Heng, Syed Muhd. Khairudin Aljunied, 2009 Over the past two decades Singapore has advanced rapidly towards becoming a both a global city state and a key nodal point in the international economic sphere These developments have caused us to reassess how we understand this changing nation including its history population and geography as well as its transregional and transnational experiences with the external world This collection spans several disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and draws on various theoretical approaches and methodologies in order to produce a more refined understanding of Singapore and to reconceptualize the challenges faced by the country and its peoples Raffles Hotel Gretchen

Liu, Raghu Rai, Albert K. S. Lim, 1992 Buildings of Empire Ashley Jackson, 2013-11-28 Buildings of Empire takes the reader on an exciting journey through thirteen territories of the British Empire From Dublin Castle to the glass and steel of Sir Norman Foster's Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank skyscraper these buildings capture the essence of the imperial experience painting an intimate portrait of the biggest empire the world has ever seen the people who made it and the people who resisted it as well as the legacy of the imperial project throughout the world Ashley Jackson visits classic examples of the buildings that the British governed from the forts they often brutally imposed their rule from the railway stations they travelled from the banks they traded from the educational establishments they spread their values from as well as the grand colonial hotels they stayed in the sporting clubs and botanical gardens where they took their leisure and the monumental exhibition spaces in which they celebrated the achievements of settlement and imperial endeavour The history of these buildings does not end with the empire that built them Their story in the aftermath of empire highlights the continuing legacy of many of the structures and institutions the British left behind as well as the sometimes unexpected role that these former symbols of alien rule have played in the establishment of new national identities in the years since independence

Labor Marissa Brookes, 2019-03-15 Over the years many transnational labor alliances have succeeded in improving conditions for workers but many more have not In The New Politics of Transnational Labor Marissa Brookes explains why this dichotomy has occurred Using the coordination and context appropriate CCAP theory she assesses this divergence arguing that the success of transnational alliances hinges not only on effective coordination across borders and within workers local organizations but also on their ability to exploit vulnerabilities in global value chains invoke national and international institutions and mobilize networks of stakeholders in ways that threaten employers core material interests Brookes uses six comparative case studies spanning four industries five countries and fifteen years From dockside labor disputes in Britain and Australia to service sector campaigns in the supermarket and private security industries to campaigns aimed at luxury hotels in Southeast Asia Brookes creates her new theoretical framework and speaks to debates in international and comparative political economy on the politics of economic globalization the viability of private governance and the impact of organized labor on economic inequality From this assessment Brookes provides a vital update to the international relations literature on non state actors and transnational activism and shows how we can understand the unique capacities labor has as a transnational actor Belt Collins Belt Collins Hawaii (Firm), 2003 During the firm s 50 years of creating development projects from Hawaii to Bali Belt Collins with its talented landscape architects environmental specialists physical planners and civil engineers has served three masters the land the owners and the users with great skill and sensitivity Featured projects include a selection of resorts in Waikiki and elsewhere in Hawaii destination resorts in the Asia Pacific region a number of Shangri La Hotels in Asia and recreational developments in Hawaii Australia and Asia

Thailand Our Holiday Paradise Sandra E. Jeavons, 2013-01-22 This book has been written from my holiday journals and it is my thoughts and opinions that have been expressed throughout the book I have enjoyed all my holiday adventures in Thailand and throughout our several trips have always enjoyed the company and friendship of the people that we travelled with Our friends and family mean the world to me and to be able to share a holiday with someone that you care for is a privilege and each and every holiday holds a special place in my heart as does each person that we have shared a holiday or more with Along the way we have learned some history and some interesting facts about Thailand and its people and culture we have made friends that we treasure and we have lost a special friend in Soonee who passed away this year Soonee will be sadly missed no longer a familiar sight on Patong Beach but we will never forget her she may be gone but not forgotten There are so many more adventures that Raymond and I have had but I have not included them in this book as well as adventures to other Asian places this is not because they were not as important or special but simply lack of space and time My friends and family thank you for allowing me the pleasure of your company in our adventures to our holiday paradise and I look forward to enjoying many more holidays with each and everyone of you The Rough Guide to Singapore (Travel Guide with Free eBook) Rough Guides, 2019-07-01 World renowned tell it like it is guidebook Discover Singapore with this comprehensive
