Eckes Jr., 2009-10-13 An expert analysis of key issues individuals and developments in U S trade policy from national regional and global perspectives What is the proper balance between free trade and protecting the American economy U S Trade Issues A Reference Handbook is a timely exploration of this vital and politically sensitive question one that emerged as a crucial issue in the 2008 presidential election Written by a former chairman of the U S International Trade Commission it provides an authoritative accessible and unbiased review of the defining events principal players and key controversies in U S trade policy U S Trade Issues describes American trade policies from the days of the republic to the present focusing most intently on the post World War II era It explores a number of current issues including the Doha Round of Multilateral Negotiations NAFTA and the president s trade authority In addition the handbook looks at American trade policy in the context of an increasingly globalized world economy      Issues and Developments in international Trade Policy International Monetary Fund, 1988-12-15 This paper discusses reviews major issues and developments in the trade area and outlines the problems in the multilateral trading system that governments face as they seek to liberalize trade in the Uruguay Round of trade negotiations The paper s emphasis is on policy developments in the major trading nations as they relate to trade in both industrial and agricultural products The survey also includes a review of trade policies in developing countries and refers to available quantitative evidence on protectionism wherever possible The increased use of nontariff measures reflects in part the fact that most industrial countries have bound a considerable proportion of their tariffs particularly on industrial products at relatively low levels Restrictions are particularly widespread in industries suffering from excess capacity such as steel and where comparative advantage has generally shifted to developing countries The lack of major liberalization in agriculture in the US Canada Free Trade Agreement has led some industrial countries to suggest that the US interest in multilateral negotiations is now primarily in agriculture and in some selected new areas such as telecommunications banking and patent protection      *National Trade Estimate ... Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, 2000      Case Studies in US Trade Negotiation Volume 2 Charan Devereaux, Robert Z Lawrence, Michael D Watkins, 2006-09-01 Between 1992 and 2000 US exports rose by 55 percent By the year 2000 trade summed to 26 percent of US GDP and the United States imported almost two thirds of its oil and was the world s largest host country for foreign investors America s interest in a more open and prosperous foreign market is now squarely economic These case studies in multilateral trade policymaking and dispute settlement explore the changing substance of trade agreements and also delve into the negotiation process the
