Haney, 1983 In a Dark Wood Linda Jones, Sophie Stanes, 2003-12-01 Readers General readers college level clergy Collaborative Parish Leadership William A. Clark, Daniel Gast, 2016-12-27 These essays explore team based parish leadership theologically sociologically and pastorally in a variety of cultures and circumstances The result is an extended conversation both practical and deeply reflective emerging from the collaboration of theologians social researchers organizational development specialists and pastoral ministers Collaborative Parish Leadership draws on the experience strengths challenges and insights of the long term pastoral academic partnerships out of which it has grown These include Project INSPIRE a pastoral team formation project sponsored by Loyola University and the Archdiocese of Chicago and funded by the Lilly Endowment Inc as part of its Sustaining Pastoral Excellence initiative Another partner initiative is the international pastoral minister exchange Crossing Over involving several Catholic dioceses in northwest Germany and based at Ruhr Universit t Bochum Authors of these essays have also been involved in Emerging Models of Pastoral Leadership the Congregational Studies Team's Engaged Scholars fellowship both also Lilly Endowment funded projects and other projects Collaborative Parish Leadership employs practical theological methods rooted in pastoral experience and integrated with scholarly reflection Opening essays deal with the current situation of U S parishes the parish consultancy model of Project INSPIRE and a case study of several parishes that benefited from the project The following chapters present comparative case studies of collaborative leadership in various settings multicultural parishes in different parts of the U S parish clusters consolidating into single parishes using very different processes and parishes in Chicago and Mexico City meeting similar urban challenges Three authors associated with CrossingOver and its participating dioceses assess the general state of parish reorganization in Germany and the potential of the unique approach to team leadership taken in the French archdiocese of Poitiers The final chapters reflect on the theology of parish leadership from pastoral and systematic perspectives and on the future needs and possibilities of collaborative approaches Overall Collaborative Parish Leadership engages and challenges academic and pastoral leaders in diverse social and ecclesial situations suggests multiple models for cultivating collaboration builds connections between collaborative action and theological development

The Catholic Passion David Scott, 2010-06 The Catholic faith is not a set of rules or a body of doctrines but is a way of life writes David Scott It's a lived faith that contains convincing intellectually coherent and spiritually fulfilling answers to the biggest questions Who is God Who is Jesus Why are we here Where are we going The Catholic Passion invites readers into a conversation about the things that matter most It is not an argument for the Catholic faith but a journey to the heart of it a richly rewarding reflection on prayer the Bible sacraments the church and God made human in Jesus Christ Scott does not tell the story of the faith through church documents or catechism quotations Instead he looks at the faith experience of real Catholics people like the American writer Andre Dubus the French composer Olivier Messiaen the Chinese human rights activist Henry Wu the French martyr Charles de Foucauld and the American reformer Dorothy Day These and other Catholics embody a faith that warms the heart as it enlightens the mind One theme emerges from Scott's reflections on the lives of Catholics and the Scriptures God's passion of love for humankind burns on in the Catholic Church The Catholic passion is the conviction that there is nothing God will not do to win our love The Catholic Passion is a monumental work David Scott weaves material from scripture history the arts the liturgy theology spirituality and personal reflection showing us that nothing human is alien to Christ and nothing divine is withheld from God's people Scott Hahn author of The Lamb's Supper The Catholic Passion is a masterwork beautiful compelling and wonderfully readable an outstanding portrait of what Catholics believe and why I highly recommend it Charles J Chaput OFM Cap archbishop of Denver David Scott helps us see a vibrant Catholicism that offers brilliant meaning in a world darkened by materialism and violence He presents a vision that allows the treasures of the past to envision an orthodox Catholicism for the future Fr Mitch Pacwa SJ EWTN
