Reader On Punishment:

Why Punish? How Much? Michael Tonry, 2010-12-07 Punishment like all complex human institutions tends to change as ways of thinking go in and out of fashion Normative political social psychological and legal ideas concerning punishment have changed drastically over time and especially in recent decades Why Punish How Much collects essays from classical philosophers and contemporary theorists to examine these shifts Michael Tonry has gathered a comprehensive set of readings ranging from Kant Hegel and Bentham to recent writings on developments in the behavioral and medical sciences Together they cover foundations of punishment theory such as consequentialism retributivism and functionalism new approaches like restorative communitarian and therapeutic justice and mixed approaches that attempt to link theory and policy This volume includes an accessible introduction that chronicles the development of punishment systems and theorizing over the course of the last two centuries Why Punish How Much provides a fresh and comprehensive approach to thinking about punishment and sentencing for a broad range of law sociology philosophy and criminology courses

A Reader on Punishment Antony Duff, 1994 Why we punish who we punish and how we punish are central elements of any discussion of the role of law in modern society In this impressive collection two leading experts on the theory of punishment have selected a range of articles which have made important and influential contributions to the way in which punishment is understood in contemporary society The collection is prefaced by an original introduction written by the two editors in which key concepts are identified Each article is also prefaced by a short introduction setting out the issues to be discussed Throughout the book the aim of the editors is to demonstrate that normative and empirical questions about punishment are deeply interrelated and to show the importance of an interdisciplinary approach to understanding this vital social institution

Punishment, Communication, and Community R. A. Duff, 2003-05-15 The question What can justify criminal punishment becomes especially insistent at times like our own of penal crisis when serious doubts are raised not only about the justice or efficacy of particular modes of punishment but about the very legitimacy of the whole penal system Recent theorizing about punishment offers a variety of answers to that question answers that try to make plausible sense of the idea that punishment is justified as being deserved for past crimes answers that try to identify some beneficial consequences in terms of which punishment might be justified as well as abolitionist answers telling us that we should seek to abolish rather than to justify criminal punishment This book begins with a critical survey of recent trends in penal theory but goes on to develop an original account based on Duff's earlier Trials and Punishments of criminal punishment as a mode of moral communication aimed at inducing repentance reform and reconciliation through reparation an account that undercuts the traditional controversies between consequentialist and retributivist penal theories and that shows how abolitionist concerns can properly be met by a system of communicative punishments In developing this account Duff articulates the liberal communitarian conception of political society and of the role of the criminal law on which it depends he discusses the meaning and role of different modes of punishment showing how they can constitute appropriate modes of moral communication between political community and its citizens and he identifies the essential preconditions for the justice of punishment as thus conceived preconditions whose non satisfaction makes our own system of criminal punishment morally problematic Punishment Communication and Community offers no easy answers but provides a rich and ambitious ideal of what criminal punishment could be an ideal of what criminal punishment could be and ideal that challenges existing penal theories as well as our existing penal theories as well as our existing penal practices The Criminology Theory Reader Stuart Henry, Werner Einstadter, 1998 An anthology of theoretical essays on causes of crime published in the American Society of Criminology's journal Criminology Articles have been edited into concise student friendly readings capturing the essence and diversity of thinking about crime from major theoretical perspectives including classical and rational choice biological and psychological strain subculture social learning neutralization and Marxist and critical theory Also contains cutting edge thinking on feminist theory and on postmodernist constitutive and integrated approaches Includes an overview and section introductions Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Punishment, 2016 Punishment, Justice and International Relations Anthony F. Lang Jr., 2009-10-16 This book examines the international political order in the post Cold War era arguing that this order has become progressively more punitive This is seen as resulting from both a human rights regime that emphasizes legal norms and the aggressive policies of the United States and its allies in the War on Terror While punishment can play a key role in creating justice in a political system serious flaws in the current global order militate against punishment enforcing global norms The book argues for the necessary presence of three key concepts justice authority and agency if punishment is to function effectively and explores four practices in the current international system intervention sanctions counter terrorism policy and war crimes tribunals It concludes by suggesting ways to revise the current global political structure in order to enable punitive practices to play a more central role in creating a just world order This book will be of much interest to students of International Law Political Science and International Relations

