Research In Social Policy Vol 3 Research In Social Policy:

Understanding Research for Social Policy and Social Work Saul Becker, Alan Bryman, Harry Ferguson, Thomas Harold Ferguson, 2012-03-14 Thoroughly revised and expanded this new edition of Understanding Research for Social Policy and Social Work shows readers the importance of research how to interpret it and how to effectively carry out and report research of their own This landmark textbook is an essential guide to the methods approaches and debates that are required knowledge for students policymakers and practitioners

Understanding Research for Social Policy and Social Work (Second Edition) Saul Becker, Alan Bryman, Harry Ferguson, 2012-03-14 0 Social Science and Social Policy Martin I A Bulmer, 2021-12-29 First published in 1986 Social Science and Social Policy addresses major questions concerned with the social utility of social science The book is divided into four parts The first part considers the place of social science in the policy making process and criticizes the rational model which gives a central place to analysis In part two five different methodologies for policy research are considered the use of continuous surveys public opinion polls social indicators evaluation research and social experimentations and the use of qualitative methods The advantages and drawbacks of each are considered with extensive use of examples In the third part the role of theory is examined Particular attention is paid to the issue of health inequality In part four general questions are raised about the use and abuse of social science including questions about how it can be most effectively disseminated to make maximum impact The book is aimed at a general readership and requires no special methodological expertise It will appeal particularly to undergraduates and graduate students taking courses in social policy public policy applied sociology and a range of applied social sciences such as criminology health studies education and social work

Strategic Perspectives on Social Policy John E. Tropman, Milan Dluhy, Roger Lind, 2013-09-17 Strategic Perspectives on Social Policy is a collection of readings that provide insights into social policy processes analysis and implication The goal is to locate social policy within a context that suggests the possibility of a wider array of choices for the policymakers The distinction between social policy and social program is given emphasis This book has 14 chapters divided into four sections The first section deals with the relation between politics and policy with emphasis on the link between social science and social policy as well as on the influence of social values on the direction of policy The next section illustrates some of the critical skills and technologies that may be used to facilitate the process of making choices and decisions Topics covered include policy research and analysis the development and structuring of policy policy purveyance and implementation and assessment and evaluation of policy The chapters that follow explore some of the more important contexts of the loci of social change along with the kinds of mechanisms that may be used to make choices operational This monograph is intended for policymakers and others interested in the policy making process as well as for students and teachers in the areas of political science sociology social work public policy and social planning

Bouget,Pauline M. Prior,Jo Campling,2001-06-07 This book seeks to counter the recent trend of speculation about the impact of globalization upon welfare states It begins by asking two related questions What exactly is globalization How if at all has globalization been implicated in recent changes to European welfare states The book combines both theoretical and empirical analysis to provide a critical account of the relationship between globalization and change in European welfare states Firstly the key theoretical and conceptual debates are reviewed and the existing perspectives on globalization and welfare policy change are assessed The text moves on to explore and challenge the more apocalyptic economic perspectives on globalization and welfare that suggest permanent retrenchment The discussion includes an outline and assessment of the role of international organisations such as the World Bank and the EU All the major types of European national welfare system are considered Bismarkian Southern Central and Eastern European Nordic and Liberal Individual chapters outline recent welfare policy changes in the European countries of each system and the role of globalization in such changes This ground breaking text provides new empirical and theoretical perspectives on links between globalization and European welfare state change It will be important reading for students and academics in the fields of social policy politics international relations European studies and related fields New Perspectives on China and Aging Jason L. Powell,Ian G. Cook,2007 The first part of the book is entitled Family Transition and Ageing and addresses rapid social and economic changes in China through a kaleidoscope of differential perspectives that focus on how family continues to be an important reference point for the past present and future institution in the care of older people The second part of the book focuses on the tangible social forces associated with managing old age Welfare Consumption and Ageing This section is important in locating the structures and agents of power that are relevant to maintaining trust and social relations between older people the Chinese State and its dualism of state welfare and consumption of welfare Juvenile Offending Thom Brooks,2023-05-31 Tackling juvenile offending has become a key part of crime reduction strategies The articles selected for this volume examine juvenile offending from various critical perspectives and represent the work of the most influential international figures in the field The issues addressed include the different needs and perspectives of youth offenders whether offenders should be treated differently from others because of their age recommendations of policy changes identification of risk factors issues surrounding the sentencing of juvenile offenders and the relevance of restorative justice Politics and Society in Poland Frances Millard,2002-09-11 An examination of political social and economic development in Poland since the summer of 1989 with the main focus on democratization Empirical Poverty Research in a Comparative Perspective Hans Jurgen Andreß,2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this books considers defining the concept of poverty as a collective issue through an empirical view point on an international scale Looking to define poverty by compiling case studies by academics writing from viewpoints in a variety of individual countries Coping with Homelessness Dragana Avramov,2018-12-17 First published in 1999 The phenomenon of homelessness is not new but it has only recently been perceived as a social problem in European Member States Even in the early 1990s little was known about the paths in and out of homelessness This volume presents the papers arising from EUROHOME Emergency and Transitory Housing for Homeless people Needs and Best Practices This project enabled a review of the state of knowledge in the field an analysis of recent trends and a discussion of the prospects for improvement in the prevention of homelessness and the public response to housing in Europe EUROHOME and this collection thus bring together experts in the study of Poverty and Social Exclusion in the New Russia Nataliya Tikhonova,2017-07-05 Presenting the findings of a major research project funded by the EU INTAS this key volume investigates the regional ethnic and socio cultural aspects of poverty and social exclusion in Russia in recent years In depth household interviews and survey data allowed teams from the UK Denmark and Russia to compare different societies and communities in Russia across several different themes the definition of poverty in different regional ethnic and socio cultural settings the reproduction and formation of poverty subcultures in different societies and communities the ethnic national and political values of poor people the readiness of poor people for social protest and a comparison of Russia with other EU countries Offering a wealth of original data collected following a period of rapid impoverishment of the Russian population the study considers the challenge this presents to Western European models of poverty and social exclusion

