Model Myth Or Miracle A Reassessment Of The Asian Experience:

Model, Myth Or Miracle? Beatrice Weder, 1998-09-01 The East Asian experience has often been hailed as a miracle and a model of successful development but has more recently been called a myth and a bad example that should not be emulated by other developing countries This book takes stock of the lessons from two decades of successful economic performance in East Asia and the new lessons that arise from the recent economic crisis The book concludes with updated analysis aimed at helping other countries learn from the East Asian experience Model, Myth, Or Miracle Beatrice Weder, 2002-06 Until recently the East Asian EA experience was hailed as a miracle a model of successful development Now it is being called a bad example that should not be emulated by other developing countries Critics allege that governments not only made serious policy mistakes but also that the institutional framework was undermined by crony capitalism This report takes stock of the lessons from two decades of successful economic performance in EA countries the new lessons that have arisen from the recent economic crisis Scorecards of institutional performance are presented for Thailand Malaysia South Korea Singapore Hong Kong Includes a detailed discussion of the role of corruption Globalization and Development Volume I Shigeru Thomas Otsubo, 2015-08-27 Globalization and Development is a cross national study on the interstate dispersion of the impacts on growth inequality and poverty that international economic integration provides to the economies of the developing countries In order to present the Leading Issues in Development with Globalization in a balanced manner to identify differences and commonalities among Country Experiences in development with globalization and to introduce diversified development paradigms with forward looking discussions In Search of a New Development Paradigm for the post MDGs era this publication consists of three volumes and four main parts Volume I Part I introduces the evolution and facets of globalization and the challenges that we face in our development efforts under globalization Findings from the old and new empirical studies are consolidated for us to answer the following question What do we really know about the impacts of globalization Volume I Part II contains thematic and issue oriented discussions on the key facets of globalization This book intends to serve as a unique and comprehensive guide for those in the international development community on the subjects of diversified development paradigms paths under globalization and other challenges in the post MDGs era The Persistence of Cambodian Poverty Harold R. Kerbo, 2014-01-10 Since the tragedies of the killing fields and the reign of the Khmer Rouge the global community has largely ignored the social issues plaguing Cambodia Though the infamous killings have largely stopped poverty and corruption are rampant in contemporary Cambodia This book includes a short history of Cambodia and covers the systemic nature of its poverty and the contrasting economic success stories of Vietnam and Laos This book is particularly relevant to those interested in the broader issue of eliminating world poverty

Financing for Development in Latin America and the Caribbean Andrés Franco Vasco, 2001 Since the early 1990s the nations of Latin America and the Caribbean LAC have joined other developing countries to bring the issue of financing for development to the agenda of the United Nations Although the discussion had begun earlier in the 1980s it was not until 1997 when a financial crisis hit many developing countries that a decision was made to convene an international forum What is the role and what are the sensitivities and perspectives of LAC in regard to financing for development This book attempts to provide a comprehensive answer to this question taking into account the need to prevent external crises in the future to reduce the vulnerability of the region to reform the international financial system and to minimize the social impact of these factors Asien, 2006 Necroeconomics Vladimer Papava, Vladimir Georgievich Papava, 2005 Necroeconomics and post communist transformation of economy the political economy of post communist capitalism lessons from Georgia Vladimer Papava c2005 BISS Journal, 2002 UNU Nexions United Nations University, 1999 Lessons from the Asian Financial Crisis Richard Carney, 2009-01-13 The contributors provide an overview of developments in the affected countries during the 1997 Asian financial crisis lessons learned and corrective measures taken lessons learned by regional and international actors how domestic regional and international politics have affected the outcomes the identification of potential future problems and levels of preparedness Rethinking Development Economics Ha-Joon Chang, 2003 Impressive provides a very good compendium of what are usually classified as heterodox development economics an excellent volume Journal of International Development This important new collection tackles the failure of neoliberal reform to generate longterm growth and reduce poverty in many developing and transition economies As dramatically demonstrated in the collapse of the WTO s Seattle talks there is increasing dissatisfaction in both developing and developed countries with the emerging neoliberal global economic order The resignations of Joseph Stiglitz and Ravi Kanbur from the World Bank emphasize that this disillusionment with the orthodoxy now exists at the very heart of the establishment Yet the increasing demand for an alternative to this orthodoxy is not being met Over the last few decades the older generation of development economists have been edged out of most major universities particularly in the USA The situation in most developing countries is even worse although there is more demand for alternatives to orthodox development economics these countries have even less capability to generate such alternatives Rethinking Development Economics is intended to fill this gap It addresses key issues in development economics ranging from macroeconomics finance and governance to trade industry agriculture and poverty Bringing together some of the foremost names in the field this comprehensive and timely collection constitutes a critical staging post in the future of development economics Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff, Staff Bowker, Ed, 2004 Economic Miracles in the European Economies Magdalena Osińska, 2019-02-25 This book undertakes a theoretical and econometric analysis of intense economic growth in selected European countries during the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first Focusing on the accelerated economic growth that occurred in Ireland the Netherlands Spain and Turkey this book investigates the determinants and consequences of this miracle growth and discusses them in context of growth and development processes observed in European market type economies after the

