Data Collection Wendy Olsen, 2011-11-04 This innovative book provides students and researchers alike with an indispensable introduction to the key theoretical issues and practical methods needed for data collection. It uses clear definitions, relevant interdisciplinary examples from around the world and up to date suggestions for further reading to demonstrate how to usefully gather and use qualitative, quantitative and mixed data sets. The book is divided into seven critical parts: Data Collection; An Introduction to Research Practices; Collecting Qualitative Data; Observation and Informed Methods; Experimental and Systematic Data Collection; Survey Methods for Data Collection; The Case Study Method of Data Collection; Concluding Suggestions for Data Collection Groups. A stimulating practical guide which can be read as individual concepts or as a whole, this will be an important resource for students and research professionals. Wendy Olsen is Senior Lecturer at Manchester University Institute for Development Policy Management and Cathie Marsh Centre for Census Survey Research.

Experiences of Emerging Economy Firms Marin Marinov, 2015-05-05 Experiences of Emerging Economy Firms investigates the different elements of the experiences of emerging economy firms and sheds essential light on a large variety of aspects associated with their functioning in both home and host contexts.

Asian Mobilities Consumption in a Changing Arctic Young-Sook Lee, 2021-10-21 This book provides an in depth examination of the growing Asian tourism market and consumption in Arctic destinations. Through five parts, the book covers Asian mobilities consumption as an extension of Arctic international politics, the transportation sector and green cruise tourism and ethnicity, culture and history. It contributes to further understanding of the impacts of increased tourism in these polar regions by exploring climate change debates around emerging economies and global power roles in the political, socio-economic security and legal issues of the Arctic and Antarctic and associated polar strategies and policy. By drawing on a range of disciplines and with contributions from experts in Arctic destinations or who are associated with the Arctic, it further provides a holistic framing of emerging demand and mobility patterns of Asian tourists in a polar context. Asian Mobilities Consumption in a Changing Arctic will be valuable reading for students and academics across the fields of tourism, economics, sustainability, development studies as well as other social science disciplines.

De Gruyter Handbook of Women Entrepreneurs in Emerging Economies Helle Neergaard, Maribel Guerrero, Breda Kenny, 2024-12-02 Whilst women owned businesses have a significant positive impact on poverty reduction and social exclusion, we know far too little about women's entrepreneurship in an emerging economy context. This handbook aims to fill that void by giving voice to women entrepreneurs who are far too often overlooked or even invisible. The chapters offer varied perspectives on the challenges that women entrepreneurs in emerging markets experience, foremost among these the lack of resources, education and access to finance as well as gender related inequalities and the impact of social expectations. The handbook portrays how despite these challenges women use creative and work around strategies to access resources, build networks and grow their businesses. De Gruyter Handbook of Women Entrepreneurs in

Emerging Economies brings together contributions from leading experts in the field and is a must read for academic scholars and postgraduate students interested in gender and entrepreneurship diversity
