Re Visioning The Familiar:

Re:visioning the Familiar Ezra and Cecile Zilkha Gallery, 1994 Re-visioning Greg Surratt, 2020-02-04 Vision It can be a very slippery thing As leaders we can have a crystal clear sense of purpose and direction at some points but they may seem like foreign objects from time to time Sooner or later it happens to all of us In this book Pastor Greg Surratt shares his story of asking himself hard questions and finding the answers to be both surprising and inspiring He addresses the crucial topics of limitations culture and legacy but he also dives into harder issues of how to handle heartaches and what actually captures the hearts of the people we lead Re Visioning is designed to recharge our leadership batteries and equip us to inspire our teams with humility boldness and joy

A Re-Visioning of Love Ana Mozol, 2019-06-10 In A Re Visioning of Love Dark Feminine Rising Ana Mozol parts the illusory veils of persona as she explores the reality of feminine experiences relating to love trauma and sexuality in contemporary Western society Mozol takes us on a personal journey through the three levels of experience delving into the underworld and the trauma of rape the middle world and the illusions of romantic love and the upper world and the masculine spiritual ideals that fracture the feminine soul In this multidisciplinary examination of the feminine Mozol seeks to understand violence against women intrapsychically interpersonally and within the field of depth psychology The book begins with Mozol's own experiences with violence and her exploration of the demon lover complex and the stages of breaking this complex after trauma Combining personal testimony theoretical reflections historical analysis and 20 years of clinical experience Mozol uses a heuristic approach to explore personal stories clinical material dreams and depth analysis as they connect to the female individuation process We follow Mozol's journey through the middle world and the illusions of romantic love into the upper world and the complexity of Oscar Wilde's feminine character Salome who represents the rising dark feminine energy that must be reckoned with for the possibility of love to exist Accessible yet powerful Mozol uses her personal story to place the oppression of women within the Jungian context of individuation A Re Visioning of Love Dark Feminine Rising will be key reading for academics and students of Jungian and post Jungian studies psychotherapy trauma studies gender studies women's studies and criminology It will also be an indispensable resource for Jungian psychotherapists and analytical psychologists in practice and in training A Re Visioning of Love however is more than a psychological exploration it is a memoir of the personal and archetypal feminine and as such will appeal to anyone interested in the story of many women today

Re-visioning Family Therapy Monica McGoldrick, Kenneth V. Hardy, 2008-07-29 Now in a significantly revised and expanded second edition this groundbreaking work illuminates how racism sexism and other forms of oppression constrain the lives of diverse clients and family therapy itself Practitioners and students gain vital tools for re-evaluating prevailing conceptions of family health and pathology tapping into clients cultural resources and developing more inclusive theories and therapeutic practices From leaders in the field the second edition features many new chapters case examples and specific recommendations for culturally competent assessment treatment and clinical training The section in which authors reflect on their own cultural and family legacies also has been significantly expanded Re-Visioning Psychiatry Laurence J. Kirmayer, Robert Lemelson, Constance A. Cummings, 2015-07-29 Revisioning Psychiatry brings together new perspectives on the causes and treatment of mental health problems The contributors emphasize the importance of understanding experience and explore how the brain the person and the social world interact to give rise to mental health problems as well as resilience and recovery Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson, 2017-10-24 A passion for justice and truth motivates the bold challenge of Revisioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Unearthing the ways in which the myths of Christian patriarchy have historically inhibited and prohibited women from thinking and writing their own ideas this book lays fresh ground for re visioning the epistemic practices of philosophers Pamela Sue Anderson seeks both to draw out the salient threads in the gendering of philosophy of religion as it has been practiced and to re vision gender for philosophy today The arguments put forth by contemporary philosophers of religion concerning human and divine attributes are epistemically located yet the motivation to recognize this locatedness has to come from a concern for justice This book presents invaluable new perspectives on the philosopher s ever increasing awareness of his or her own locatedness on the gender often unwittingly given to God the ineffability in both analytic and Continental philosophy the still critical role of reason in the field the aims of a feminist philosophy of religion the roles of beauty and justice the vision of love and reason and a gendering which opens philosophy of religion up to diversity

