A Fatal Balancing Act Beate Meyer,2013-09-01 In 1939 all German Jews had to become members of a newly founded Reich Association The Jewish functionaries of this organization were faced with circumstances and events that forced them to walk a fine line between responsible action and collaboration They had hoped to support mass emigration mitigate the consequences of the anti Jewish measures and take care of the remaining community When the Nazis forbade emigration and started mass deportations in 1941 the functionaries decided to cooperate to prevent the worst In choosing to cooperate they came into direct opposition with the interests of their members who were then deported In June 1943 all unprotected Jews were deported along with their representatives and the so called intermediaries supplied the rest of the community which consisted of Jews living in mixed marriages The study deals with the tasks of these men the fate of the Jews in mixed marriages and what happened to the survivors after the war

Submerged on the Surface Richard N. Lutjens, Jr.,2019-09-01 Between 1941 and 1945 thousands of German Jews in fear for their lives made the choice to flee their impending deportations and live submerged in the shadows of the Nazi capital Drawing on a wealth of archival evidence and interviews with survivors this book reconstructs the daily lives of Jews who stayed in Berlin during the war years Contrary to the received wisdom that hidden Jews stayed in attics and cellars and had minimal contact with the outside world the author reveals a cohort of remarkable individuals who were constantly on the move and actively fought to ensure their own survival
