Phillips, 2009-09-29 Called the greatest Civil War historian Shelby Foote began his career as a novelist whose powerful works of fiction rose out of his closeness to life and culture in his native region the Mississippi Delta country Later in his career he transformed modern historical prose by his keen sense of the novel His artistic distance from the elements of regionalism that lie at the heart both of his novels and of his history writing gives his prose great narrative force This perceptive study fills the genuine need for a sound critical appreciation of Foote the novelist After he appeared as a sage commentator in the PBS series The Civil War the popular acclaim that catapulted Shelby Foote the historian to even greater eminence as an American oracle renewed much deserved interest in his novels and in critically rich assessments such as this one Romeo and Juliet Variations Yohanan Dark, The play takes us back to the middle of the twentieth century Hitler comes to power and the Second World War is brewing A young Jewish man from Ukraine hiding from the Stalinist repressions finds refuge with a church minister in the outback of Russia He puts on a cassock and works in the church There he falls in love with a country girl but the outbreak of fighting separates them and he goes to war Unable to bear the separation the girl goes to look for him Variations 1 2 3 4 5 and 6 can be read as stand alone stories but for a full understanding of the novel philosophy the connecting thread that runs through the entire novel the interweaving of characters and their situations it s better to read the Variations in numbered sequence Statutory Instruments Other Than Those of a Local, Personal, Or Temporary Character for the Year ... Great Britain, 1951 American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan

Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American. Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen, Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers, the urban ethnics, Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Barbara Oates's small town often violent neurotics, Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims, male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin. The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity, memory, family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers. The fictional women who emerge here, as these critics show, are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory, perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping, find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence, solitude and family in complex patterns. Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike. Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are. Encyclopedia of Business ideas
