Architecture and Naturing Affairs Mihye An, Ludger Hovestadt, 2020-10-26 In this anthology with contributions about architecture media and infrastructure technology the authors investigate in what multifaceted way architecture and information is in tune with contemporary technology and in what way we live with them The book is divided into following parts BREEDING medialising matter BREATHING transcending language and INHABITING making things inhabitable The compilation of various text contributions creates a lexicon of naturing affairs and is written for readers who look for an inspiring overview of our medialised environments

City of Play Rodrigo Pérez de Arce, 2018-05-31 City of Play shows how play is built into the very fabric of the modern city From playgrounds to theme parks skittle alleys to swimming pools to the countless uncontrolled spaces which the urban habitat affords play is by no means just a childhood affair A myriad essentially unproductive playful pursuits have through time modelled the modern city and landscape Architect and scholar Rodrigo Pérez de Arce's erudite original and often surprising study explores a curiously neglected dimension of architectural design and practice ludic space It is an architectural history of the playground from the hippodrome to the Situationist city of space released from productive ends in the pursuit of leisure But this is more than just a book about how architecture has incorporated play into its spaces and structures it is a history of the modern city itself The ludic imagination impregnated modernist ideals and what begins with the playground ends with a re consideration of the whole sweep of the modern movement through the filter of leisure and play Because play is such a basic or fundamental human experience the book re grounds the architect s concerns with those of non architects and not only those of adults but also of children It seeks to give everyone architects and other ordinary city dwellers alike a better understanding about what is at stake in the making of the public spaces of our cities

Operative Mapping Roger Paez, 2024-01-22 Operative Mapping investigates the use of maps as a design tool providing insight with the potential to benefit education and practice in the design disciplines The book s fundamental aim is to offer a methodological contribution to the design disciplines both in conceptual and instrumental terms When added to the resources of contemporary design operative mapping overcomes the analytical and strictly instrumental approaches of maps opening up the possibility of working both pragmatically and critically by acknowledging the need for an effective transformation of the milieu based on an understanding of pre existing conditions The approach is pragmatic not only discussing the present but above all generating a toolbox to help expand on the objectives methodologies and formats of design in the immediate future The book joins together a review of the theoretical body of work on mapping from the social sciences with case studies from the past 30 years in architecture planning and landscape design in the interest of linking past practices with future ones

The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2008-11-28 A Who's Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola. Containing four hundred essay-style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present, The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists, writers, dramatists, architects, philosophers, anthropologists, scientists, sociologists, major political figures, composers, film makers, and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview. Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley; with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie; alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola; Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida, as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin. With its global reach, The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi-voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world. The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross-referencing as well as an index of names and key terms. Ideas + Buildings Carl Knutson, Ron Stelmarkski, 2008 Perkins Will, a global architecture and design practice, releases the first volume in a series of publications showcasing the talent of its teams and scope of their projects. Ideas Buildings defines the essential characteristics of innovation and excellence that make Perkins Will unique among architecture firms worldwide. The Ideas Buildings series will include essays on design theory, white papers on programmatic and technological innovation, client business issues, and the environment and ideas that relate directly to the practice and its work, as well as broader social and cultural issues. Ideas Buildings: Collective Process Global Social and Sustainable Design includes 12 unique projects along with anecdotal information about the firm and its history, providing insight into the firm who they are and what they do. The book demonstrates the progress and energy of Perkins Will as the firm advances towards its 75th anniversary. Archis, 2004 exlibris Giovanni Corbellini, 2022-05-18 Architects write a lot, especially now when conceptual aspects have become central in the advanced reflections and narrative forms increasingly intersect the quest of design practices for an ultimate legitimation. In the growing mass of the publishing offer, these keywords try to highlight recurrent issues, tracking synthetic paths of orientation between different critical positions with particular attention to what happens in the neighbouring fields of the arts and sciences. Drawing Parallels Ray Lucas, 2019-04-29 Drawing Parallels expands your understanding of the workings of architects by looking at their work from an alternative perspective. The book focuses on parallel projections such as axonometric, isometric, and oblique drawings. Ray Lucas argues that by retracing the marks made by architects, we can begin to engage more directly with their practice, as it is only by redrawing the work that hidden aspects are revealed. The practice of drawing offers significantly different insights, not easily accessible through discourse analysis, critical theory, or observation. Using James Stirling, JJP Oud, Peter Eisenman, John Hejduk, and Cedric Price as case studies, Lucas highlights each architect's creative practices, which he analyses with reference to Bergson's concepts of temporality and creativity, discussing the manner in which creative problems are explored and solved. The book also draws on a range of anthropological ideas, including skilled practice and enchantment, in order to explore why axonometrics are important to architecture and questions the degree to which the drawing convention influences the forms produced by architects. With 60 black and white images to illustrate design development this book would be an essential read for academics and students of architecture with a particular interest in further understanding the inner workings of the architectural creative process

