Reading Australian Poetry:

Reading Australian Poetry Andrew Taylor, 1987 Australian Poetry Paul Kane, 1996-01-01 This book offers a comprehensive and original reading of Australian poetry from the colonial period to the present through the dual lenses of Romanticism and negativity Paul Kane argues that the absence of Romanticism functions as a crucial presence in the poetry of all the major Australian poets This absence or negativity is both thematic and structural and Kane's scrupulous analyses uncover important relations between Romanticism and negativity Chapters on nine individual poets explore and substantiate the theoretical claims informed by the work of contemporary critics of Romanticism and by various philosophers of negativity These chapters can serve as a series of self-contained readings of Australian poets for the use of students scholars and informed general readers Australian Poetry is unique in its sustained argument and theoretical sophistication New Directions in Contemporary Australian Poetry Dan Disney, Matthew Hall, 2021-10-04 This book sets out to navigate questions of the future of Australian poetry Deliberately designed as a dialogue between poets each of the four clusters presented here Indigeneities Political Landscapes Space Place Materiality Revising an Australian Mythos models how poetic communities in Australia continue to grow in alliance toward certain constellated ideas Exploring the ethics of creative production in a place that continues to position capital over culture property over community each of the twenty essays in this anthology takes the subject of Australian poetry definitively beyond Eurocentrism and white privilege By pushing back against nationalizing mythologies that have over the last 200 years since colonization not only narrativized the logic of instrumentalization but rendered our lands precarious this book asserts new possibilities of creative responsiveness within the Australian sensorium Readings in Contemporary Australian Poetry Igor Maver, 1997 As no literature can claim to be monolithic the essays collected in this book examine the various ways in which different European literary traditions were mediated and blended through individual Australian poets into Australian literature culture In part one the focus is thus on the new or hitherto rather neglected European literary and cultural affiliations in verse written by major Australian poets A D Hope James McAuley and Douglas Stewart Two recent Australian verse anthologies are also examined and contemporary Aboriginal poetry in English contextualized with regard to its hybridization of orality and literacy Part two is dedicated to Slovene migrant poetry produced in Australia It analyzes the work of two major Slovene migrant poets living in Australia Bert Pribac and Joze Zohar Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Faye H. Davies, Philip Mead, 2011 What role should Australian literature play in the school curriculum What principles should guide our selection of Australian texts To what extent should concepts of the nation and a national identity frame the study of Australian writing What do we imagine Australian literature to be How do English teachers go about engaging their students in reading Australian texts This volume brings together teachers teacher educators creative writers and literary scholars in a joint inquiry that takes a fresh look at what it means to teach Australian literature The immediate occasion for the publication of these essays is the implementation of The Australian Curriculum English which several contributors subject to critical scrutiny In doing so they question the way that literature teaching is currently being constructed by standards based reforms not only in Australia but elsewhere The essays assembled in this volume transcend the divisions that have sometimes marred debates about the place of Australian literature in the school curriculum They all recognise the complexity of what secondary English teachers do in their efforts to engage young people in a rich and meaningful curriculum They also highlight the need for both secondary and tertiary educators to cultivate an awareness of the cultural and intellectual traditions that mediate their professional practice and to encourage a critically responsive pedagogy Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial
