Reorienting Fashion The Globalization Of Asian Dress:

Re-Orienting Fashion Sandra Niessen, Ann Marie Leshkovich, Carla Jones, 2003-04 Asian fashion has become a global phenomenon of significant economic political and social import But the industry in Asia remains characterized by the gap between traditional centres of fashion and power and the relatively marginalized periphery that includes Asia The resulting fashions are ambiguous despite their indigenous origins and inspiration their survival depends upon the West This book explores Asian fashion in a global economic and cultural context In itself this is pathbreaking because fashion studies have traditionally divided along the boundaries of the western non western dichotomy When both production and consumption cut through these traditional boundaries new fashion principles are expressed globally How are western economic cultural political iconic and social forms inscribed in indigenous Asian fashion when and often because that fashion is an expression of resistance against western encroachment How does dress become an active site for the negotiation of state ideals and gender roles in nations struggling to construct new identities informed by modern western impulses What role does gender play in negotiating dress symbols and how does this tie in with commodification by the global economic system With chapters focusing on East South and Southeast Asian designers retailers consumers and governments this book moves Asian fashion centre stage and should be of interest to dress and fashion theorists anthropologists sociologists and all those seeking to understand globalization and its effects

Fashion in Altermodern China Feng Jie, 2022-03-24 Fashion in Altermodern China examines key features of women s fashion within the cultural and political context of contemporary China While global brands and styles heavily influence Chinese consumer trends the Chinese fashion system is formed of its own internal logics and emergent trends too Adopting the theoretical term altermodern Feng Jie encourages us to view China in terms of its rapid modernization which presents its own rhythms and meanings and argues persuasively that Chinese fashion can t be wholly understood in terms of a Western discourse of modernity postmodernity and the global Expanding our understanding of the fashion system Fashion in Altermodern China takes on board new trends in global trade new technologies and the hybridity of designs and consumption of fashion Through critical readings of Barthes on the neutral and Jullien on blandness both directly influenced by Asian philosophies the author offers a new perspective on Chinese fashion arguing that while global local contexts lead to identifiably postmodern and hybrid aesthetics for women in contemporary China the flux and mix of available fashions is experienced in a more open neutral manner than scholars have previously described Crucially then rather than position trends in China only in terms of hybridity which betrays a Western bias and a binary logic of host recipient there are more fluid ways in which we need to understand how women engage in fashion in China today Dress and Globalisation Margaret Maynard,2004-09-04 This work surveys dress and identity of cultures around the world It draws on issues of consumption ethnicity gender and the body as well as anthropological accounts and studies of representation Styling Shanghai Christopher Breward,Juliette MacDonald,2020-01-23 Styling Shanghai is the first book dedicated to exploring the city s fashion cultures examining its growing status as one of the world s foremost fashion cities From its origins as an international treaty port in the 19th century Shanghai has emerged as a global leader in the production mediation and consumption of fashion This book reveals how the material and imaginative context of this thriving urban centre has produced vivid interpretations of fashion as object image and idea Bringing together contributions by a range of leading international fashion historians and theorists and drawing on extensive original research Styling Shanghai offers an interdisciplinary analysis of the mega city s shifting position as a fashion capital Rooted in collaboration between leading UK Australian and Shanghai based institutions it considers the impact of local and global textile manufacturing the representation and marketing of Shanghai Style bodies and gender in the Paris of the East and the challenges of globalization commercialization and digital communication in contemporary Shanghai Dangerous Designs , Global Fashion, Local Tradition Anne van der Zwaag,2006 The future of fashion in essence this is the theme of the collection of photographs and essays in Global Fashion Local Tradition edited by Jan Brand and Jos Teunissen Fashion has become global Fashion weeks are not only held in Paris and Milan but Global Fashion Business Byoungho Ellie Jin,2024-07-11 In today s climate bringing your fashion brand to new international territories is more challenging than ever In Global Fashion Business Byoungho Ellie Jin helps you to take this next step Diverse examples from large and small companies developing and developed countries and online and offline retailers set a precedent for overcoming economic cultural legal and regulatory obstacles Practical approaches also outline methods of marketing and retailing while chapters on topics including pricing entry market selection and product development combine to cover everything you need to know to take your business further than ever before Globalization and Fashion Marketing Performance Kathleen Rees,Eun Joo Park,2013
