Sketches of Acadie James Hannay,1867 Rural Writing Mauricette Fournier,2019-01-17 If as a corollary of urbanization many artists seized as early as the nineteenth century and most of the twentieth century the city as object and scene of their reflection on a world under construction it was not the same for rural areas Generally speaking until recently the countryside s representations have been shaped by the writings of a ruling class However in recent decades alongside the country novels or terroir novels that follow in line with the rustic current initiated in the nineteenth century more demanding literary productions have emerged These writings often fed by the sense of loss and the end of a certain agricultural lifestyle are also exploring the contemporary reconstructions of rural areas little publicized They redefine a new regionality less militant and certainly less connoted in its nostalgic link to the land This book revisits rural areas and their representations in contemporary writing in both popular and high culture in order to draw a global landscape of current rural areas and new regionalities Kouchibouguac Ronald Rudin,2016-01-01 In Kouchibouguac Ronald Rudin tells the story of the park s establishment the resistance of its residents and the memory of that experience Acadia National Park (N.P.), Proposed ,1972 Nova Scotia's Lost Communities Joan Dawson,2021-04-06 Stories and photos that bring the people and places of Nova Scotia s historic past to life Beaubassin was once a prosperous farming community at the head of the Cumberland Basin Africville was the vibrant home of Black Nova Scotians who struggled to make a living and found spiritual solace in their church Both are now gone one a casualty of long ago colonial warfare and the other a victim of misguided urban renewal In this fascinating book author Joan Dawson looks at thirty seven of this Canadian province s lost communities places like Electric City Indian Gardens and the Tancook Islands Some were home to ethnic groups forced to leave Others once dependent on factories mills or the fishery died as the economy changed or resources were depleted But they were all once places where Nova Scotians were born married worked and died Featuring over 60 archival and contemporary photos and illustrations Nova Scotia s Lost Communities preserves those memories with fascinating insights

Lost in the Fog James De Mille,2006 Immediately in front of them arose a vast cliff black rocky frowning that ascended straight up from the deep water its summit lost in the thick fog its base white with the foaming waves that thundered there A hoarse roar came up from those breaking waves which blended fearfully with the whistle of the wind through the rigging and seemed like the warning sound of some dark drear fate The cliff was close by and the schooner had been steering straight towards it So near was it that it seemed a though one could have easily tossed a biscuit ashore Acadian Odyssey Oscar

Postscripts Robert Root, 2012-09-01 Walt Whitman's meditation on time is the undercurrent running through Postscripts a series of reflections on finding one's place in the endless chain of time. In linked essays Robert Root ranges across American terrains and landscapes including locales as varied as Walden Pond and Mesa Verde, the mountains of Montana and the coastline of Maine, Great Lakes shorelines and Manhattan on the first day of the war with Iraq. Rich in all that retrospection, Postscripts chronicles moments of intimacy and arrival in the natural world while also charting intersections of natural, cultural, and personal history. Whether revisiting the first European settlement in Nova Scotia or seeking out the sites of E. B. White's life and literature, exploring the only old growth forest in lower Michigan or shifting perceptions at the birth of a granddaughter, Root offers readers a new perspective on the relationship between time and place, time and timelessness, history and personal history. If the past is prologue, his book suggests, the present is postscript.
