Man Who Walked Between The Towers:

The Man Who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2003-09-05 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers a quarter of a mile in the sky The Man who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2004 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers The Man Who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2007-04-17 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers Man Who Walked Between the Towers Mordicai Gerstein, 2007 A lyrical evocation of Philippe Petit's 1974 tightrope walk between the World Trade Center towers To Reach the Clouds Philippe Petit, 2002-09-04 An artist of the air re-creates his six year plot to pull off an act of incomparable beauty and imagination One late summer day a feat of unimaginable audacity was perpetrated on the twin towers of the World Trade Center The year was 1974 A hundred thousand people gathered on the ground to watch in awe as twenty four year old high wire artist Philippe Petit made eight crossings between the all but completed towers a quarter mile above the earth over the course of nearly an hour Petit's achievement made headlines around the world Yet few who saw or heard about it realized that it was the fulfillment of a dream he had nurtured for six years rekindling it each time it was in danger of expiring His accomplices were a motley crew of foreigners and Americans who under Petit's direction had conspired connived labored argued rehearsed and improvised to make possible an act of unsurpassed aerial artistry In this visually and verbally stunning book Petit tells for the first time the dramatic story of this history making walk from conception and clandestine planning to the performance and its aftermath The account draws on Petit's journals which capture everything from his budgets to his strategies for rigging a high wire in the dead of night between two of the most secure towers in the world It is animated by photographs taken by two of Petit's collaborators and by his own wonderfully evocative sketches and unquenchable humor Second-Generation Memory and Contemporary Children's Literature Anastasia Ulanowicz, 2013-09-02 Winner of the Children's Literature Association Book Award This book visits a range of textual forms including diary novel and picturebook to explore the relationship between second generation memory and contemporary children's literature Ulanowicz argues that second generation memory informed by intimate family relationships textual mediation and technology is characterized by vicarious rather than direct experience of the past As such children's literature is particularly well suited to the representation of second generation memory insofar as children's fiction is particularly invested in the transmission and reproduction of cultural memory and its form promotes the formation of various complex intergenerational relationships Further children's books that depict second generation memory have the potential to challenge conventional Western notions of selfhood and ethics This study shows how novels such as Lois Lowry's The Giver 1993 and Judy Blume's Starring Sally J. Freedman as Herself 1977 both of which feature protagonists who adapt their elders' memories into their own mnemonic repertoires implicitly reject Cartesian notions of the unified subject in favor of a view of identity as always already social relational and dynamic in character This book not only questions how and why second generation memory is represented in books for young people but whether such representations of memory might be considered radical or conservative Together these analyses address a topic that has not been explored fully within the fields of children s literature trauma and memory studies and Holocaust studies The Walk Shaun Alexander,2011 Bible teacher and former professional football player Shaun Alexander describes five stages of spiritual maturity and shares his thoughts on the benefits of walking with God Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano,2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials The Joy of Children's Literature Denise Johnson,2023-12-18 This book provides in depth coverage of children s literature with integrated reading methods in a concise accessible format Johnson emphasizes that reading writing discussing and finding pleasure in children s books are essential tools in being able to recognize and recommend literature and being able to share the joy of children s literature with children themselves This fully updated third edition includes up to date research new book titles within each chapter a greater focus on diversity and inclusion and new sections on Activities for Professional Development and Print and Online Resources Read On...History Tina Frolund,2013-10-21 Make history come alive This book helps librarians and teachers as well as readers themselves find books they will enjoy titles that will animate and explain the past entertain and expand their minds This invaluable resource offers reading lists of contemporary and classic non fiction history books and historical fiction covering all time periods throughout the world and including practically all manner of human endeavors Every book included is hand selected as an entertaining and enlightening read Organized by appeal characteristics this book will help readers zero in on the history books they will like best for instance titles that emphasize character tell a specific type of historical story convey a mood or

Marcus,2008-02-05 Commemorating the 70th anniversary of the Caldecott Medal a noted children s book historian profiles past and present winners of this prestigious illustration award including Robert McCloskey Marcia Brown and Maurice Sendak Post-9/11 Historical Fiction and Alternate History Fiction Pei-chen Liao,2020-09-19 Drawing on theories of historiography memory and diaspora as well as from existing genre studies this book explores why contemporary writers are so fascinated with history Pei chen Liao considers how fiction contributes to the making and remaking of the transnational history of the U S by thinking beyond and before 9 11 investigating how the dynamics of memory as well as the emergent present influences readers reception of historical fiction and alternate history fiction and their interpretation of the past Set against the historical backdrop of WWII the Vietnam War and the War on Terror the novels under discussion tell Jewish Japanese white American African Muslim and Native Americans stories of trauma and survival As a means to transmit memories of past events these novels demonstrate how multidirectional memory can be not only collective but connective as exemplified by the echoes that post 9 11 readers hear between different histories of violence that the novels chronicle as well as between the past and the present

Children's Fiction about 9/11 Jo Lampert,2009-09-10 In this pioneering and timely book Lampert examines the ways in which cultural identities are constructed within young adult and children s literature about the attacks of September 11 2001 Looking at examples including picture books young adult novels and a selection of DC Comics Lampert finds the co mingling of xenophobia and tolerance the binaried competition between good and evil and global harmony and national insularity and the glorification of both the commonplace hero and the super human Specifically Lampert identifies three significant identity categories encoded in 9 11 books for children ethnic identities national identities and heroic identities arguing that their formation is contingent upon post 9 11 politics These shifting identities offer implicit and explicit accounts of what constitute good citizenship loyalty to nation and community and desirable attributes in a Western post 9 11 context Lampert makes an original contribution to the field of children s literature by providing a focused and sustained analysis of how texts for children about 9 11 contribute to formations of identity in these complex times of cultural unease and global unrest 101 Great, Ready-to-Use Book Lists for Teens Nancy J.