Research for Social Workers Margaret Alston,Wendy Bowles,2019-09-11 Social work is developing its own research orientation and knowledge base springing from the research traditions of sociology and psychology and grounded in human rights and social justice Effective social research relies on critical thinking and the ability to view situations from new perspectives It is relevant to every area of social work practice from the initial stages of an intervention to planning a course of action and finally evaluating practice Research for Social Workers is an accessible introduction to the research methods most commonly used in social work and social welfare The major stages of research projects are outlined step by step including analysing results and reporting It is written in non technical language for students and practitioners without a strong maths background Illustrated with examples from across the world this book captures the realities of social work research in a wide range of settings End of chapter exercises and questions make this an ideal introduction to research methods This third edition is fully revised and updated It includes new chapters on systematic reviews and research in crisis situations as well as more substantial coverage of statistics

Criminal and Social Justice Dee Cook,2006-03-22 See Sample Chapters Resources to download the Introduction to Criminal and Social Justice Dee Cook s new book is important innovative and invigorating It brings together two spheres criminal justice and social justice which are usually but as she persuades us unjustifiably kept separate intellectually and in policy and practice Dee Cook makes a powerful case for the inter connectedness of penal policy and social policy bringing together concepts from the two spheres such as social exclusion citizenship and human rights Her innovative approach brings insightful theoretical analysis together with two extended case studies differential treatment of tax fraud and benefit fraud and the third way politics of New Labour

This book will make it much more difficult for students policy makers and criminal justice practitioners to ignore the social context in which penal policy evolves and is implemented Professor Barbara Hudson University of Central Lancashire This is an accessible and lively critical account of the inter relationship between social and criminal justice in New Labour Britain It should engage students on a range of programmes particularly social policy criminology and sociology Ruth Lister Professor of Social Policy Loughborough University A cogent demonstration that criminal justice cannot be achieved in the absence of social justice There is a blistering but thoroughly informed critique of New Labour s failure to narrow this justice gap Let s hope the carefully reasoned but impassioned arguments about how to get really tough on the causes of crime and injustice get the attention they deserve Robert Reiner Professor of Criminology London School of Economics and Political Science Criminal and Social Justice provides an important insight into the relationship between social inequality crime and criminalisation In this accessible and innovative account Dee Cook examines the nature of the relationship between criminal and social justice both in theory and in practice Current social economic political and cultural considerations are brought to bear and contemporary examples are used throughout to help the student to consider this relationship The book is essential reading for students and researchers in criminology social policy social work and sociology It is also relevant to practitioners in statutory voluntary and community sector organisations
