Including a glossary of key terms for quick reference and revision, this third edition will be used by lecturers as a flexible teaching resource and by students to aid independent study.

Beyond Bagpuss Chris Pallant, 2022-06-16. Ivor the Engine, Noggin the Nog, Pingwings, Pogles Wood, Clangers and Bagpuss: the iconic animations produced by the Canterbury based Smallfilms studio between 1958 and 1984 constitute a significant thread of British cultural history. The lasting appeal of the imagined worlds created by Smallfilms is evident in the highly successful BBC reboot of Clangers 2015 present which has introduced a whole new audience to the pink moon mice. As well as the shows likely to be familiar to readers, this history expands the Smallfilms story to include those less well known animated shows that nonetheless played an important part in the studio's history. Through extensive studio access interviews with many key Smallfilms collaborators, press and audience analysis, Chris Pallant provides a comprehensive and definitive historical record of the studio's work. Beyond Bagpuss is illustrated with 100 images from the Smallfilms archive including those that have not previously been published.

Racism, Sexism, and the Media Clint C. Wilson, Felix Gutierrez, Lena Chao, 2013. This fourth edition presents current information in the rapidly evolving field of minorities' interaction with mass communications, including the portrayals of minorities in the media, advertising and public relations.

The British Sitcom Spinoff Film Stephen Glynn, 2023-12-07. This book constitutes the first full volume dedicated to an academic analysis of theatrically released spinoff films derived from British radio and television sitcoms. Regularly maligned as the nadir of British film production and marginalised as a last resort for the financially bereft industry during the 1970s, this study demonstrates that the sitcom spinoff film has instead been a persistent and important presence in British cinema from the 1940s to the present day and includes occasional works with distinct artistic merit. Alongside an investigation of the economic imperative underpinning these productions, i.e. the exploitation of proven product with a ready-made audience, it is argued that with a longevity stretching from Arthur Askey and his wartime Band Waggon (1940) to the crew of Kurupt FM and their recent People Just Do Nothing (2021), the British sitcom spinoff can be interpreted as following a full generic life cycle. Starting with the formative stage where works from Hi Gang (1941) to I Only Arsked (1958) establish the genre's characteristics, the spinoff genre moves to its classic stage where secure form and content it enjoys considerable popular success with films like Till Death Us Do Part (1969). On the

Buses 1971 The Likely Lads 1976 and Rising Damp 1980 the genre's revival since the late 1990s reveals a more parodic final stage with films like The League of Gentlemen's Apocalypse 2005 adopting a consciously self reflective mode It is also posited that the sitcom spinoff film is a viable source for social history with the often stereotypical representations of characters and events an often blatant ideological metonym for the concerns of wider British society notably in issues of class race gender and sexuality
