Reaching Keet Seel Ruins Echo And The Anasazi:

Reaching Keet Seel Reg Saner, 1998 For the better part of two decades writer Reg Saner has been returning to the Southwest to explore and to reflect upon a landscape and the people who once called that landscape home a people known as the Ancestral Puebloans the Hisatsinom the Anasazi Here is a journey over miles of hiking trail under relentless sun through chill nights on stark mesas from campgrounds and kivas crowded with spiritual seekers curious travelers flute playing scholars and ersatz shamans alike to desolate side canyons offering only the company of wind and sand lizards and ravens The desert Southwest and the ruins found there offer an invitation to a relationship enigmatic as it is irresistible Poetry and philosophy reside in the most unlikely places the petrified middens of ancient packrats the haunting shadow of an Anasazi family s hotcakes scorched into the surface of a stone griddle at Keet Seel And always it seems visitors leave this land with more questions than answers impatient in their desire for understanding BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Leave It As It Is David Gessner, 2021-08-03 An urgent call to protect America s public lands told through New York Times bestselling author David Gessner s American road trip with our greatest conservationist Theodore Roosevelt as his guide The Orion Zone Gary David, 2010-04-20 Ancient star lore exploring the mysterious location of Pueblos in the American Southwest circa 1100 AD that appear to be a mirror image of the major stars of the Orion constellation Many readers are familiar with the correlation between the pyramids of Egypt and the stars of Orion Beginning in 1100 A D on the Arizona desert the Hopi constructed a similar pattern of villages that mirrors all the major stars in the constellation As Above so Below The Orion Zone explores this ground sky relationship and its astounding global significance Packed with diagrams maps astronomical charts and photos of ruins and rock art this useful guidebook decodes the ancient mysteries of the Pueblo Indian world Hunger for the Wild Michael L. Johnson, 2007 Americans have had an enduring yet ambivalent obsession with the West as both a place and a state of mind Michael L Johnson considers how that obsession originated how it has determined attitudes toward and activities in the West and how it has changed over the centuries Dead on a High Hill W.D. Ehrhart, 2014-01-10 A new collection of Bill Ehrhart s essays 25 of them written between 2002 and 2012 on subjects ranging from the Vietnam War failures of American policy makers to life in 21st century Vietnam the trenches of the Western Front the mountains of Korea the sands of Iraq from the value of one s name to the cowardice of Congress mountain gorillas in Rwanda the journalist Gloria Emerson teaching poetry to teenagers on the famous Wilfred Owen and the obscure Robert James Elliott These essays explore the fallacies of history the madness of war the craft of poetry the profession of teaching and the art of living Repair Elizabeth Spelman, 2003-10-20 We live in a world constantly in need of repair Our cars break down Marriages weaken friendships sour ties between nations are rent Yet we fix things and relationships all the time without giving these activities much thought Repair is the first book to offer an in depth exploration of this core aspect of human life Desert Rims to Mountains High Richard F. Fleck, 2013-09-04

Inspired by his ranger days in Rocky Mountain National Park more than forty five years ago as well as more recent rambles Richard Fleck has created these descriptive essays that take readers from shimmering desert heat to snowy summits Fleck has expanded his acclaimed book Breaking Through the Clouds 2004 to create a new book that concentrates on the intermountain American West This edition includes counterpoint experiences in the desert canyon lands and dry prairie far below the summits of the lofty peaks such as Death Valley Grand Gulch Grand Canyon and the Great Sand Dunes His literary model was Edward Abbey's Desert Solitaire and his intent is to involve readers with an equally potent but different kind of natural reality Fleck says After all do not mountains rise out of deserts and dry lands Mountains and surrounding deserts should not be separated The mountains are a constant source of spiritual renewal for this author enabling him to become more aware and whole
