ROTHMAN, 2018 BLUEFOOT VICTOR JIDE ANIMASAHUN, 2014 SUCCESS IS MORE THAN WHAT YOU THINK There is growing concern of mediocrity in almost every place and the need for excellence has to be stirred up once again in everyone. This is because mediocrity if unchecked would certainly degenerate into idiocy and high level productivity would soon become old fashioned. This book was written beginning with the end in mind. The term BLUEFOOT was coined to synchronise the process and the product of career success moving from the process of resolving to live by the blueprint for a successful career to the product achieving the desired booming career. Every blueprint discussed is aimed at structuring the reader to leave ineradicable footprints in the sands of their career. We must begin to consider passing on the torch of excellence and optimum performance to posterity.

Models of Professional Development Bruce Joyce, Emily Calhoun, 2010. This comprehensive resource examines five major models of professional development and how they can be implemented and tailored to meet the multifaceted needs of any school or district. The Summer Slide Karl Alexander, Sarah Pitcock, Matthew C. Boulay, 2016. This book is an authoritative examination of summer learning loss featuring original contributions by scholars and practitioners at the forefront of the movement to understand and stem the summer slide. The contributors provide an up to date account of what research has to say about summer learning loss, the conditions in low income children's homes and communities that impede learning over the summer months and best practices in summer programming with lessons on how to strengthen program evaluations. The authors also show how information on program costs can be combined with student outcome data to inform future planning and establish program cost effectiveness. This book will help policymakers, school administrators and teachers in their efforts to close academic achievement gaps and improve outcomes for all students. Book Features: Empirical research on summer learning loss and efforts to counteract it. Original contributions by leading authorities. Practical guidance on best practices for implementing and evaluating strong summer programs. Recommendations for using program evaluations more effectively to inform policy. Contributors: Emily Ackman, Allison Atteberry, Catherine Augustine, Janice Aurini, Amy Bohnert, Geoffrey D. Borman, Claudia Buchmann, Judy B. Cheatham, Barbara Condliffe, Dennis J. Condrón, Scott Davies, Douglas Downey, Ean Fonseca, Linda Goetze, Kathryn Grant, Amy Heard, Michelle K. Hosp, James S. Literacy Myths, Legacies, and Lessons Harvey J. Graff, 2017-07-05 In his latest writings on the history of literacy and its importance for present understanding and future rethinking historian Harvey J Graff continues his critical revisions of many commonly held ideas about literacy The book speaks to central concerns about the place of literacy in modern and late modern culture and society and its complicated historical foundations Drawing on other aspects of his research Graff places the chapters that follow in the context of current thinking and major concerns about literacy and the development of both historical and interdisciplinary studies Special emphasis falls upon the usefulness of the literacy myth as an important subject for interdisciplinary study and understanding Critical stock taking of the field includes reflections on Graff's own research and writings of the last three decades and the relationships that connect interdisciplinary rethinking and the literacy myth The collection is noteworthy for its attention to Graff's reflections on his identification of the literacy myth and in developing LiteracyStudies OSU Ohio State University as a model for university wide interdisciplinary programs It also deals with ordinary concerns about literacy or illiteracy that are shared by academics and concerned citizens These nontechnical essays will speak to both academic and nonacademic audiences across disciplines and cultural orientations