Reformed Reader William Stacy Johnson, John H. Leith, 2002-03-01 This excellent resource presents short meaningful selections from major Reformed theologians of Europe the British Isles and America during the classical period 1519 1799 Arranged thematically according to major doctrines it identifies significant theological points that illustrate both the distinctiveness and diversity of Reformed thought Corrections: A Text/Reader Mary K. Stohr, Anthony Walsh, Craig Hemmens, 2012-03-20 Corrections A Text Reader Second Edition is designed for undergraduate and or graduate corrections courses Organized like a traditional corrections text it offers brief authored introductions in a mini chapter format for each key Section followed by carefully selected and edited original articles by leading scholars This hybrid format ensuring coverage of important material while emphasizing the significance of contemporary research offers an excellent alternative which recognizes the impact and importance of new directions and policy in this field and how these advances are determined by research Free Will and Responsibility John S. Callender, 2010-04-29 This book explores the evolution of morality and the roles of reason and emotion in the making of moral judgments It describes scientific research on volitional behaviour moral decision making and criminality discussing what this might mean for our practices of blame and punishment and applying this knowledge to clinical conditions The Essential Criminology Reader Stuart Henry, 2018-05-04 Initially designed to accompany Mark Lanier and Stuart Henry s best selling Essential Criminology textbook this new reader is an up to date companion text perfect for all students of introductory criminology and criminological theory courses The Essential Criminology Reader contains 30 original articles on current developments in criminological theory Commissioned specifically for The Reader these short essays were written by leading scholars in the field Each chapter complements one of 13 different theoretical perspectives covered in Lanier and Henry s Essential Criminology text and contains between two and three articles from leading theorists on each perspective Each chapter of The Reader features a brief summary of the main ideas of the theory the ways the author s theory has been misinterpreted distorted criticisms by others of the theory and how the author has responded a summary of the balance of the empirical findings the latest developments in their theoretical position policy implications practice of their theory Punishment A. John Simmons, Marshall Cohen, Joshua Cohen, Charles R. Beitz, 2022-02-08 The problem of justifying legal punishment has been at the heart of legal and social philosophy from the very earliest recorded philosophical texts However despite several hundred years of debate philosophers have not reached agreement about how legal punishment can be morally justified That is the central issue addressed by the contributors to this volume All of the essays collected here have been published in the highly respected journal Philosophy Public Affairs Taken together they offer not only significant proposals for improving established theories of punishment and compelling arguments against long held positions but also original and important answers to the question How is punishment to be justified Part I of this collection Justifications of Punishment examines how any practice of punishment can be morally justified Contributors include Jeffrie G Murphy Alan H Goldman Warren Quinn C S Nino and Jean Hampton The papers in Part II Problems of Punishment address more specific issues arising in established theories The authors are Martha C Nussbaum Michael Davis and A John Simmons In the final section Capital Punishment contributors discuss the justifiability of capital punishment one of the most debated philosophical topics of this century Essayists include David A Conway Jeffrey H Reiman Stephen Nathanson and Ernest van den Haag Criminal Justice Ethics Cyndi Banks, 2018-12-31 Criminal Justice Ethics examines the criminal justice system through an ethical lens by identifying ethical issues in practice and theory exploring ethical dilemmas and offering suggestions for resolving ethical issues and dilemmas faced by criminal justice professionals Bestselling author Cyndi Banks draws readers into a unique discussion of ethical issues by first exploring moral dilemmas faced by professionals in the criminal justice system and then examining the major theoretical foundations of ethics This distinct and unique organization allows readers to understand real life ethical issues before grappling with philosophical approaches to the resolution of these issues The Latin American Subaltern Studies Reader Ileana Rodríguez,2001-09-24

