Kenneth Godwin, 1972 EPA-600/5, 1974-02 A Research Agenda for Political Demography Sciubba, Jennifer D., 2021-08-27 Exploring how demographic dynamism continues to shape the character of societies this forward looking Research Agenda offers insights into how the human population has undergone fundamental demographic shifts and the impact these have had on how we organize ourselves politically the design of our economic systems and even our societal relationships Global Political Demography Achim Goerres, Pieter Vanhuysse, 2021-08-10 This open access book draws the big picture of how population change interplays with politics across the world from 1990 to 2040 Leading social scientists from a wide range of disciplines discuss for the first time all major political and policy aspects of population change as they play out differently in each major world region North and South America Sub Saharan Africa and the MENA region Western and East Central Europe Russia Belarus and Ukraine East Asia Southeast Asia subcontinental India Pakistan and Bangladesh Australia and New Zealand These macro regional analyses are completed by cross cutting global analyses of migration religion and poverty and age profiles and intra state conflicts From all angles this book shows how strongly contextualized the political management and the political consequences of population change are While long term population ageing and short term migration fluctuations present structural conditions political actors play a key role in managing manipulating and under planning population change which in turn determines how citizens in different groups react The Essentials of Political Analysis Philip H. Pollock III, Barry C. Edwards, 2024-12-20 Equip students with the skills and confidence they need to conduct political analyses and critically assess statistical research In the Seventh Edition of The Essentials of Political Science bestselling authors Philip H Pollock III and Barry C Edwards build students analytic abilities and develop their statistical reasoning with new data fresh exercises and clear examples This brief and reader friendly guide walks students through the essentials defining measurement formulating and testing hypotheses measuring variables while using key terms chapter opening objectives over 80 tables and figures and practical exercises to get them using and applying their new skills Using Excel R SPSS or STATA Companion workbooks featuring statistical software instructions and exercises help your students apply their knowledge Population and Politics: New Directions in Political Science Research Richard L. Clinton, 1973 Research in Education, 1974 Environmental Politics and Policy Brent Steel, Richard L. Clinton, Nicholas P. Lovrich, 2003 This exciting new text for the Environmental Politics and or Policy course s does not just look at this subject from a U S perspective but an international one expanding upon and reflecting the globalization of this important area of study Using the comparative approach students will learn about environmental issues but not without a larger context Included in the comparative examination are post industrial countries developing countries post Communist countries and of course the U S In addition chapters on science what science is and how it fits into the political context international law and emerging issues such as women and the environment make this a strong and exciting text The Anthropological Demography of Health Véronique Petit,Kaveri Qureshi,Yves Charbit,Philip Kreager,2020 The Anthropological Demography of Health explores the combination of anthropological and demographic approaches to public health research charting the growing body of research that combines ethnography with quantitative models and methods in the field of population health Population and Politics Richard L. Clinton,1973 Resources in Education ,1996-05 An Introduction to the Study of Political Economy Luigi Cossa,1893 The Institutional Context of Population Change Fred C. Pampel,2010-04-15 Despite having similar economies and political systems high income nations show persistent diversity In this pioneering work Fred C Pampel looks at fertility suicide and homicide rates in eighteen high income nations to show how they are affected by institutional structures European nations for example offer universal public benefits for men and women who are unable to work and have policies to ease the burdens of working mothers The United States in contrast does not This study demonstrates how public policy differences such as these affect childbearing among working women moderate pressures for suicide and homicide among the young and old and shape sex difference in suicide and homicide The Institutional Context of Population Change cuts across numerous political and sociological topics including political sociology stratification sex and gender and aging It persuasively shows the importance of public policies for understanding the demographic consequences of population change and the importance of demographic change for understanding the consequences of public policies The Journal of Political Economy ,1929 Deals with research and scholarship in economic theory Presents analytical interpretive and empirical studies in the areas of monetary theory fiscal policy labor economics planning and development micro and macroeconomic theory international trade and finance and industrial organization Also covers interdisciplinary fields such as history of economic thought and social economics
