How they live... Reptiles David Withrington, Ivan Esenko, 2015-06-16 From 6 years old Come and discover the wonderful life of reptiles Learn about their environment their physical features what they eat and much more The How they live collection is a must have for children and other members of the family who are eager to learn about nature and animals while having fun

EXTRACT Reptiles are cold blooded vertebrates They rely more on environmental conditions and less on food to regulate their body temperature than warm blooded birds and mammals There are not many reptiles in Europe compared to the number and variety found in warmer climates The species which live in Slovenia have adapted to the winter to enable them to survive the cold season Eleven species of snake live here of which only three are venomous the Adder the Nose horned Viper and the Asp Viper These poisonous snakes have heart shaped heads stocky bodies with short tails which are visibly different from the main body and their eyes have narrow pupils Non poisonous snakes have small heads passing seamlessly into slender bodies in turn passing into the tail

ABOUT THE COLLECTION The collection How they live is about wild creatures and their relation to our lives and the environment In the How they live series How they live bats How they live birds How they live owls How they live amphibians How they live rodents

ABOUT THE AUTHORS Ivan Esenko presents the world of nature and invites the reader to learn more about the world that we are part of His camera is his most faithful companion and its lens particularly likes to capture those animals that live in close quarters to man We take them so much for granted that we no longer seem to care for them Ivan is their voice he has become their personal photographer David Withrington from Britain has spent most of his professional life working for the official agency Natural England where he was initially Author Editor and latterly Senior Freshwater Adviser He has a particular interest in birds and butterflies He has many contacts across Europe through his voluntary work for youth and environmental conservation including friends in Slovenia a country which he has visited 34 times

ABOUT THE PUBLISHER Oka i is a Slovenian publisher with a vibrant programme At every turn nature reveals its new face and discloses a myriad of secrets This is why we have devoted a special place to it in our publishing house We are the creators of books that delight curious children and their parents in their discoveries of nature in the home garden and the nearby park but also further afield in the fields and forests At Oka i we keep pace with the times which is why we have embarked upon several electronic editions of our books We have added sound to these publications and hence a new dimension to the contents already there
