Requiem Directors Script:

Requiem Jerome McDonough,1977-06-01 Requiem Forrest McDonald, Ellen Shapiro McDonald,1988 A Requiem for the Running Man James Lineberger,1969 Enacting Past and Present Michaela M. Grobbel,2009-01-28

Through a discussion of Walter Benjamin Sigmund Freud Mieke Bal and others author Michaela Grobbel focuses on the work three women authors as types of performance which lead to re presentations of memory These women writers foreground the present but also critically demonstrate the complex relationship of the present to the past Grobbel s work is a critical addition to any discussion of feminism memory and literary modernism American Jewish Filmmakers David Desser, Lester D. Friedman,2004 In this updated second edition David Desser and Lester D Friedman demonstrate how the Jewish experience gives rise to an intimately linked series of issues in the films of these and other significant Jewish directors

The Art and Practice of Directing for Theatre Paul B. Crook,2016-09-13 The formation and communication of vision is one of the primary responsibilities of a director before ever getting to the nuts and bolts of the process The Art and Practice of Directing for Theatre helps the young director learn how to discover harness and meld the two Providing both a practical and theoretical foundation for directors this book explores how to craft an artistic vision for a production and sparks inspiration in directors to put their learning into practice This book includes Guidance through day to day aspects of directing including a director s skillset and tools script analysis and rehearsal structure Advice on collaborating with production teams and actors building communication skills and tools and integrating digital media into these practices Discussion questions and practical worksheets covering script analysis blocking and planning rehearsals with downloadable versions on a companion website Words for the Theatre David Cole,2019-05-29 In Words for the Theatre playwright David Cole pursues a course of dramaturgical self questioning on the part of a playwright centred on the act of playwriting The book s four essays each offer a dramaturgical perspective on a different aspect of the playwright s practice How does the playwright juggle the transcriptive and prescriptive aspects of their activity Does the ultimate performance of a playtext in fact represent something to which all writing aspires Does the playwright s process of withdrawing to create their text echo a similar process in the theatre more widely Finally how can the playwright counter theatre s pervasive leaning towards the mistake of realism Suited to playwrights teachers and higher level students this volume of essays offers reflections on the questions that confront every playwright from an author well versed in supplying words for the theatre Rob Wagner's Beverly Hills Script ,1929 Derek Jarman Rowland Wymer,2019-01-04 This book gives detailed and original critical readings of all eleven of Derek Jarman s feature length films arguing that he occupies a major and influential place in European and world cinema rather than merely being a cult figure It places particular emphasis on the importance of Renaissance art and literature for Jarman and emphasises his interest in Jungian psychology Wymer shows how Jarman used his films to take his audience with him on an inner journey in search of the self whilst remaining fully aware of the dangers of such a journey Making substantial use of Jarman's unpublished papers as well as all his published works Wymer argues that the films are orientated towards a much wider audience than is often supposed They are addressed to anyone of whatever gender or sexuality who is prepared to go on a journey in search of him or her self and to become Jarman's accomplice in the dream world of the soul Turn to Film Hugo Letiche, Jean-Luc Moriceau, 2019-02-26 Turn to Film Film in the Business School offers creative and powerful uses of film in the business school classroom and surveys the pedagogical and performative value of watching films with students This volume examines not only how film offers opportunities for learning and investigation but also how they can be sources of ideological poison self delusion and mis representation Throughout the text renowned contributors embrace film's power to embark on new adventures of thought by inventing images and signs and by bringing novel concepts and fresh perspectives to the classroom If film often reveals organizational dysfunctionality and absurdity it also teaches us to understand the other to see difference and to accept experimentation A wide spectra of films are examined for their pedagogical value in terms of what can be learned explored and discussed by teaching with film and how film can be used as a tool of research and investigation The book sees film in the classroom as an educational challenge wherein rich learning and personal development are encouraged Variety International Film Guide, 1994
