Contemporary French and Scandinavian Crime Fiction Anne Grydehøj, 2021-07-05 This book offers a study of Danish Norwegian Swedish and French crime fictions covering a fifty year period From 1965 to the present both Scandinavian and French societies have undergone significant transformations Twelve literary case studies examine how crime fictions in the respective contexts have responded to shifting social realities which have in turn played a part in transforming the generic codes and conventions of the crime novel At the centre of the book's analysis is crime fiction's negotiation of the French model of Republican universalism and the Scandinavian welfare state both of which were routinely characterised as being in a state of crisis at the end of the twentieth century Adopting a comparative and interdisciplinary approach the book investigates the interplay between contemporary Scandinavian and French crime narratives considering their engagement with the relationship of the state and the citizen and notably with identity issues class gender sexuality and ethnicity in particular      Fictions of Race in Contemporary French Literature Étienne Achille, Oana Panaïté, 2025-05-19

Contemporary French writers have embarked on various quests for new sources of thematic and formal inspiration which are increasingly tied to issues of postcolonial legacies However French literature has never been consistently examined through the lens of race ethnicity and its relation to post coloniality Fictions of Race in Contemporary French Literature is the first scholarly study to engage with the figure of the White writer and explore the White literary gaze in contemporary France The book highlights the inherent postcoloniality of White Hexagonal literature in a context marked by institutionalized colour blindness and offers a reflection on responsible writing in and about postcolonial France The book identifies a set of formal features functions and aesthetic dispositions which reveal the ways in which White writers grapple with postcolonial subjects It focuses on seven case studies featuring texts by Marie Darrieussecq Virginie Despentes Annie Ernaux Nicolas Fargues Pierre Lemaitre douard Louis and Nicolas Mathieu Achille and Panaïté argue that it is imperative to recast the enduring boundedness of race and empire as a matter of equal concern to White and non White writers      Being Contemporary:

Evil: A History in Modern French Literature and Thought Damian Catani, 2013-05-30 An up to date comprehensive and interdisciplinary interpretation of notions of evil in French literature and thought The Representation of the Relationship between Center and Periphery in the Contemporary Novel Ruth Amar, Françoise Saquer-Sabin, 2018-10-15 This collection of essays offers a comparative perspective on different forms of representation of social hybridity in contemporary novels through various cultural and linguistic lenses It explores the various subcategories of their interdependent relationships including power and domination between hegemony and marginality The book revolves around five axes namely writing strategies and reterritorialization marginality and intermediary spaces revisited urban spaces when periphery becomes center and the modality of confrontation and construction of identity It focuses on the identification and classification of spaces in order to understand their function in relation to the thematic strategy of the novel Its main objective is identifying the textual representation of the challenge of center and periphery as well as these concepts role and significance in diegesis Thus new light is shed on the subject and on the contemporary novel as a whole The Zombie in Contemporary French Caribbean Fiction Lucy Swanson, 2023-02-15 Believed to have emerged in the French Caribbean based on African spirit beliefs the zombie represents not merely the walking dead but also a walking embodiment of the region's history and culture In Haiti today the zombie serves as an enduring memory of enslavement it is defined as a reanimated body robbed of part of its soul forced to work in sugarcane fields In Martinique and Guadeloupe the zombie takes the form of a shape shifting evil spirit and represents the dangers posed to the maroon or freedom runner The Zombie in Contemporary French Caribbean Fiction is the first book length study of the literary zombie in recent fiction from the region It examines how this symbol of the enslaved and of the evil spirits that threaten them is used to represent and critique new socio political situations in the Caribbean It also offers a comprehensive and focused examination of the ways contemporary authors from Haiti and the French Antilles contribute to the global zombie imaginary identifying four avatars of the zombie the slave the trauma victim the horde and the popular zombie that appear frequently in fiction and anthropology exploring how works by celebrated and popular authors reimagine these archetypes Representing Judith in Early Modern French Literature Kathleen M. Llewellyn, 2016-03-23 Although attention to the Book of Judith and its heroine has grown in recent years this is the first full length study to focus on adaptations of the Bible's Old Testament Book of Judith across a range of literary genres written in French during the early modern era Author Kathleen Llewellyn bases her analysis on references to Judith in a number of early modern sermons as well as the Judith texts of four early modern writers The texts include two theatrical dramas Le Myst re de Judith et Holofern c 1500 believed to have been written by Jean Molinet and Le Miroir des vefves Trag die sacr e d Holoferne Judith by Pierre Heyns 1596 as well as two epic poems La Judit 1574 by Guillaume de Salluste Du Bartas and Gabrielle de Coignard s Imitation de la victoire de Judich 1594 Llewellyn s goal is to see Judith as she was envisioned by early modern French writers and their readers and to understand how the sixteenth century shaped their view of the heroine Noting aspects of that story that were emphasized by sixteenth century authors as well as elements that those writers altered to suit their purposes she also examines the ways in which writers of this era made use of Judith s story as a means to explore interests and concerns of early modern writers readers and spectators Representing Judith in Early Modern French Literature provides a deeper understanding of early modern ideas regarding the role of women the use of exemplary stories in preaching and teaching theories of vision and the importance of community in Renaissance France

Death Representations in Literature Adriana Teodorescu, 2015-01-12 If the academic field of death studies is a prosperous one there still seems to be a level of mistrust concerning the capacity of literature to provide socially relevant information about death and to help improve the anthropological understanding of how culture is shaped by the human condition of mortality Furthermore the relationship between literature and death tends to be trivialized in the sense that death representations are interpreted in an over aestheticized manner As such this approach has a propensity to consider death in literature to be significant only for literary studies and gives rise to certain persistent clich s such as the power of literature to annihilate death This volume overcomes such stereotypes and reveals the great potential of literary studies to provide fresh and accurate ways of interrogating death as a steady and unavoidable human reality and as an ever continuing socio cultural construction The volume brings together researchers from various countries the USA the UK France Poland New Zealand Canada India Germany Greece and Romania with different academic backgrounds in fields as diverse as literature art history social studies criminology musicology and cultural studies and provides answers to questions such as What are the features of death representations in certain literary genres Is it possible to speak of an homogeneous vision of death in the case of some literary movements How do writers perceive imagine and describe their death through their personal diaries or how do they metabolize the death of the significant others through their writings To what extent does the literary representation of death refer to the extra fictional socio historically constructed Death Is it moral to represent death in children s literature What are the differences and similarities between representing death in literature and death representations in other connected fields Are metaphors and literary representations of death forms of death denial or on the contrary a more insightful way of capturing the meaning of death
