Who Is Winning the War in Afghanistan? Sayed Zia Sais,2011-10-25 Who Is Winning The War In Afghanistan A pro Communist coup the impact and aftermath of the Soviet 1978 79 invasion and 30 years of war have demolished the social life cohesion integrity solidarity trust capacity and economy of Afghanistan Millions of people have migrated to foreign countries houses and villages have been destroyed the countrys economy and infrastructure has been utterly destroyed millions of young civilians and children have been deprived of education and thousands of women have been widowed The conflict in Afghanistan has also had a great impact on security economy and the political prosperity of other parts of the world The 9 11 incidents which shocked the world once again drew international attention back to the forgotten Afghanistan The Bonn conference 2001 the NATO led invasion the collapse of the Taliban regime and the promises of the international community to build a democratic Afghan government with a solid institution and strong security force created great hopes amongst the Afghan population for a better future After the fall of the Taliban regime the violence and insurgency began to increase Despite all international efforts and an increase in troop numbers from 10 000 in 2002 to around 140 000 in 2010 and the spending of 50 billion in aid the Afghan government is still weak and does not have control over the whole country the armed forces are not strong enough violence continues to rise and last year was the deadliest year in nearly nine year of war additionally the security situation across the country looks increasingly bad The lasting war has had little success in Afghanistan the pressure of insurgents increasing casualties unpopularity of war among the population of NATO led countries and enormous war costs in a worsening economic climate have caused the announcement of the withdrawal of troops by US President B Obama in 2011 and the UK Prime Minister D Cameron by 2015 This book aims to determine the answer to the question of whether the Coalition Forces are winning the war in Afghanistan Annual Report on International Religious Freedom 2003 United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Operations and Human Rights,2003 The Origins of Conflict in Afghanistan Jeffery Roberts,2003-12-30 Focusing on Afghanistan s relations with the West during the latter half of the 20th century this study offers new insights on the long term origins of the nation s recent tragedies Roberts finds that since the 1930s in particular Afghanistan pursued policies far more complex and considerably more pro Western than previous studies have surmised By the end of the Second World War Britain and Afghanistan seemed headed toward an extensive partnership in military and economic affairs Opportunities to cement Afghanistan to the West existed but ultimately ran afoul of regional politics shortsighted policy and indifference The rise of the Indian nationalist movement and the eventual partition of India would have strategic ramifications for Afghanistan Pakistan and India weakened and poised against each other saw no reason to aid the Kabul regime leaving only the United States as a potential benefactor Successive American administrations however denied most Afghan requests When the Eisenhower administration extended support to Pakistan it alienated Afghan leaders who then chose to broker a deal with the Soviet Union Roberts analyzes recent American policy toward Afghanistan and its neighbors clarifying the current situation and offering guidelines for future relations Administration Report of the Baluchistan Agency for Baluchistan (Pakistan),1896 Annual Report of the Public Health Commissioner with the Government of India for ... with Appendices and Returns of Sickness and Mortality Among European Troops, Indian Troops, and Prisoners in India, for the Year India.
