Reflections on World Economic Crisis Andre Gunder Frank, 1981-01-01 0 Reflections on World Economic Crisis
Andre Gunder Frank, 1981-01-01 0 Reflections on Europe Hans-Åke Persson, 2007 When Dutch and subsequently French voters rejected the Draft Treaty for a Constitution for Europe in Spring 2005 many voices called for a pause for reflection This book is in part a result of that moment of reflection We wanted to contribute to the debate about Europe but crucially we sought to do so by taking a step back from the problem formation and agenda setting of Brussels For the authors of this volume one key to establishing critical distance has been the reappraisal of the historical perspective Another has been the problematisation of Europe as a space as opposed to looking for a definition of borders The authors also seek critical distance through a focus on the tension between Europe as a culture as a polity and as an economy These tensions have often been neglected or even ignored and the relationships have been seen as more or less synonymous and harmonious The aim of this volume then is two fold It wants developing a critical distance to the present Europe to contribute to the vivid academic research and debate on Europe which too often either develops distance without commenting on the present state of affairs or comments on the present without critical distance Critical Reflections on Development D.

Kingsbury, 2013-03-05 Designed as a critique of the key failures of international development this book brings together practitioners policy makers researchers activists and academics in an attempt to work toward a shared conceptualisation of development by outlining and critically reflecting on their own understanding of development Reflections on Progress
Kemal Derviş, 2016-08-30 Now more than ever the world needs growth oriented and socially inclusive policymaking Is the world giving up on the promise of ever greater prosperity for all on functioning democratic institutions and on long term peace Is the special set of circumstances that led to the recent rapid growth in emerging markets unlikely to be present in the future Will the second decade of the twenty first century end with secular stagnation Does the rise of authoritarianism populism and fanatic nihilism all experienced over the last few years threaten to unravel what has been built painstakingly since the catastrophe of World War II Kemal Derviş addresses these and similar questions in this thought provoking series of essays written for Project Syndicate from 2011 to 2015 The essays are organized in three sections global economic interdependence inequality and the political economy of reform and the specific challenge of Europe The common theme is the need for growth oriented and socially inclusive policymaking in an interdependent world These kinds of policies offer the potential for another wave of unprecedented human progress aided by breathtaking new technologies However a huge and destabilizing disruption is possible if policymaking is not globally cooperative and is not focused on inclusion and greater equity These essays synthesize the experience and analysis of a scholar and policymaker with national regional and international experience at the highest levels Derviş exhibits a passion for combining strongly held values with political feasibility Between Tradition and Modernity: Philosophical Reflections on the Modernization of Chinese
