Australian Books National Library of Australia, 1991 Books in the Life of a Child Maurice Saxby, 1997-10-15 Books in the Life of a Child explores the value of books and reading in the stimulation of children's imagination and their fundamental importance in the development of language and true literacy It examines not only the vast range of children's books available but also how to introduce young people to the joys of reading in the home the school and in the community The book has been written as a resource for all adults especially teachers student teachers librarians and parents and those who care about the value of literature for children It is a comprehensive and critical guide with chapters on the history of children's literature and an analysis of its many forms and genres from poetry fairytale myth legend and fantasy through realistic and historical fiction to humour pulp fiction and information books Australian Books ,1989 Cheshire Born John Wright, 2011-05-11 In this collection expect to travel The evolving journey will take us through landscapes beyond borders of county and country state and shire Through the window on a slow train of poetry we encounter scenes of birth and death grief and joy cowshed and asylum often with a hearty whiff of whimsy in the tail Set in sections like photo albums filled with snaps readers are invited to experience with the poet rich morsels of life captured in framed vignettes of verse Starting with an event in Cheshire on New Years Day 1950 we are taken through farms and fields of childhood our first day at a village school then across the sea to Grandads farm in County Mayo where we meet ancestors We visit Holland on an odyssey of adolescence walking with canals riding random railways blown like a lonely cloud into some sort of self discovery Suddenly transported far away from Cheshire rain we join a bewildered migrant under Parramatta blue skies uniformed in cool verandah shade where we meet more interesting fellow souls Moving to a far backyard on Australia's east coast north of Sydney we celebrate ordinary events like starting a family mowing lawns growing potatoes feeling homesick We shoot the messenger when the postman leaves no mail we prove how dreams foretell and answer a loud knock on the door at 2am Laugh and cry Be in awe of Nature as the years melt in the glade of Now where we reflect observe remember Enjoy this nightcap of Irish Breakfast Tea in a cup that runneth over It will never be empty New Books for Boys & Girls ,1988

The School Librarian ,1988 Australian Folklore ,1998 Bridging the Distance ,1988 Australian Book Review ,1988 Whitaker's Book List ,1987 Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finnis, Maureen Nimon, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children s and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children s literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work
