Management For The Christian Worker:

Management for the Christian Worker Olan Hendrix, 1976 Discusses the principles of effective management

Management and the Christian Worker Olan Hendrix, 1972 The Christian Workers Magazine, 1918 Authentic Managerial Leadership Robert A. Orr, 2011-07 Robert A Orr lives a fulfilling life which began with his birth in Argentina his boyhood and teenage years in Brazil and his college education and pilot s training in Canada He served as a trainer and pilot for seventeen years in Brazil and returned to Canada where he and his wife Adriana now live With a passion burden and commitment to address and meet the blatant need for authentic leadership and management training Robert continues to teach and mentor Christian leaders and leaders in the making around the world Three of his objectives are 1 Provide this resource material in many languages 2 Make this resource tool widely available to Christian workers missions ministries and the Church 3 Assist in meeting the crying need for a new strong youthful motivated energetic and visionary authentic managerial leadership characterized by godly principles and learned managerial skills What a massive amount of research has gone into this very fine guide I wish I could have had a copy of something like this 30 years ago I trust that it is getting into the hands of a large number of leaders and managers in our Christian community who can certainly use the guidance and direction you supply I was most pleased to note the number of times you quoted me and my writings in the manual I m complemented I was pleased to note that it is being translated into other languages for leaders in other cultures I trust that God will continue to use you and this type of training material to His glory for many years to come Dr Ted W Engstrom President Emeritus World Vision New Theoretical Dialogues on Migration in China Hong Zhu, Junxi Qian, 2023-02-21 This edited book emerges from the observation that the current literatures on migration in China are constrained by a series of shortfalls including a relative topical homogeneity centred on domestic labour migration relatively narrowly conceived and institutionalist conceptions of migration and migrants without adequate attention paid to the identities agencies and everyday experiences of migrants and finally a lack of engagement with theoretical models and paradigms in the broad discipline of migration studies Assembling eight fine grained research works engaging with a broad variety of migratory trajectories and experiences this book addresses these shortfalls by 1 investigating diverse forms of domestic and transnational migration in and to China 2 problematising rethinking and innovating well established analytical tools and categories to move beyond their epistemological fixity and highlight their socially and dynamically constructed nature and 3 underscoring the centrality of identity subjectivity and everyday experiences rather than mechanical causality between institutions and migration outcomes to theoretical understandings of migration in China It will be of interest to researchers and advanced students of Sociology Politics Human Geography Social Work and Urban Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies Management by the Book Robert Case, 2022-06-06 In Management by the Book Robert Case masterfully weaves Old and New Testament management examples and principles commentary from scholars insight from theologians practices from contemporary business owners and observations from Case himself to present a picture of management utterly unique in business literature
