Reporting Vietnam Pt 1 American Journalism 1959-1969:

American Journalism W. David Sloan, Lisa Mullikin Parcell, 2002-04-24 News consumers made cynical by sensationalist banners AMERICA STRIKES BACK THE TERROR OF ANTHRAX and lurid leads might be surprised to learn that in 1690 the newspaper Publick Occurrences gossiped about the sexual indiscretions of French royalty or seasoned the story of missing children by adding that barbarous Indians were lurking about before the disappearance. Surprising too might be the media's steady adherence to it, continual tugging at its philosophical and ethical moorings. These 39 essays written and edited by the nation's leading professors of journalism cover the theory and practice of print, radio, and TV news reporting. Politics and partisanship, press and the government, gender and the press corps, presidential coverage, war reportage, technology, and news gathering: sensationalism, each subject is treated individually. Appropriate for interested lay persons, students, professors, and reporters. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Second Indochina War Ang Cheng Guan, 2025-11-03 Drawing upon Vietnamese, Chinese, former Soviet, and American sources, Ang Cheng Guan provides an updated and concise account of the Vietnam War, 1954-1975, from the Vietnamese communists' perspective. In the last few decades, discourse on the Second Indochina War has shifted towards the South and its allies. To mark the 50th anniversary of the fall of Saigon, Ang revisits the experiences of the North. Focusing on scholarship published within the last 30 years, the book reexamines the 1954 Geneva Conference, the end of the First Vietnam War, through the Second Vietnam War to the 1975 Fall of Saigon, bringing readers up to date on the current state of the field. This book is a valuable resource for scholars and students of history, war studies, peace and conflict studies, as well as for those interested in the historical and contemporary implications of the Vietnam War. Peace Is a Shy Thing Alex Vernon, 2025-05-27 The first literary biography of Tim O'Brien, the preeminent American writer of the war in Vietnam and one of the best writers of his generation, drawing on never-before-seen materials and original interviews. Vietnam made me a writer, Tim O'Brien. Featuring over one hundred interviews with family, friends, peers, and others, not to mention countless exchanges with Tim O'Brien himself, Peace Is a Shy Thing provides a nearly day-by-day gripping account of O'Brien's thirteen months as an infantryman in Vietnam and gives equal diligence to reconstructing O'Brien's writing process. This meticulously researched biography explores the life and journey that turned O'Brien into a literary icon and a household name. It includes an unpublished short story about O'Brien from a college girlfriend, documentation of his comical involvement with the Washington Post's coverage of Watergate, and a 1989 attic exchange between American and Vietnamese writers on the eve of the publication of O'Brien's most beloved book, The Things They Carried, years before the two countries normalized relations. Peace Is a Shy Thing is as much a history of the era as it is a story of O'Brien's life, from his small-town, midwestern, mid-century childhood to winning the National Book Award and his status as literary elder statesman. A story which Vernon, a combat veteran of the Persian Gulf War and a literary scholar trained by officers and professors of the Vietnam era, is uniquely suited to tell. A Memoir of

Creativity Piri Halasz, 2009 A Memoir of Creativity chronicles one woman's life journey as she derives a theory revealing meaning in abstract painting from varied personal and professional experiences and tells how she locates this theory within a broader social context In 1966 Piri Halasz became the first woman within living memory to write a cover story for Time and not just any cover story either the notorious one on Swinging London With wit and wisdom she provides a glimpse into her red diaper childhood as well as reporting on her climb at Time from research to the writing staff Vividly she describes her controversial career as a female journalist during the sixties offering an inside view of newsweekly rivalries during that tempestuous decade Halasz then moves on to her initiation into the art world her lively interaction with some of its most distinguished denizens and her immersion in graduate school She concludes with what she has learned about art art history and history itself since the early eighties applying that knowledge to better understand the twenty first century Through sharing her life story Halasz encourages others to remain open to new experiences to try different ways of seeing and to use creativity to tackle hurdles

Triangles, Symbols, and Constraints Charles M. Dobbs, 2010 In his five plus years as president of the United States Lyndon Johnson witnessed dramatic power struggles within and between the Soviet Union the People's Republic of China and the United States of America New Soviet leaders were determined to build Soviet power and extend Soviet influence Mao's revolutionary ideology so dominated China that there were few levers to move Sino American relations ahead Johnson wanted to ease Cold War tensions by reaching a range of agreements with the Soviet Union on nuclear weapons and establishing relations with the People's Republic of China in order to end its isolation in the world community However multiple events frustrated Johnson's good intentions The Soviet leadership that overthrew Nikita Khrushchev was committed to expanding its military might before negotiating with Washington it also began focusing more and more on the worsening Sino Soviet split Mao Zedong entered into the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution and China seemed to devour itself Meanwhile the Vietnam War made negotiations among all three great powers more difficult limiting room to maneuver But Johnson persevered and by 1968 the apparent American retreat symbolized by the North Korean seizure of the USS Pueblo and the Communist Tet Offensive in Vietnam along with the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia seemed to change the construct between the great powers Beijing emerging from the worst of the Cultural Revolution increasingly feared Soviet intentions and Moscow wanted to prevent a Sino American rapprochement Although Johnson did not achieve his lofty goals he created the pre conditions that Richard Nixon later harvested for the détente with Moscow and rapprochement with Beijing Johnson's best intentions fell prey to triangles symbols and constraints

The Political Fiction of Ward Just David Smit, 2020-07-02 The Political Fiction of Ward Just Class Theories of Representation and Imagining a Ruling Elite uses three theoretical frameworks of representation literary political and diplomatic to demonstrate how the upper class status of the ruling elites in Ward Just's political fiction influences the way they govern He illustrates how Just's ruling elites develop a coherent upper class form of consciousness that limits their ability as elected officials to adequately represent the interests of all the nation's citizens domestically especially the poor and working class and their ability as diplomats to adequately represent the interests of the nation as a whole internationally In his conclusion the author offers suggestions for ways to make our ruling elites more representative of the interests of the working class and underprivileged groups at home and more sensitive to the cultures of the countries in which they serve abroad

Debate Louis B. Zimmer, 2011-09-16 This book tells the story of how America s national leadership failed the nation and produced the greatest foreign policy disaster in American history to that time It is foremost however the story of a great man who tried to halt his nation s drift into what became an American tragedy It is also a story that has never before been told As the war escalated a variety of critics emerged to challenge the war policy and thus my book is about the national debate in which University of Chicago Professor Hans J Morgenthau emerged as the chief opponent of the war Morgenthau argued relentlessly in teach ins around the country in public debates and in hundreds of articles that Vietnam was never a threat to America s security and that the war should never have been fought In the history of the national debate on Vietnam it is

Morgenthau who is the hero of the anti war movement and the centerpiece of my study Morgenthau had written the basic text on foreign policy Politics Among Nations and had established the field of international relations as an independent discipline of study His arguments against the war derive from these earliest writings and are elaborated in this book the principles of which remain valid today The war ended in 1975 as North Vietnamese troops marched into Saigon after over 58 000 American servicemen and millions of Vietnamese had died in the fighting The war could have been averted Morgenthau was ignored American policy makers misunderstood the nature of the civil conflict in Vietnam As Morgenthau told an interviewer in July 1965 What I have said recently I have been saying for years without anybody paying any attention The First Battle Otto J. Lehrack,2006-01-31 A Marine Corps veteran of the Vietnam War brings together interviews with fellow Marines and with men who fought with the 1st Viet Cong Regiment to provide a firsthand chronicle of Operation Starlite which in 1965 became the first major clash during America s involvement in Vietnam Reprint
