Rain Of Death:

Arrows of Rain Okey Ndibe, 2000 Annotation Both humorous and poignant Arrows of Rain dramatises the relationship between an individual and the modern African state Tears Of Rain - Ethnicity & Hist Van, 2016-05-06 First published in 1992 This is a book about ethnicity among the Nkoya people in central western Zambia and about the historical background out of which that ethnicity is made It studies in detail the fascinating ways in which ethnicity both creates and feeds upon ethno history At the same time it assesses the possibility of reconstructing objective historical processes in that region since the sixteenth century on the basis primarily of one very extensive source Rev Johasaphat Malasha Shimunika s Likota lya Bankoya whose production as a compilation and processing of local oral traditions is intimately related to contemporary ethnicity But most of all this is a book about that fundamental and humble condition of scholarship reading Guns & Rain David Lan, 1985 Almost every anti colonial struggle this century has been led by an army of guerrillas No such struggle has succeeded without a very high degree of cooperation between guerrillas and the local peasantry But what does cooperation between peasants and guerrillas really consist of What effect does it have on the way they view the world for which they fight In the struggle for Zimbabwe 1966 80 hundreds of thousands of peasants provided the guerrillas with practical help and support But they went a good deal further Throughout the country scores of spirit mediums the religious leaders of Shona gave active support to resistance With their participation the scale of the war expanded into an astonishing act of collaboration between ancestors and their descendants the past and the present the living and the dead This book is a detailed study of one key operational zone in the Zambezi valley It shows that to understand the meaning the war and independence have for the people of Zimbabwe themselves we must take into account not only the nationalist guerrillas and politicians the bearers of guns but also the mediums of the spirits of the Shona royal ancestors the bringers of rain Publisher

The Dancing Dead W. E. A. van Beek, 2012-06-05 Walter E A van Beek draws on over four decades of extensive fieldwork to offer an in depth study of the religion of the Kapsiki Higi who live in the Mandara Mountains on the border between North Cameroon and Northeast Nigeria Concentrating on ritual as the core of traditional religion van Beek shows how Kapsiki Higi practices have endured through the long and turbulent history of the region Kapsiki rituals reveal a focus on two fundamental concepts dwelling and belonging Van Beek examines their sacrificial practices through which the Kapsiki show a complex and pervasive connection with the Mandara Mountains as well as the character of their relationships among themselves and with outsiders Van Beek also explores their rituals of belonging rites of passage which take place from birth through initiation and marriage and even death with the tradition of the dancing dead when a fully decorated corpse on the shoulders of a smith dances with his mourning kinsmen The Dancing Dead is the result of the author s lifelong study of the Kapsiki Higi It gives a unique description of the rituals in an African traditional religion based not upon ancestors but on a completely relational thought system where in the end all rituals are integrated into one major cycle Rain Thirteen

The Influence of Strong, Prevalent, War Of Ideas Robert W

Chandler, 2019-03-20 This book describes and appraises American use of propaganda in Vietnam 1965-1972 as an instrument of foreign policy. In an effort to point out pitfalls to be avoided and successful techniques worthy of emulation in future psychological operations, the case study shows how some proven and time-honored prescriptions for effective propaganda were observed in Vietnam and how many others were ignored. Accordingly, strengths and weaknesses and successes and failures are highlighted. Ninety-five illustrations and numerous quotations of American leaflets and posters are included. These were selected to provide the reader a feeling or flavor of the propaganda campaign.

Selected Poems Conrad Aiken, 2003 Poet, short story writer, critic, and novelist Conrad Aiken (1889-1973) has been called the most metaphysical, the most learned, and the most modern of poets. With writing that reflects an intense interest in psychological, philosophical, and scientific issues, Aiken remains a unique influence upon modern writers and critics today. In his lifetime, Aiken received many awards, including the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in 1930 and the National Book Award for Poetry in 1954. He served as the Consultant in Poetry at the Library of Congress from 1950-1952. Selected Poems contains Aiken's own choice of the best and most representative of his poems spanning more than forty years of his work. Harold Bloom has contributed a new Foreword to reintroduce Aiken to a new generation of readers. The inclusion of several pivotal poems from previous editions broadens the scope of the work to represent Aiken's legacy.
