technologies and evolving views on ethnographic writing Spanning the chain of research from designing a project through methods of data collection and interpretive analysis the Handbook features new chapters on ethnography of online communities social survey research and network and geospatial analysis Considered discussion of ethics epistemology and the presentation of research results to diverse audiences round out the volume The result is an essential guide for all scholars professionals and advanced students who employ fieldwork

Organizational Ethnography Sierk Ybema, Dvora

Yanow, Harry Wels, Frans H Kamsteeg, 2009-08-20 Just as newspapers do not typically engage with the ordinary experiences of people s daily lives so organizational studies has also tended largely to ignore the humdrum everyday experiences of people working in organizations However ethnographic approaches provide in depth and up close understandings of how the everyday ness of work is organized and how in turn work itself organizes people and the societies they inhabit Organizational Ethnography brings contributions from leading scholars in organizational studies that serve to unpack an ethnographic perspective on organizations and organizational research The authors explore the particular problems faced by organizational ethnographers including questions of gaining access to research sites within organizations the many styles of writing organizational ethnography the role of friendship relations in the field problems of distance and closeness the doing of at home ethnography ethical issues standards for evaluating ethnographic work This book is a vital resource for organizational scholars and students doing or writing ethnography in the fields of business and management public administration education health care social work or any related field in which organizations play a role

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research David Coghlan, Mary Brydon-Miller, 2014-08-11

Action research is a term used to describe a family of related approaches that integrate theory and action with a goal of addressing important organizational community and social issues together with those who experience them It focuses on the creation of areas for collaborative learning and the design enactment and evaluation of liberating actions through combining action and research reflection and action in an ongoing cycle of cogenerative knowledge While the roots of these methodologies go back to the 1940s there has been a dramatic increase in research output and adoption in university curricula over the past decade This is now an area of high popularity among academics and researchers from various fields especially business and organization studies education health care nursing development studies and social and community work The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research brings together the many strands of action research and addresses the interplay between these disciplines by presenting a state of the art overview and comprehensive breakdown of the key tenets and methods of action research as well as detailing the work of key theorists and contributors to action research

Travel and Tourism in the Age of Overtourism Claudio Milano, Marina Novelli, Joseph M. Cheer, 2021-03-29 Over the last decade while many scholars have maintained their interest in the classical debate concerning the impacts of tourism some have attempted new conceptualisations while others have converged towards critical narratives promoted by a number of social movements and have become involved in subsequent discussions on overtourism and tourismphobia The terms overtourism and tourismphobia have their genesis in the rapid unfolding of unsustainable mass tourism practices and the responses that these have generated amongst academics practitioners social movements and grassroots organizations concerned with the detrimental use of urban rural and coastal spaces among others for tourism purposes The renewed interest in the study of the adverse impacts of tourism as implied in the term overtourism is related to a variety of well established causes Travel and Tourism in the Age of Overtourism builds on existing knowledge and makes a theoretical and practical contribution the overtourism debate and the system dynamics underlining it This collection suggests ways to address this from a tourism and planning perspective It offers critical reflections on the contemporary evolution of tourism development and the implication of such processes on people places and spaces The chapters in this book were originally published as a Special Issue of the journal Tourism Planning Development

Love and Technology Fabian Broeker, 2023-12-22 Love and Technology An Ethnography of Dating App Users in Berlin explores how dating apps fit into Berlin's unique dating culture and brand of intimacy and form a tangible nucleus around which users navigate dating rituals romantic biographies and digitally mediated intimacies within city space Drawing on the field of digital anthropology this book takes the form of an immersive ethnography resulting from 13 months of fieldwork with young dating app users across Tinder Bumble and OkCupid in Berlin It argues that dating apps offer or impose depending on their context of use a series of affordances These affordances and the technological devices they rely upon exist through the relation between users and their environment both in terms of physical spaces and cultural frameworks The book posits that dating apps are woven into spatial practices and self narrativisation constituting imagined communities for their users as well as a canvas alongside the city of Berlin against which to characterise romantic experiences Scholars interested in digital anthropology ethnography dating and regional Berlin will find that Love and Technology offers a vibrant springboard for thinking through both theoretical and

