Reflections 55 Years In Public Service In Nova Scotia:

The Guardianship of Best Interests Renée Nicole Lafferty, 2013 A history of charitable children's homes and emergent state centred child welfare policy in Nova Scotia

Seven Days in Halifax Robert Ashe, 2025-10-07 Halifax today lives with the results of bad decisions made decades ago A container port accessible only through narrow downtown streets A park bridge and port on the spot where Africville was demolished A mega interchange going nowhere finally torn down The thoughtless power brokers who made these decisions are long gone but Haligonians still live now with the choices they made Yet for seven days in 1970 Nova Scotians saw a brilliant spotlight shone on the city's power structure exposing incompetence ignorance racism and lies In Seven Days in Halifax Robert Ashe presents this forgotten event in the city's life Twelve highly qualified outsiders including a passionate Black pastor a feisty Canadian labour leader and a no holds barred journalist spent a week in a public investigation of the city and how it worked Each evening Nova Scotians were glued to live television broadcasts where the 12 experts grilled local authorities The event called Encounter was a one off But it showed how a local power structure can fail a city's citizens and face no consequences Robert Ashe's story of Encounter explains much about Halifax's recent history and offers timely lessons on the importance of accountability on the part of those in the city's power structure today

Reconfiguring Citizenship Mehmoona Moosa-Mitha, 2016-03-23 Citizenship as a status assumes that all those encompassed by the term citizen are included albeit within the boundaries of the nation state Yet citizenship practices can be both inclusionary and exclusionary with far reaching ramifications for both nationals and non nationals This volume explores the concept of citizenship and its practices within particular contexts and nation states to identify whether its claims to inclusivity are justified This will show whether the exclusionary dimensions experienced by some citizens and non citizens are linked to deficiencies in the concept country specific policies or how it is practised in different contexts The interrogation of citizenship is important in a globalising world where crossing borders raises issues of diversity and how citizenship status is framed This raises the issue of human rights and their protection within the nation state for people whose lifestyles differ from the prevailing ones Besides highlighting the importance of human rights and social justice as integral to citizenship it affirms the role of the nation state in safeguarding these matters It does so by building on Indigenous peoples insights about linking citizenship to connections to other people and the environment and arguing for the inalienability and portability of citizenship rights guaranteed collectively through international level agreements These issues are of particular concern to social workers given that they must act in accordance with the principles of democracy equality and empowerment However citizenship issues are often inadequately articulated in social work theory and practice This book redresses this by providing social workers with insights knowledge values and skills about citizenship practices to enable them to work more effectively with those excluded from enjoying the full rights of citizenship in the nation states in which they reside

The Traffic in Babies Karen Andrea Balcom,2011-01-01 Exploring how and why babies were moved across borders The Traffic in Babies is a fascinating look at how social workers and other policy makers tried to find birth mothers adopted children and adoptive parents
