Long Road To Teatime:

I, Clodia, and Other Portraits Anna Jackson, 2015-02-01 I Clodia is the story of Clodia Metelli poet and lover and her relations with her far away paramour Catullus her husband Metellus Celer her brother Publius Clodius and her accuser Cicero By giving Clodia the Lesbia of Catullus's famous love poetry her own first person narration Anna Jackson upends and reinvigorates the beloved classical sequence with biting wit and tender attention Who was Clodia and what did she think about the affair the gossip the scandal the poems Jackson honors and subverts her source material in lines that are a marvel of ventriloquism The book's second section The Photographer's Secret furthers this superb exploration of voice and portrayal The photographer in this sequence reads writes gives presents and considers the art of portraiture But who is examining and who is being examined Above all else Anna Jackson takes us within and without a range of characters in her characteristically witty style sometimes mock breathless sometimes dryly pointed and always clever stylish and emotionally engaging

Pasture and Flock: New and Selected Poems Anna Jackson, 2018-03-08 There are some poets you travel the routes of so often you could feel your way in the dark that turn that corner and then the plummet towards the end What does it give you after all to meet in person in a room A thought the dog doesn't share when having known the followed route the stored scent an affair of the air here is the other dog Incarnate Guessed and host Poets know words know routes know ghosts Uneasy nights out with dead Russian poets dalliances with German gasfitters and emotionally fraught games of badminton are brought together for the first time along with a brand new body of work in this time spanning selection of Anna Jackson's poetry Local gothic suburban pastoral and answerings back to literary icons are all enhanced by Jackson's light hand and sly humour Pastoral yet gritty intellectual and witty sweet but with stings in their tails the poems and sequences collected in Pasture and Flock are essential reading for both long term and new admirers of Jackson's slanted approach to lyric poetry

A Long Road To Freedom Mary Mc Cartan, 2011-07-22 A Long Road to Freedom The Life of Patrick Mc Crystal An Irish Soldier's Cry for Peace By Mary Mc Cartan Most men returning from World War 2 never spoke about their experiences Still in their youth they simply closed the book on the past and started a new life The young Irish fellows returning especially to the North were forced to bury their history even further down and completely deny it for their own safety Patrick Mc Crystal was one of those men who arrived home alive with a story of horror But he locked that story inside for 53 years before being forced to tell it This is his story A first hand experience of a life time of war through the eyes of one Peace loving man who has seen the devastation of some of the most gruesome attacks on civilian populations in the 20th Century Patrick found himself in Malta in 1940 trapped in the most bombed place in world history After surviving that siege he ended up in the frontline as the Germans slaughtered British Troops on Leros As a POW Patrick helped bury the tens of thousands of German civilians killed in Dresden by Allied attacks On returning home to peaceful normality war found him again in 1969 Raising a family through the Northern Ireland Troubles was difficult and Patrick suffered the loss of his own daughter in the bombing
