Great Moments in Australian History Jonathan King,2010 Great Moments in Australian History presents an exciting

collection of stories about the most colourful highlights and heroes of Australia's history. Pioneering a fresh approach, award-winning author Jonathan King dramatises events to bring each moment vividly to life. Dodge Aboriginal spears as we land with early Dutch explorers, creep by night into an open boat with convict Mary Bryant as she escapes from Botany Bay, sneak into Matthew Flinders' French prison cell as he names Australia, break down doors with the redcoats to arrest Governor Bligh, confront Wild White Man William Buckley as he returns from the dead after 30 years' fight for democracy at the Eureka Stockade, join Ned Kelly in his last shoot-out, ride down mountains with the Man from Snowy River, land with the Anzacs at Gallipoli, gallop across deserts with the Light Horse on history's last successful cavalry charge, fly the first plane from the UK to Australia, climb the steps as our first woman enters parliament, join Bradman on the pitch as he makes history, help soldiers stop Japanese troops advancing down the Kokoda Track, throw a boomerang with the first Aboriginal elected to parliament, feel Whitlam's outrage as he is dismissed, watch the angel of the Bali bombing save lives and escape the nation's worst bushfires in stories that will take your breath away. Filled with graphic images, the book presents the big picture from the discoveries of the early explorers to the cut and thrust of modern day politics. In laying bare events that shaped the nation, it highlights vital turning points that marked the end of an era and the start of something new, showing just how dramatically Australia has changed. Sometimes fact is indeed stranger than fiction.

Prison Jacqueline Z. Wilson, 2008. Prison: Cultural Memory and Dark Tourism discusses decommissioned Australian prisons currently or potentially functioning as tourist attractions. In particular, it addresses a fundamental question: Do the interpretations and presentations of the sites include and fairly represent the personal stories and experiences associated with those prisons? The author argues that the conventional understanding of most of Australia's historical prisons fosters a radical othering of inmates and with it the exclusion, distortion and historical neglect of their narratives. This book examines avenues via which neglected narratives may be glimpsed or inferred, presenting a number of examples. This remedies the imbalance in some degree and tests such avenues' potential as resources for inclusive interpretations by public historians and curators. The book also focuses on the influence of celebrity prisoners whose links to the penal system are exploited as promotional features by the sites and in some cases by the individuals themselves. Their narratives provide broad, if unwitting, support for the system and for the othering of the more general inmate population. The ramifications of the above with regard to aspects of Australian identity mean that certain facets of the Australian character traditionally held to be emblematic are affected. These effects have subtle but tangible consequences for modern Australians' collective memory and deleterious consequences for current popular attitudes to penal practice.

Great Disasters in Australian History Jonathan King, 2013-11-01. A gripping account of the worst disasters to hit Australia since Federation. From bushfires to cyclones, sinking ships, train and plane crashes, mine explosions and bridge collapses, the Port Arthur massacre and the Bali bombings, Australia has suffered numerous terrible tragedies. opening each account with stories of the victims who died or whose lives were irrevocably changed by them detailing the events and conditions that contributed to them and telling inspiring tales of heroism and bravery in response to them Dr King also shows how many of the disasters were caused by avoidable human error or negligence and warns that global warming will cause ever more extreme weather events Dreadful as they've been most Australian tragedies have resulted in constructive initiatives such as tighter gun controls in response to the Port Arthur shootings stricter regulations for transport by air sea and rail and safer conditions for workers Thought provoking and gripping Great Disasters in Australian History takes you on a rollercoaster ride through more than a century of tragedies that have rocked our nation

Gallipoli Diaries
Jonathan King, 2014-09-29 Gallipoli for the average Australian is the most famous battle that our volunteer soldiers ever fought because it was our first entry as a nation into the war and our people were keen to prove themselves It would be however a long time before the families back home and the nation as a whole heard of the terrible conditions on the peninsula and the waste of life that took place there Although Gallipoli was a crushing defeat it was and still is celebrated as a victory In this updated commemorative edition published 100 years after the 25 April 1915 landing the Gallipoli story is told day by day using the words of the diggers drivers soldiers and war correspondents at the front line War historian Jonathan King has gathered together an unequalled series of extracts from letters and diaries written by hundreds of Anzacs at Gallipoli accounting for every one of the 240 days of the eight month campaign and even identifying the actual days of the week Reading the men's own words including misspellings and mistakes we share in the soldiers' experiences These Australians of exceptional calibre and good cheer each wrote for different reasons although many made light of their hardships It is all here the fear the frustration and the boredom as they scrounged for bully beef went mad from the flies the lice and the stench of the unburied dead swapped cigarettes with enemy Turks dodged shrapnel while swimming at the beach celebrated birthdays sheltered from rain and shivered in snow and waited for action while praying for deliverance Although generals historians and war scholars have had their stories told many times it is only now when we read the private words of the men at the front line that we can glimpse what Gallipoli was really like PRAISE FOR JONATHAN KING In Jonathan King's Gallipoli Diaries we share the experiences of the diggers from day one It is a story that is spoken in the sometimes halting words of the soldiers and therein lies its power There is much here to enlarge our understanding of the disastrous Gallipoli campaign not least the appalling conditions in the trenches the daily grind of water carrying poor food flies and death Books Publishing A comprehensive history of the whole of the Gallipoli campaign Some notable Australian writers are among the many letter writers and diarists and their writing skills stand out King starts the book with some thoughts about why Australia as a nation celebrates what was after all a crushing defeat The Cooma Monaro Express

Mary Bryant, the Convict Girl Laurie Sheehan, 2006 This is a fictional account of the true story of Mary Bryant who was sent to Botany Bay after committing a minor felony The appalling conditions there compelled Mary her husband and her two young children to escape They made their way by boat to East Timor but their troubles were far from over
