Redmond Barry A Colonial Life 1813 1880:

Redmond Barry Peter Ryan,1980-01 Redmond Barry Ann Galbally,2013-04-01 Sir Redmond Barry was the pre eminent figure in Melbourne of the middle years of last century A Supreme Court judge for thirty years he was the founding and sustaining force behind the University of Melbourne the Supreme Court Library the Public Library the National Gallery and the Museum As social and cultural benefactor he stands alone Paradox pervaded his life While seen by many as a hidebound even villainous judge his trust in the rule of law underpinned for example an unusually sympathetic and active response to the Aboriginal people Yet fear of losing social standing and his Irish family s esteem blinkered him to injustice on his own doorstep The story of his unacknowledged relationship of thirty years with Louisa Barrow and of their four illegitimate children is perplexing and often painful in the telling This important biography is long overdue A Science of Our Own Peter H. Hoffenberg,2019-10-22 When the Reverend Henry Carmichael opened the Sydney Mechanics School of Arts in 1833 he introduced a bold directive for Australia to advance on the scale of nations it needed to develop a science of its own Prominent scientists in the colonies of New South Wales and Victoria answered this call by participating in popular exhibitions far and near from London s Crystal Place in 1851 to Sydney Melbourne Adelaide and Brisbane during the final decades of the nineteenth century A Science of Our Own explores the influential work of local botanists chemists and geologists William B Clarke Joseph Bosisto Robert Brough Smyth and Ferdinand Mueller who contributed to shaping a distinctive public science in Australia during the nineteenth century It extends beyond the political underpinnings of the development of public science to consider the rich social and cultural context at its core For the Australian colonies as Peter H Hoffenberg argues these exhibitions not only offered a path to progress by promoting both the knowledge and authority of local scientists and public policies they also ultimately redefined the relationship between science and society by representing and appealing to the growing popularity of science at home and abroad An Empire on Display Peter H. Hoffenberg,2001 The exhibitions of the Victorian and Edwardian eras are the lens through which this book examines the economic cultural and social forces that helped define Britain and the Empire It focuses on exhibitions in England Australia and India from the Great Exhibition to the Festival of Empire The Shop Richard Joseph Wheeler Selleck,2003 Telling as much a social educational and cultural story as institutional history this detailed account chronicles the ideological patterns internal and countrywide conflicts and student experiences at the University of Melbourne from 1850 to 1939 The daily life of staff professors and students are recounted during times of turmoil and peace in Australia including the depression of the 1890s and World War I The account offers a window into the pedagogical conflicts and research achievements of one of Australia s oldest continuing educational institutions Mr Felton's Bequests John Poynter,2008-01-01 Alfred Felton a bachelor of definite opinions and benignly eccentric habits was one of the remarkable group of Melbourne merchants who dominated the economy of the Australian colonies in the decades after the gold rush In 1904 he left his substantial fortune in trust the income to be spent by a committee of his friends half on charities especially for women and children and half on works of art for the National Gallery of Victoria works calculated to raise and improve public taste The Gallery suddenly gained acquisition funds greater than those of London s National and Tate galleries combined and between 1904 and 2004 more than 15 000 items were purchased for it by the Felton Bequest Although the last quarter of the twentieth century saw a dramatic and exciting expansion of Australian art museums Patrick McCaughey writes in the foreword of this book no institution could hope to replicate the collection of the National Gallery of Victoria assembled under the aegis of the Felton Bequest How the Felton Bequests Committee carried out its tasks in cooperation and sometimes in conflict with the Trustees of the Gallery is a human story of many triumphs and occasional follies of decisions made and unmade amid changing notions of art philanthropy and public taste John Poynter s account of Felton s life and the story of his Bequests covers most of Melbourne s history from the unusual view point of three themes business art and charity Oxford Dictionary of National Biography: Barney-Bellasis British Academy,2004 55 000 biographies of people who shaped the history of the British Isles and beyond from the earliest times to the year 2002 On Peter Carey Sarah Krasnostein,2023-06-06 Exploring dislocation and longing Sarah Krasnostein dives into Peter Carey s literary tour de force True History of the Kelly Gang in this latest offering from the stunning Writers on Writers essay series Award winning writer Sarah Krasnostein shines new light on the impossibly vulnerable Ned Kelly of Peter Carey s True History of the Kelly Gang Carey who moved from Australia to America conjured Kelly after seeing Sidney Nolan s paintings of the bushranger at the Met In this moving essay Krasnostein who moved from America to Australia interrogates notions of home history distance and identity in Peter Carey s Booker Prize winning novel In the Writers on Writers series leading writers reflect on another Australian writer who has inspired and fascinated them Provocative and crisp these books start a fresh conversation between past and present shed new light on the craft of writing and introduce some intriguing and talented authors and their work Published by Black Inc in association with the University of Melbourne and State Library Victoria To Create a Commonwealth Peter H. Hoffenberg,1993 The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Aus to Cal ,1910 The Difficulties of My Position John Buckley Castieau,2004 A career in the Victorian penal system might not seem to be a source of excitement or even great interest but for John Buckley Castieau it was the trigger for nearly three decades of diaries that reveal not only what went on behind prison walls but also much about the colony s early history J B Castieau was the governor of both Beechworth and Melbourne gaols as well as somewhat disastrously the Inspector General of Penal Establishments Page 4 of cover Biography Index Bea Joseph,1979 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1910 The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1910 Overland ,1981 Ned Kelly, the Authentic Illustrated Story Keith McMenomy,1984 American Book Publishing Record ,1983-04 From Pentonville to Pentridge Peter Lynn,George Armstrong,1996 Nearly two hundred years of penal history in Victoria
