Ennobling Love C. Stephen Jaeger,1999 Ennobling Love is both a reader's pleasure and a scholar's treasure The Power of Love Osho,2016-07-19 One of the most important life events is falling in love yet we never learn about it in school Societies and religions force us into models and thought forms that are often in opposition to an organic model of love which is instead institutionalised by marriage religious affiliations and nationalism This results in love that is for most people a painful challenge in one form or another throughout life In these modern days where the focus shifts more and more to realising one's individual potential Osho helps us to direct our search for love by widening our view showing us that love has many manifestations and is not limited to the other One manifestation of love is meditation a life changing experience that allows the flowering of real love within oneself and toward others The Osho Life Essentials series focuses on the most important questions in the life of the individual Each volume contains timeless yet contemporary investigations and discussions into questions vital to our personal search for meaning and purpose The Osho Life Essentials series focuses on questions specific to our inner life and quality of existence for example is it possible to have an authentic spirituality without a belief in God What is meditation and how does it work What can I do as an individual to make the world a better place

Wager Raymond Barfield,2017-03-21 How do humans explore beauty virtue love justice and goodness This book argues that philosophical attention to our lives shaped in part by our choices is our instrument for investigating these parts of reality Constructing a life is a philosophical act Philosophical acts that are shaped by a life and that shape a life constitute philosophical style Everyone has a philosophical style which is fundamentally about the way we live in the world through our bodies our reason our imagination and our virtue It is about what we love and how we are loved Beauty suffering and being in the world are placeholders for everything that makes up our lived experience As we live our lives between beauty and suffering we learn most about being in the world The argument of the book moves from a discussion of philosophical style through the three placeholders for human experience as they are affected by philosophy beauty suffering and being in the world arriving at a reworking of Pascal's wager about living in relationship to the presence or absence of God as a way of understanding the commitments that are our only way into the truth of our life About Love Robert C. Rediscovering God's Grand Story James M. Roseman,2017-09-15 In the passage to modernity we in the West have lost the ability to see things whole We've closed our minds to all things transcendent and default to unbelief and can't make sense of the persistent echoes of the voice of God that reverberate in our souls In Rediscovering God's Grand Story James Roseman picks up the strands of science philosophy history the arts and theology and reweaves the tapestry to see a coherent story that makes the best sense of the world and provides real meaning and significance to our lives God's Grand Myth We see that the signals of transcendence that confound our culture of doubt are a universal language and vocabulary of the heart echoing the voice of God and in the very Judeo Christian story we so readily jettison is found the Author enabling us to see the world whole again This essay tells why the story and promise of Christianity is so hard to hear today but won't go away Could it be that as T S Eliot wrote in the mid twentieth century at the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time

The Somatechnics of Life and Death Elizabeth Stephens,Karin Sellberg,2021-03-16

What is life and how do we define its boundaries Is life immeasurable or are there levels of liveliness How should we relate to entities that are not technically alive at all As the world becomes increasingly technologized questions about what counts as life and living have become a key field of inquiry in contemporary philosophical and arts discourse As Mel Chen acknowledges in Animacies 2012 the continued rethinking of life and death's proper boundaries has increasingly been recognized as a priority in twenty first century North American European and Australasian critical theory Indeed the contributors of this volume go as far as to argue that the question of life has become the central problematic of recent feminist biopolitics alongside discussions of scientific ethics and technological organic power relationships This volume explores points of intersection and divergence between critical conceptions of time and technology drawing on a range of perspectives and approaches to examine our mediated and material embodied entanglements with key questions about life and death It is a significant new contribution to the study of corporeality in gender studies and feminism and will be of interest to academics researchers and advanced students of philosophy gender studies literary theory and politics It was originally published as a special issue of Australian Feminist Studies

The Gift of Love Andrew Staron,2017-02-01

The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine's claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart Jean Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love