World War II Using imperfect knowledge economics IKE as a theoretical framework to interpret the empirical results this book provides a fresh theoretical perspective in comparison with current Neo classical Keynesian and institutional paradigms With this systematic approach the authors seek to provide a unified methodology for evaluating the phenomenon of intense economic growth that has heretofore been missing from the discipline Combining diverse theoretical and methodological strategies to provide a holistic understanding of the historical process of economic change this volume will be of interest to students and scholars of economic growth econometrics political economy and the new institutional economics as well as policymakers

East Asian Experience in Environmental Governance: Response in a Rapidly Developing Region Zafar Adeel, 2003 This publication examines the existing systems for environmental governance in East Asian countries a region which has seen considerable growth in its economy industrial base and population in the last two decades It contains case studies from China Japan Korea Malaysia and Thailand and focuses on three sectors pesticide management water quality and resources management and air pollution management This selection is intended to provide a diverse mix of political and historical backgrounds in order to give a representative view of governance mechanisms in highly industrialised industrialising and developing economies

The Asian Economic Catharsis Frank-Jürgen Richter, 2000-09-30

One result of the Asian economic crisis has been to shatter the belief that Asian ways of management are superior to Western ways Now just to survive Asian firms have come to rethink their entire way of managing and in his latest book Richter assisted by his contributing authors gives a sharply focused analysis of how they are doing it Emerging questions are how do Asian firms adjust to the new economic realities and How do they develop their management style There are plenty of new opportunities in Asia to play the new game but they must be grasped and productively channeled Richter and his contributors conclude that in the end the Asian economic crisis or catharsis may well be a blessing in disguise It provides an opportunity to completely review the way things stand in Asia Like entrepreneurs who built the Asian economies today s firms have the opportunity to lead a revival if they can redirect their businesses This is an important resource for professionals in all multinational organizations and for academics and their upper level students of international business

Growth Without Miracles Ross Garnaut,Yiping Huang,2001 China s economic reform constitutes one of the most remarkable events of the second half of the twentieth century It not only significantly improved the living conditions of the Chinese population but also provides a useful model of economic transition from central planning to a market economy The gradual approach to reform adopted by the Chinese was widely regarded as suboptimal and likely to fail when compared to the shock therapy method applied in the former Soviet Union and the Eastern European economies But China has out performed other transitional economies To many observers the Chinese experience is either a myth or a miracle This volume addresses key questions about the initial economic foundations the reform of macroeconomic policies and macroeconomic stability the achievements of agricultural reform and the agricultural policy choices facing the Chinese government the unique characteristics of the township and village enterprises the successful reform of the state owned enterprises the development of factor markets the contributions of the external sectors to economic growth the lessons of the Chinese experience for transitional economies and the challenges for economic theory Growth without Miracles brings together thirty widely cited articles by prominent economists in the field of China studies to offer authoritative and thorough assessment and analyses of Chinas experience during the reform period It provides a complete story for teachers and students of courses on the Chinese economy and will be of considerable interest to researchers officials and business people who want to understand past experiences current problems and the future direction of the Chinese economy
