President's party the Dominican Liberation Party Partido de la Liberación Dominicana PLD enjoyed an overwhelming majority in the Senate and along with its allies a clear majority in the House of Representatives The 2030 National Development Strategy publicly discussed at length during the period 2010-11 and signed into law on the first day of 2012 by the previous government also of the PLD had set fiscal revenue levels above those recorded in 2011-12 However despite the obvious need the international support the fresh mandate of the President and the undisputed control of almost all the formal seats of power in the country the reform was rightly called half of a reform or even a missed opportunity Why Is another large reform possible in the coming years This paper attempts to answer these questions through an analysis of the political economy of the tax reforms with reference to Dominican history as well as to the regional context Finally the paper focuses on the relationship between the executive and the interests of the private sector and its possible mediation through the political parties and as was done too hastily in October 2012 civil society forums such as the CES The first part outlines the major tax reforms that took place in the Dominican Republic between its democratic opening in 1978 and the 2012 efforts along with the political and economic conditions in each case with a special focus on the 1992 reform Next the document describes the rigidities that accumulated during that period which were the legacy of crisis international commitments and the goals of the ambitious tax revenue goals of the National Development Strategy The second and longest section describes the regional debate on tax policy and redistribution while showing how the Dominican Republic is situated in this scenario with statistics on the fiscal performance of the Dominican Republic and other Caribbean and Central American countries From there with the ground prepared the paper narrates the process of the 2012 reform and investigates the question posed above by comparing different episodes of fiscal reform Finally the paper discusses the challenges and possibilities for future reforms from narrow technical ones to those that would involve a broad and reciprocal process with a focus on the role that could be played by fiscal pacts