Argues for the saliency of the category of the subaltern over that of class The Reader Must Understand Kent E. Brower,Mark W. Elliott,2013-11-05
The reader must understand is a more forceful translation of the words usually rendered let the reader understand in Mark 13 14 Translated this way this volume s title stresses the importance of eschatology for Bible readers and theologians Eschatology the study of the last things is central to New Testament studies and indeed is not without importance for the Old Testament The Bible s eschatology and its place in Christian theology must therefore be taken very seriously The essays in this volume most of which were presented at the Tyndale Fellowship Triennial Conference 1997 offer new and important ideas and analysis They cover five main areas biblical theology Old Testament New Testament Christian doctrine and practical theology and significant contributions are made in each area The Portable Enlightenment Reader Various,1995-12-01
The Age of Enlightenment of the 18th century also called the Age of Reason was so named for an intellectual movement that shook the foundations of Western civilization In championing radical ideas such as individual liberty and an empirical appraisal of the universe through rational inquiry and natural experience Enlightenment philosophers in Europe and America planted the seeds for modern liberalism cultural humanism science and technology and laissez faire Capitalism This volume brings together works from this era with more than 100 selections from a range of sources It includes examples by Kant Diderot Voltaire Newton Rousseau Locke Franklin Jefferson Madison and Paine that demonstrate the pervasive impact of Enlightenment views on philosophy and epistemology as well as on political social and economic institutions Medieval Political Theory: A Reader Kate Langdon Forhan,Cary Joseph Nederman,2013-07-23
A textbook anthology of important works of political thought revealing the development of ideas from the 12th to the 15th centuries Includes new translations of both well known and ignored writers and an introductory overview The Lysander Spooner Reader Lysander Spooner,1992 The Conflict and Culture Reader Pat K. Chew,2001
In any conflict the players seem to invariably view that conflict through the filter of their own cultural experiences This collection of essays draws on a variety of disciplines to analyze fundamental assumptions about how conflict arises and how it is resolved The Boko Haram Reader Abdulbasit Kassim,Michael Nwankpa,2018-07-01
Since it erupted onto the world stage in 2009 people have asked what is Boko Haram and what does it stand for Is there a coherent vision or set of beliefs behind it Despite the growing literature about the group few if any attempts have been made to answer these questions even though Boko Haram is but the latest in a long line of millenarian Muslim reform groups to emerge in Northern Nigeria over the last two centuries The Boko Haram Reader offers an unprecedented collection of essential texts documents videos audio and nashids martial hymns translated into English from Hausa Arabic and Kanuri tracing the group s origins history and evolution Its editors two Nigerian scholars reveal how Boko Haram s leaders manipulate Islamic theology for the legitimisation radicalization indoctrination and dissemination of their ideas across West

Africa Mandatory reading for anyone wishing to grasp the underpinnings of Boko Haram's insurgency particularly how the group strives to delegitimize its rivals and establish its beliefs as a dominant strand of Islamic thought in West Africa's religious marketplace

Ethnicity And Crime: A Reader Spalek, Basia, 2008-07-01 Basia Spalek has compiled an excellent reader about a much researched and highly sensitive subject Crucially she contextualises ethnicity and crime within broadly defined social and intellectual contexts avoiding the limitation of all too frequently repeated research based solely on statistical measures and policy evaluations Simon Holdaway Professor of Criminology and Sociology Sheffield University

Issues in relation to race and ethnicity have generated substantial and ever growing interest from and within a multitude of academic research and policy contexts This book brings together important material in race and ethnic studies and provides different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime and the criminal justice system Ethnicity and Crime A Reader consists of a collection of works that capture the main themes that arise from within this vast area of work It is divided into five sections Race and crime racial discrimination and criminal justice The racialisation of crime Social political and cultural contexts Race ethnicity and victimisation Self and discipline reflexivity Ethnic identities and crime Ethnic identities institutional reflexivity and crime Each section contains recurring and overlapping themes and includes many different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime It spans theoretical approaches that might be labelled as positivist critical race analyses left realist approaches feminist as well as post modern perspectives This is the first title in the new series Readings in Criminology and Criminal Justice and follows the series format of thematic sections together with an editor's introduction to the complete volume and an introduction to each section
