Teaching and Learning in English Medium Instruction Jack C. Richards, Jack Pun, 2022-03-02 Teaching and Learning in English Medium Instruction provides an overview of the nature of English Medium Instruction EMI in both secondary and tertiary education The book explores the nature of academic literacy in EMI the ways in which EMI is implemented in different contexts issues related to teaching and learning through the medium of English teaching challenges and coping strategies used by EMI teachers support for EMI through EAP the professional development needs of EMI teachers approaches to the evaluation of EMI programs The book contains a number of short chapters written in an accessible style with discussion questions and practical follow up tasks Throughout the book key theory and research serve to introduce the core issues involved in EMI which are then explored in terms of implications for practice The book can be used in workshops and courses and for groups that include EMI teachers of content subjects

EAP teachers TESOL students and teachers and education officials involved with the implementation of EMI in different contexts With the expansion of EMI worldwide in recent years the book seeks to introduce EMI to a new generation of EMI teachers and language teaching professionals Developmental Dyslexia and Anaphora Resolution in English L1/L2

Nicoletta Simi,2021-06-15 This book presents the results of three experimental studies focusing on the ability of people with dyslexia to resolve ambiguous anaphoric sentences where concrete and abstract referents are present Each study represents a step in the ongoing investigation of this issue and stems from questions left unanswered by previous research This work is primarily inspired by the desire to gain a better understanding of the role of syntactic and lexical knowledge in text comprehension and more specifically of the effects of word concreteness and abstractness in anaphora resolution contexts for readers with dyslexia The book also investigates the resources necessary to process ambiguous anaphoric sentences The innovative methodology implemented here comprises both experimental techniques such as eye tracking and the use of questionnaires and standardised tests to answer specific research questions It also puts forward a hypothesis that explains the different deficits manifesting in people with dyslexia and suggests that in reading comprehension tasks the known impairment in people with dyslexia s working memory may hinder their ability to efficiently and accurately perform tasks involving procedural memory resources As a consequence this impairment would emerge as disruptions of people with dyslexia s semantic and syntactic competence as well as their functioning in complex tasks which are particularly demanding in terms of working memory resources Teaching with the Common Core Standards for English Language Arts, Grades 3-5

Lesley Mandel Morrow,Karen K. Wixson,Timothy Shanahan,2012-12-06 The Common Core State Standards CCSS are the first academic standards to be independently adopted by almost every state in the country The purpose and intent of the Common Core standards for English Language Arts ELA as well as Literacy in History Social Studies and Science education are the focus of this book This volume is aimed at educators administrators graduate students university professors and others who deal with students in grades 3 through 5 Each of the chapters addresses one of the major English Language Arts domains literature informational texts foundational skills writing speaking and listening language technology and assessment They contain invaluable information insight and research from literacy leaders in their respective fields Their objective is twofold to provide a theoretical background and detailed explanation of each of the CCSS ELA standards as well as practical suggestions classroom vignettes models instructional resources and unit ideas to implement the standards Teaching English Language Learners Michaela Colombo,2011-03-08 TESOL standards for students and teachers are outlined in the first chapter and aligned with the content of the book Dialogic Readers Fiona Maine,2015-03-24 Dialogic Readers Children talking and thinking together about visual texts celebrates the sophisticated and dynamic discussions that primary aged children can have as they talk together to make meaning from a variety of texts and it highlights the potential for talk between readers as a tool for critical and creative thinking It proposes a new dialogic theory of reading comprehension that incorporates multi modal media and adds further weight to the argument that talk as a tool for learning should form a central part of primary classroom learning and teaching The book explores the language of co construction children s critical and creative responses to text the dialogic transaction between text and readers the use of language as a tool for creating a social cohesion between readers This significant work is aimed at educational lecturers researchers and students who want to explore an expanded notion of reading comprehension in the twenty first century realizing how opportunities for children thinking creatively together might transform the potential for learning in the classroom It provides a framework for analyzing co constructive talk with suggestions for promoting children s critical and creative thinking
