Raymond Chandler's Philip Marlowe John Paul Athanasourelis, 2014-01-10 Since their inception detective novels have been a wildly successful genre of American fiction featuring a uniquely American belief in rugged individualism This book focuses on Raymond Chandler's creation of Philip Marlowe a detective whose feeling for community and willingness to compromise radically changed the genre's vigilantism and violence It compares Chandler's work to early and mid 20th century American detective novels particularly those by John Carroll Daly Mickey Spillane Dashiell Hammett and Ross Macdonald as well as contemporary British detective fiction highlighting Chandler's contribution to the American genre

Philip Marlowe's Guide to Life Raymond Chandler, 2006 Philip Marlowe is the quintessential American detective His effortless masculinity smouldering sexuality and silver tongue remain the embodiment of cool He likes booze women and working alone portrayed on film by the rougher tougher stars of Hollywood Robert Mitchum and Humphrey Bogart but in a world defined by betrayal mistrust and double dealing Marlowe's rough exterior belies an unshakeable code of honour Taken together his observations and witticisms represent some of the most scathing and brilliant writing in crime fiction and coalesce into a wonderfully alluring worldview a vision of unswerving righteousness accountability and stylish conduct in a sea of turpitude and injustice

The High Window Raymond Chandler, 2020-07-14 The body count in this thriller starring Chandler's quintessential Private Eye Philip Marlowe is comparatively higher compared than some of his other works One could say the bodies fall one two three four as Marlowe tracks down a missing gold doubloon Who knew one piece of metal could lead to so much trouble As always Chandler's prose is on his own level however unpleasant Marlowe's cases may become What I find fascinating in Chandler's detective novels is the extraordinary contrast in terms of character development Trophy wives and strong armed husbands all undergo serious emotional upheaval death and unforgettable changes to their lives while our companion Phillip Marlowe ever the frank gruff shamus never has any of this himself While he may have guns pointed at him framed for murder or beaten up and tossed in the slammer The Long Goodbye Marlowe always goes back to his home to play chess drink gin and smoke a cigarette