Key Modern Architects Andrew Higgott, 2018-05-31 Key Modern Architects provides an accessible and thought provoking introduction to the work of the most significant architects of the modern era Fifty short chapters introduce fifty key architects from Le Corbusier to Aldo Van Eyck to Zaha Hadid exploring their most influential buildings and developing a critique of each architect's work within a broader cultural and historical context The selection represents the most influential architects working from 1890 to the present those most likely to be taught on survey courses in modern architectural history along with some lesser known names with an equal claim to influence Emphasis is placed on a critical and interpretative approach allowing the student to position each architect in a cultural and intellectual context quickly and easily Artistic technical social and intellectual developments are brought to the fore built and unbuilt projects writings and influences This approach brings to light the ideology behind architectural work offering insights into each architect's working practice Helps students to develop a critical approach to understanding modern architectural history One chapter per architect meaning chapters may be read individually as a concise resource for the study of an architect or together as a coherent book length history of the whole period of modern architecture Chapters are supported by boxed lists of each architect's most significant projects along with suggestions for further reading as a springboard to further study and research Combining the clarity and accessibility of a textbook with in depth reading and a critical approach Key Modern Architects provides an invaluable resource for both the classroom and for independent study in architectural and art history

Art, Cybernetics and Pedagogy in Post-War Britain Kate Sloan, 2019-02-14 This is the first full length study about the British artist Roy Ascott one of the first cybernetic artists with a career spanning seven decades to date The book focuses on his early career exploring the evolution of his early interests in communication in the context of the rich overlaps between art science and engineering in Britain during the 1950s and 1960s The first part of the book looks at Ascott's training and early work The second part looks solely at Groundcourse Ascott's extraordinary pedagogical model for visual arts and cybernetics which used an integrative and systems based model drawing in behaviourism analogue machines performance and games Using hitherto unpublished photographs and documents this book will establish a more prominent place for cybernetics in post war British art

New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing There is an index of names and key terms

What Remains Jonathan Bach,2017-08-29 What happens when an entire modern state s material culture becomes abruptly obsolete How do ordinary people encounter what remains In this ethnography Jonathan Bach examines the afterlife of East Germany following the fall of the Berlin Wall as things and places from that vanished socialist past continue to circulate and shape the politics of memory What Remains traces the unsettling effects of these unmoored artifacts on the German present arguing for a rethinking of the role of the everyday as a site of reckoning with difficult pasts Bach juxtaposes four sites where the stakes of the everyday appear products commodified as nostalgia amateur museums dedicated to collecting everyday life under socialism the people s palace that captured the national imagination through its destruction and the feared and fetishized Berlin Wall Moving from the local the intimate and the small to the national the impersonal and the large this book s interpenetrating chapters show the unexpected social and political force of the ordinary in the production of memory What Remains offers a unique vantage point on the workings of the everyday in situations of radical discontinuity contributing to new understandings of postsocialism and the intricate intersection of material remains and memory AHMM Neil Spiller,2021-05-10 AHMM is a premier international architectural practice Established over 30 years ago it has won numerous awards including the Stirling Prize Through the contributions of journalists clients fellow professionals and academics this AD issue celebrates the practice s achievements in all areas of architectural production featuring archive material new works and unparalleled access to the AHMM organisation revealing new insights into their work and urban philosophies To get to this eminent position the office has consistently responded in innovative and imaginative ways to the changing imperatives of art science and economics that influence our built environment These parameters have metamorphosed considerably since AHMM was founded in terms of advances in digitisation material science and changes to contract management what constitutes sustainability procurement routes construction methods collaboration and architectural education Above all this AD will explore AHMM s practice as a holistic design project in itself in terms of building buildings but also in using a design ethos to cope with shifts in workload
