Back to the Present, Forward to the Past International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures. Conference, 2006
The island of Ireland north and south has produced a great diversity of writing in both English and Irish for hundreds of years often using the memories embodied in its competing views of history as a fruitful source of literary inspiration Placing Irish literature in an international context these two volumes explore the connection between Irish history and literature in particular the Rebellion of 1798 in a more comprehensive diverse and multi faceted way than has often been the case in the past The fifty three authors bring their national and personal viewpoints as well as their critical judgements to bear on Irish literature in these stimulating articles The contributions also deal with topics such as Gothic literature ideology and identity as well as gender issues connections with the other arts regional Irish literature in particular that of the city of Limerick translations the works of Joyce and comparisons with the literature of other nations The contributors are all members of IASIL International Association for the Study of Irish Literatures Back to the Present Forward to the Past Irish Writing and History since 1798 will be of interest to both literary scholars and professional historians but also to the general student of Irish writing and Irish culture The Dawn of Indian Music in the West Peter Lavezzoli, 2006-04-24 Peter Lavezzoli Buddhist and musician has a rare ability to articulate the personal feeling of music and simultaneously narrate a history In his discussion on Indian music theory he demystifies musical structures foreign instruments terminology and British Literature in Transition, 1940-1960: Postwar Gill Plain, 2019 Examines debates central to postwar British culture showing the pressures of reconstruction and the mutual implication of war and peace In Search of Western Movie Sites Carlo Gaberscek, Kenny Stier, 2014 In Search of Western Movie Sites is a compilation of 64 articles written for the bi monthly newsletter Western Clippings by Carlo Gaberscek and Kenny Stier They are profoundly convinced of the fundamental importance of landscapes and natural exteriors in westerns These articles are listed regionally starting with the Southwestern states Arizona New Mexico Colorado Utah and Nevada progressing to California the Northwest Midwest and Southern states followed by Canada and finishing with Mexico They focus on the making of both A and B westerns in a single state or a specific area of a state and contain selected filmographies and detailed information on the locations They envision a vast atlas of western cinema a map of both real and imagined places constructed by Hollywood This book which includes over 200 stills and photos taken on location is a guide to thousands of western film locations Colony and Empire William G. Robbins, 1994 Popular writers and historians alike have perpetuated the powerful myth of the rugged individualist single handedly transforming the American West In reality William Robbins counters it was the Guggenheims and Goulds the Harrimans and Hearsts and the Morgans and Mellons who masterminded what the West was to become Remove the romance he shows and a darker West emerges a colonial like region where industrial statesmen aided by eastern U S and European capital manipulated investments in pursuit of private gain while controlling wage earning cowboys and miners Robbins argues that understanding the impact of capitalism on the West from the fur trade era to the present is essential to understanding power influence and change in the region Showing how global capitalism had a more profound impact on the modern West than individual initiative he explores violence and racism along the Texas Mexican border colonial style company towns in Montana and the Northwest contrasting traditions astride the U S Canadian boundary pace setting agribusiness and exploitation of labor in California the growing power of metropolitan centers and dependence of rural areas and the emergence of a sizable federal influence To grasp the essence of the West s dramatic transformation Robbins contends you must look to the mainstays of material relations in the region the perpetually changing character of political and economic culture the inherent instability of resources and the larger constellations of capitalist decision making Consequently he shows shy Western success and failure prosperity and misfortune and expansion and decline were all inseparably linked to the evolution of capitalism at the local regional national and global levels In the tradition of Patricia Nelson Limerick s Legacy of Conquest Robbins s study challenges some of our most revered images of the West and invigorates the ongoing debates over its history and meaning for our nation