Creative Ethical Practice in Counselling & Psychotherapy Patti Owens, Bee Springwood, Michael Wilson, 2012-03-22 Can I be a creative therapist without overstepping boundaries and risking complaints Can I practise safely and ethically whilst remaining true to my humanistic values This book answers Yes by offering a safety net to trainees and therapists working in the context of today s complaints culture Exploring what safe and creative practice means in relation to the key cornerstones in therapy the authors offer practical guidance to assist the reader in reflecting on and negotiating the challenges of boundaries legalities and defensive practice Creative Ethical Practice for Counselling Psychotherapy considers the necessary structures and processes that must inform creative humanistic practice for it to be a safe ethical therapeutic framework Packed with reflective exercises summaries case examples and step by step guidance this book takes the reader from establishing the therapeutic relationship to worst case scenarios like complaints procedures and legal action It is essential reading for legal ethical modules on all counselling courses Patti Owens Michael Wilson and Bee Springwood are all humanistic and integrative therapists and members of the UK Association of Humanistic Psychology Practitioners UKAHPP as well as the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy UKCP Re-visioning Science Education from Feminist Perspectives , 2010-01-01 Women in science education are placed in a juxtaposition of gender roles and gendered career roles Using auto biography and auto ethnography this book examines the challenges and choices of academic women in science education and how those challenges have changed or remained consistent since women have become a presence in science education The book's contributors span a temporal and spatial continuum and focus on how a variety of issues relate to the paradoxes for academic women in science education Science is characterized as a masculine endeavor while teaching is described as women's true profession Thus female academics involved in science education are positioned in two paradoxes First as teachers they are involved in a feminized profession However within that profession women faculty in science education work in a discipline viewed as a masculine enterprise Further these women work in educational institutions that have higher status and prestige than their sisters in elementary middle or high schools Second female professors are bearded mothers Women who have engaged in science education value rationality and logic and assume authority as participants in academe The use of logic the acceptance of authority and the assumption of power are masculine gender stereotyped characteristics This situation places women in a paradox because others including peers and students expect them to display stereotypic female gender dispositions such as mothering nurturing sacrificing their needs for others and a commitment to the institution The topics include discussing how their engagement with science impacted their career trajectories and re-direction from science to science education the relationships of cultural and racial factors on career trajectories and the dialectical relationship between women's private public lives and their agency collective and individual in the academy and its enactment within academic fields The book documents the lives and careers of academic women in science education from the United States Australia the Caribbean United Kingdom and Europe

Re-Visioning Composition Textbooks Xin Liu Gale, Fredric G. Gale, 1999-04-23 An exploration of the sometimes tenuous relationship between textbooks and the discipline of composition and rhetoric Re-Visioning Composition Textbooks critically scrutinizes the culture of textbooks from the vantage point of scholars and teachers It examines a variety of textbooks including standard rhetorics handbooks cross cultural anthologies readers technical textbooks and argumentation textbooks Different perspectives are used to discuss the cultures ideologies traditions and the material and political conditions that influence the writing and publishing of these works Contributors raise challenging questions about the relationship between textbooks and the cultures which produce them the discipline of which they are an indispensable part and the classrooms in which they are to have their most tangible effects on teaching and learning

Re-Vision Clifford Chalmers Cain, 2015-03-25 Re-Vision addresses four issues that lie at the crux of the relationship between science and religion the origin of the cosmos and creation in Genesis evolutionary theory and God's action in the world genes and human freedom and whether intelligent design is good science and or good theology This book includes commentary on each of these issues from three scientists a philosopher and a theologian The contributors represent a wide variety of worldviews and beliefs and readers are encouraged to use their thoughts as springboards for personal reactions and conclusions

