Reaching And Teaching All Children Grassroots Efforts That Work:

Reaching and Teaching All Children Robert L. Sinclair, Ward J. Ghory, 1997-08-26 An excellent and practical treatise on revitalizing learning in our schools I highly recommend its innovative and collaborative approach to education Alvin F. Poussaint M.D. Department of Psychiatry Harvard Medical School Provoking us to ponder the authors dare evoke values and moral imperatives as critical to the process of education Flowing throughout the book is the mantra of inclusivity children families teachers and communities together in meeting the challenge of school change It is a beacon of hope for public schools in America Wendy G. Winters Professor of Sociology Howard University Washington D.C. The approach in this book makes sense to teachers parents and others who seek to improve conditions for learning and desire to increase student achievement Ramon C. Cortines Executive Director PEW Network for Standards Based Reform Stanford Editors Robert L. Sinclair University of Massachusetts Amherst Ward J. Ghory Buckingham Browne Nichols School Cambridge Massachusetts How can educators reach all children Is every child teachable These are the questions explored here The chapter authors offer up a challenge for American educators to Establish a climate of trust where students are free of censure or ridicule Raise educational expectations for and of every student Start each student on a lifelong path of continuous learning Remove educational limits set by society and let students achieve their real potential This book introduces the findings of the National Coalition for Equality in Learning It involves more than 60 schools in 7 states and was created to attack learning inequities that persist in public education The National Coalition's 5 year mission to make sure that every student gets an equal chance to learn Reaching and Teaching All Children offers these four key democratic values as educational basics Education as a moral imperative Respect for individuals Pragmatic problem solving Local decision making The chapter authors view your leadership skills as critical to improving your school Learn how to engage your staff in working together for schoolwide improvement Find out how to channel teachers powerful leadership abilities and build effective study teams to solve even the toughest school or student problems These school leadership ideas can help you create lasting meaningful change in your school and in your classrooms What you learn can mean the difference between status quo at your school and reaching and teaching all children Making Schools Work for Every Child, 2000 ENC Focus, 2000 Resources in Education, 2001-04 Observational Research in U.S. Classrooms Hersholt C. Waxman, Roland G. Tharp, R. Soleste Hilberg, 2004-01-26 The present national reform agendas stress that rigorous content and high expectations be accessible to all students including students from groups whose achievement has traditionally lagged behind that of the majority culture students Improving the achievement in US schools important for both social and economic stability will require that instruction be responsive to our nation's increasingly diverse student population This book includes theoretical frameworks as well as substantive research findings and provides examples of recently developed classroom observation instruments based on research of effective teaching practices for culturally and linguistically diverse students Each chapter represents a new aspect of classroom observation research that will assist educators in their endeavors to improve US schools

Gaining on the Gap Palma Strand, Robert G. Smith, Tim Cotman, Cheryl Robinson, Martha Swaim, Alvin Crawley, 2011-09-28 Gaining on the Gap Changing Hearts Minds and Practice serves as a guide along the journey taken by six individuals who each played a role in moving a school system along a path where race would not be a predictor for academic success Join us as we share insights to challenges and victories as well as a close look at our own personal and professional growth

Walking the Equity Talk John Robert Browne II, 2012-06-21 Good intentions are not enough create a bold new leadership paradigm to achieve equity in opportunities and outcomes If you re serious about providing a level playing field for all it is time to do more than identify and lament the reasons for educational disparities and why they persist John Robert Browne II shows how Culturally Courageous Leadership by all school community stakeholders can help you achieve equitable learning opportunities and outcomes for all students This practical guide Shows how to develop realistic data based plans for putting equity initiatives into action Helps district and school administrators work with teacher parent student and community leaders to advance equity and excellence Provides concrete examples of what it takes to empower staff and stakeholders through collaborative leadership Offers tips on how to navigate the politics when addressing the interface between identity race culture poverty primary language and achievement School based examples role play activities profiles of educators exemplifying leadership for equity make it personal questions facilitator notes and diagnostic assessments are provided so you can engage your entire school or district community in equity transformation If you are ready to take on the challenge of becoming an equity warrior then Walking the Equity Talk will show you the path forward
