Building resilience & supporting mental health in bereaved youth through sports Theo Gavrielides, This ebook presents the results of the Footsteps Forward project carried out by the RJ4All International Institute with support from the London Violence Reduction Unit of the Mayor of London It was carried out in 2024 in South East London working directly with young people aged 14-18 who were affected by loss and serious youth violence. It used the RjINEAR resilience model drawn from restorative justice and positive psychology principles. It aimed to test a hypothesis whereby the delivery of combined group multi-sports and therapeutic activities guided by the RjINEAR ethos will lead to improved well-being and resilience outcomes for young people affected by serious youth violence and loss. The project bridges an important caveat in the extant literature focusing on structured support for these youth. Among the findings, the project illustrated that it created a safe space for grief expressions and sports engagement. Additionally, a moderate correlation was observed between RjINEAR and the support received for grief. To cite this ebook: Gavrielides T. 2024. Dr. Joyzy Pius Egunjobi, 2016-05-18. In recent times, there has been an attention shift in the approach to treatment of health-related issues from just biological, psychological, social, or spiritual approaches to a holistic approach of an integrated biopsychosocial spirituality. The same trend has occurred in the field of addiction, that the past 20 years have witnessed various authors in the addiction field proposing a biopsychosocial-spiritual model of addiction treatment. This book therefore focuses on how the person of an addict can be treated holistically through an integrated biopsychosocial spirituality, addressing not just the addiction problem but repairing all that addiction has damaged and/or soiled, restoring a total person. Los Angeles Magazine, 2003-09. Edward William Bok, 2007. Organizing through Empathy. Kathryn Pavlovich, Keiko Krahne, 2013-09-11. Empathy dissolves the boundaries between self and others, and feelings of altruism towards others are activated. This process results in more compassionate and caring contexts as well as helping others in times of suffering. This book provides evidence from neuroscience and quantum physics that it is empathy that connects humanity and that this awareness can create a more just society. It extends interest in values-based management, exploring the intellectual, physical, ecological, spiritual, and aesthetic well-being of organizations and society rather than the more common management principles of maximising profit and efficiency. This book challenges the existing paradigm of capitalism by providing scientific evidence and empirical data that empathy is the most important organizing mechanism. The book is unique in that it provides a comprehensive review of the transformational qualities of empathy in personal, organizational, and local contexts. Integrating an understanding based upon scientific studies of why the fields of positive psychology and organizational scholarship are important it examines the evidence from neuroscience and presents leading edge studies from quantum physics with implications for the organizational field Together the chapters in this book attempt to demonstrate how empathy helps in the reduction of human suffering and the creation of a more just society Owner of a Lonely Heart Eva Carter,2023-01-17 From the author of How to Save a Life comes a heartfelt story of two people finding the courage to choose love no matter how hard it may be Gemma thought she had her future all mapped out She had a wonderful husband a cute apartment and plans to start a family But just months after their wedding illness took her husband from her And now she finds herself trying to think up new dreams when all she really wants are her old ones back Across town Dan s also rethinking his life He s about to meet his twelve year old daughter Casey for the very first time She s tracked him down because she needs a place to stay for the summer while she receives treatment for a brain tumor at the city hospital and Dan is terrified he won t be up to the task of taking care of her after all he s structured his entire life so that no one has to rely on him But when fate with the help of Gemma s scruffy terrier Bear brings these three strangers together one scorching July morning there s an instant connection among them And it soon becomes clear that this summer could change everything if only they ll let it Will Gemma Dan and Casey be brave enough to let love in and build a new life together Or will they let fear keep everything they ve ever wanted just out of reach Trivial Pursuits Ian Diorio,2014-04-01 Your life is not a reality show It s actual reality But too many of us spend our lives on trivial pursuits media money perpetual youth and a culture of constant entertainment We try to avoid the realities of pain depression loneliness and mortality by filling our lives with diversions Even worse our churches that might use the reality of pain and suffering to point us to the cross instead dress the gospel up in the world s clothing so that it will seem more relevant With pinpoint accuracy LA club DJ turned pastor Ian DiOrio diagnoses the problem and gives us the cure Exposing our most common empty attempts to find meaning apart from God DiOrio points us back to God and exhorts us to find meaning in our identities as followers of Christ as shapers of culture and as people who participate in communities of worship Business Week ,2002 The New York Times Index ,2009 Nursing Times, Nursing Mirror ,1998 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 Current Index to Journals in Education ,2001 American Book Publishing Record ,2003
