Raymond Williams Tony Pinkney,1991 Raymond Williams 1921 1988 was one of the most original and influential thinkers of the post war period Many know him for his work on mass culture and his left wing literary criticism yet he is also the author of six novels set in his native Welsh border country This area was central to all of Williams work and it seems likely that his novels meant more to him than his other writing This is the first critical study of the novels Border Country Second Generation The Fight for Manod The Volunteers Loyalties and People of the Black Mountains In it Tony Pinkney sees the novels as the battleground of political and cultural forces particularly modernism realism and postmodernism In these books he contends Williams found a way to dramatise the pressures which society bears upon us and the ways in which we might alter that society His close reading of the novels is an invaluable guide to them and to their author Raymond Williams Tony Pinkney,1991 Raymond Williams 1921 1988 was one of the most original and influential thinkers of the post war period Many know him for his work on mass culture and his left wing literary criticism yet he is also the author of six novels set in his native Welsh border country This area was central to all of Williams work and it seems likely that his novels meant more to him than his other writing This is the first critical study of the novels Border Country Second Generation The Fight for Manod The Volunteers Loyalties and People of the Black Mountains In it Tony Pinkney sees the novels as the battleground of political and cultural forces particularly modernism realism and postmodernism In these books he contends Williams found a way to dramatise the pressures which society bears upon us and the ways in which we might alter that society His close reading of the novels is an invaluable guide to them and to their author Raymond Williams Terry Eagleton,1989

Postmodern, Marxist, and Christian Historical Novels Lynne W. Hinojosa,2022-06-15 Postmodern Marxist and Christian Historical Novels Hope and the Burdens of History argues historical novels can help readers receive the burdens of history meaning both the burdens of the past present and future and the burden of living in time and develop a more robust conception of and concrete practice of hope Since the 1960s historical novels have been a dominant literary genre but they have been influenced primarily not by Christian but by postmodern and marxist thinkers and writers This book provides a theological and literary analysis of all three types of historical novels postmodern marxist and Christian and outlines what each school of thought can learn from each other regarding historical understanding and hope Using Jürgen Moltmann's theology of hope and Frank Kermode's literary criticism as a theoretical basis the book offers readings of novels by Julian Barnes A S Byatt Kazuo Ishiguro Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ian McEwan and Ursula LeGuin among others and ends with an extended analysis of Marilynne Robinson's Gilead series The Post-Boom in Spanish American Fiction Donald L. Shaw,1998-07-10 Provides a clear account of the issues in Spanish American fiction in the last quarter century by attempting to answer questions on the Boom Post Boom and its relation to Postmodernism Modernity, Modernism, Postmodernism Terry Eagleton,2000 Anything But Novel Jennie Irene Daniels,2023-11-08 The first in depth study in English to analyze post utopian historical novels written during and in the wake of brutal Latin American dictatorships and authoritarian regimes During neoliberal reforms in the 1980s and 1990s murder repression and exile had reduced the number of intellectuals and Leftists and many succumbed to or were coopted by market forces and ideologies The opposition to the economic violence of neoliberal projects lacked a united front and feasible alternatives to the contemporary order no longer seemed to exist In this context some Latin American literary intellectuals penned post utopian historical novels as a means to reconstruct memory of significant moments in national history Through the distortion and superimposition of distinct genres within the narratives authors of post utopian historical novels incorporated literary cultural and political traditions to expose contemporary challenges that were rooted in unresolved past conflicts In Anything but Novel Jennie Irene Daniels closely examines four post utopian novels Cesar Aira's Ema la cautiva Rubem Fonseca's O Selvagem da pera Jos Miguel Varas's El correo de Bagdad and Santiago P ez's Crónicas del Breve Reino to make their contributions more accessible and to synthesize and highlight the literary and social interventions they make Although the countries the novels focus on Argentina Brazil Chile and Ecuador differ widely in politics regime changes historical precedents geography and demographics the development of a shared subgenre among the literary elite suggests a common experience and interpretation of contemporary events across Latin America These novels complement one another extending shared themes and critiques Daniels argues the novels demonstrate that alternatives exist to neoliberalism even in times when it appears there are none Another contribution of these novels is their repositioning of the Latin American literary intellectuals who have advocated for the marginalized in their societies Their work has opened new avenues and developed previous lines of research in feminist queer and ethnic studies and for nonwhite nonmale writers