Leadership RE:Vision Jim Seybert,2016-01-15 A go to book for any leader whether in the church or business world Leadership RE Vision provides daily meditations written to help leaders think through their problems and challenges from a fresh perspective Successful business consultant Jim Seybert inspires readers to examine their own beliefs about leadership in light of what the Bible says rather than in terms of conventional wisdom Leadership RE Vision explores relevant topics such as time management staff relations truth telling image management corporate growth and excellence Contains chapters such as Don t Waste God s Time Customers Don t Always Come First Good Stewardship Doesn t Mean Stinginess Time Management Training can be a Con Game and Be Alert for Huge Mistakes Beyond CLIL Do Coyle,Oliver Meyer,2021-07-15 Offers an innovative holistic and evidence based pedagogic approach to deeper learning for all subjects of schooling Modern Jewish Art Ori Soltes,2019-01-07 In Modern Jewish Art Definitions Problems and Opportunities Ori Z Soltes considers both the emerging and evolving discussion on and the expanding array of practitioners of Jewish art in the past two hundred years He notes the developing problem of how to define Judaism in the 19th century as a religion a culture a race a nation a people and thus the complications for placing Jewish art under the extended umbrella of religion and the arts The fluidity with which one must engage the subject is reflected in the broadening conceptual and visual vocabulary the extended range of subject foci and media and the increasingly rich analytical approaches to the subject that have surfaced particularly in the past fifty years Well known and little known artists are included in a far ranging discussion of painting sculpture photography video installations ceremonial objects and works that blur the boundaries between categories The Tantramar Re-Vision Kevin Irie,2021-08-04 I ve lived the way a field is sometimes a shelter for mice or sometimes a source of game for a hawk Inspired by the literary landscape of the late poet John Thompson Kevin Irie s The Tantramar Re Vision presents a portrait of nature where the benign and the bedevilled coexist collude or collide The Tantramar Re Vision charts routes of discovery as it follows trails waterways flights and fears be it through the woods the wilds the page or the mind where it s hard to admit you are not to your taste It questions an existence in which the inhuman thrives ignorant of divinity while the human psyche continues to search for answers as life takes directions away from it The Tantramar Marsh setting of John Thompson s Stilt Jack resonates with Irie s landscapes of birds fish plants and wildlife all still within reach yet part of a world where wind carries sounds it cannot hear Insightful and meditative The Tantramar Re Vision is poetry of the inner self and the outside observer a poetic testament to the ways literature creates its own landmarks and nature survives without knowing a word Mulattas and Mestizas Suzanne Bost,2010-02-25 In this broadly conceived exploration of how people represent identity in the Americas Suzanne Bost argues that mixture has been central to the definition of race in the United States Mexico and the Caribbean since the nineteenth century Her study is particularly relevant in an era that promotes mixed race musicians actors sports heroes and supermodels as icons of a new America Bost challenges the popular media's notion that a new millennium has ushered in a radical transformation of American ethnicity in fact this paradigm of the changing face of America extends throughout American history Working from literary and historical accounts of mulattas mestizas and creoles Bost analyzes a tradition dating from the nineteenth century of theorizing identity in terms of racial and sexual mixture By examining racial politics in Mexico and the United States racially mixed female characters in Anglo American African American and Latina narratives and ideas of mixture in the Caribbean she ultimately reveals how the fascination with mixture often corresponds to racial segregation sciences of purity and white supremacy The racism at the foundation of many nineteenth century writings encourages Bost to examine more closely the subtexts of contemporary writings on the browning of America Original and ambitious in scope Mulattas and Mestizas measures contemporary representations of mixed race identity in the United States against the history of mixed race identity in the Americas It warns us to be cautious of the current millennial celebration of mixture in popular culture and identity studies which may contrary to all appearances mask persistent racism and nostalgia for purity

Re-Visioning Person-Centred Therapy Manu Bazzano, 2018-06-27 By exploring various ways to assimilate recent progressive developments and to renew its vital links with its radical roots Re-Visioning Person Centred Therapy Theory and Practice of a Radical Paradigm takes a fresh look at this revolutionary therapeutic approach Bringing together leading figures in PCT and new writers from around the world the essays in this book create fertile links with phenomenology meditation and spirituality critical theory contemporary thought and culture and philosophy of science In doing so they create an outline that renews and re-vision's person centred therapy's radical paradigm providing fertile material in both theory and practice Shot through with clinical studies vignettes and in depth discussions on aspects of theory Re-Visioning Person Centred Therapy will be stimulating reading for therapists in training and practice as well as those interested in the development of PCT

Contemporary African Dance Theatre Sabine Sörgel, 2020-03-30 This book is the first to consider contemporary African dance theatre aesthetics in the context of phenomenology whiteness and the gaze Rather than a discussion of African dance per se the author challenges hegemonic perceptions of contemporary African dance theatre to interrogate the extent to which white supremacy and privilege weave through capitalist necropolitics and determine our perception of contemporary African dance theatre today Multiple aesthetic strategies are discussed throughout the book to account for the affective experience of un-suturing that touches white spectatorship and colonial guilt at their core The critical analysis covers a broad range of dance choreography by artists from the Democratic Republic of Congo Ivory Coast South Africa Canada Europe and the US as they travel create and show their works internationally to global audiences to contest racial divides and white supremacist politics

Rescuing Psychoanalysis from Freud and Other Essays in Re-Vision Peter L. Rudnytsky, 2018-05-08 In his latest groundbreaking book the author examines the history of psychoanalysis from a resolutely independent perspective At once spellbinding case histories and meticulously crafted gems of scholarship Rudnytsky's essays are re-visionist in that each sheds fresh light on its subject but they are also avowedly revisionist in their scepticism towards all forms of psychoanalytic orthodoxy Beginning with a judicious reappraisal of Freud and ranging in scope from King Lear to contemporary neuroscience the author treats in depth the lives and work of Ferenczi Jung Stekel Winnicott Coltart and Little each of whom sought to rescue psychoanalysis by summoning it to live up to its highest ideals