Routledge Handbook on Consumption Margit Keller, Bente Halkier, Terhi-Anna Wilska, Monica Truninger, 2017-02-10 Consumption research is burgeoning across a wide range of disciplines The Routledge Handbook on Consumption gathers experts from around the world to provide a nuanced overview of the latest scholarship in this expanding field At once ambitious and timely the volume provides an ideal map for those looking to position their work find new analytic insights and identify research gaps With an intuitive thematic structure and resolutely international outlook it engages with theory and methodology markets and businesses policies politics and the state and culture and everyday life It will be essential reading for students and scholars across the social and economic sciences Sociopolitics of Migrant Death and Repatriation Krista E. Latham, Alyson J. O'Daniel, 2017-10-03 As scholars have by now long contended global neoliberalism and the violence associated with state restructuring provide key frameworks for understanding flows of people across national boundaries and eventually into the treacherous terrains of the United States borderlands The proposed volume builds on this tradition of situating migration and migrant death within broad systems level frameworks of analysis but contends that there is another perhaps somewhat less tidy but no less important sociopolitical story to be told here Through examination of how forensic scientists define navigate and enact their work at the frontiers of US policy and economics this book joins a robust body of literature dedicated to bridging social theory with bioarchaeological applications to modern day problems This volume is based on deeply and critically reflective analyses submitted by individual scholars wherein they navigate and position themselves as social actors embedded within and perhaps partially constituted by relations of power cultural ideologies and the social structures characterizing this moment in history Each contribution addresses a different variation on themes of power relations production of knowledge and reflexivity in practice In sum however the chapters of this book trace relationships between institutions entities and individuals comprising the landscapes of migrant death and repatriation and considers their articulation with sociopolitical dynamics of the neoliberal state An Autopsy of Ethnographic Fieldwork

Louis Augustin-Jean, 2024-07-24 This edited volume presents an international collection of fieldwork experiences from every stage of the research process with a view to normalising the process of adaptation modification and even failure during fieldwork when circumstances interrupt the expected outcomes This book aims to address a gap often found in methodology books by including nine full autopsy like reflection of fieldwork experiences selected based on researchers disciplines and fields the diversity of geographical locations and their differing themes Its chapters record a swath of experience from choosing the research themes and hypotheses through to academic presentations and publications shedding light on an area academic research that is often overlooked Documenting experience from anthropologists and sociologists to political scientists and economists the diversity of the book s approach and its multidisciplinary focus will interest researchers scholars and postgraduate students from a range of subdisciplines and levels of fieldwork experience Anthropology Matters, Second Edition Shirley A. Fedorak, 2012-10-24 Anthropology Matters places the study of anthropology concretely in the world by which it is surrounded It takes a question based approach to introducing important anthropological concepts by embedding those concepts in contemporary global issues that will interest students The second edition of this popular text has been updated throughout and includes four new chapters on language revitalization social media and social revolutions human migration and the role of NGOs in international development practice Students can now engage with the most up to date issues while learning to think anthropologically The Art of Fieldwork Harry F. Wolcott, 2005 In this long anticipated second edition of The Art of Fieldwork prominent anthropologist Harry F Wolcott updates his original groundbreaking text which both challenges and petitions anthropology and its practitioners to draw not only on the traditional precepts of science but also on the richness of artistry in the collection interpretation and expression of fieldwork data Each of the original chapters have been thoughtfully revised to reflect the past nine years of anthropological development Combined with a new final chapter this refreshing text makes an exciting reentry into the ongoing debate of the processes challenges and rewards of fieldwork methodology Researchers in qualitative methods and field methods_ and fieldworkers across disciplines_ will find this well crafted approachable book a thought provoking read Practicing Applied Anthropology Across Discontinuous Social Fields Keith V. Bletzer, 2023-07-19 This book covers the author s field experiences as an ethnographer in one country of Central America and an applied anthropologist in four US regions A range of social fields are examined which include constructing a work experience table as a composite job resum correspondence with a maximum security prisoner for more than ten years design features for multiple choice testing farmworker sero prevalence reports health seeking behavior among the Ng b indigenous people in Central America HIV AIDS education in rural farm labor camps Latinx naming practices for grocery stores and restaurants in agricultural areas organizational capacity building assistance training and teaching students in a community college and three secondary schools among others The book highlights the importance of incorporating ethnography in the completion of work tasks across a range of social fields which represent diverse socio
