Accountability Research Hugo Letiche, Ivo De Loo, Carolyn Cordery, Jean-Luc Moriceau, 2024-07-12 This book discusses auto ethnographies of accountability undertaken in close collaboration by a multinational group of accounting and organization theory researchers over a period of three years The key assumption underlying the book is that accountability is inherently an identity creating process where the study of account making has to be done participatively with radical openness to the one s being researched as well as to their context That openness we call ethnography The values or assumptions inherent to the practices of account and identity making in a specific context are what auto ethnographies seek to describe and identify These values and assumptions warrant critical ethical reflection and this is what the researchers presented here have tried to provide The chapters in this book all are mini studies of relatedness The scale of examination is intimate the reflections provided by the researchers are mainly methodological This book is of interest to accounting and organization theory students and scholars who believe that accountability can fruitfully be studied through auto ethnography The book extends currently existing views on how accountability can be handled and discharged between
