Devolution in Greater Manchester and Liverpool City Region Georgina Blakeley,Brendan Evans,2023-05-30 Greater Manchester and Liverpool were among the first areas of England to undergo urban devolution Under the leadership of metro mayors Andy Burnham and Steve Rotherham they were in the forefront of attempts to level up the north and to address the problem of regional inequalities This book looks at how the metro mayors evolved their office examining the fields of economic development transport skills health housing and spatial reform and the environment In the case of Greater Manchester it also explores health and the reform of public services Addressing the crucial issues of power resources partnerships central local relations and local democracy the book concludes with an assessment of the future prospects for a deeper and more fundamental change in the character of the English state Regenerating Regional Culture Jane Frank,2017-11-28 This book explores the significance of the international book town movement and its impact on contemporary society It examines how book towns have emerged and how their culture and unique characteristics help to explain a steadily growing phenomenon that has enabled peripheral communities around the world to reclaim their economic futures and impact on the cultural sphere as increasingly powerful sites and sources of creativity Regenerating Regional Culture assesses why at a time when the book industry is experiencing a profound transformation book towns are proliferating in Europe and across the globe It acknowledges the role of the book as a catalyst for this significant cultural activity and development The book is shown to be a unique and pivotal item of cultural consumption a remarkable artefact and more than ever before a springboard for contemporary cultural debate This work investigates how the reanimation of these down on their luck towns is attracting through a combination of nostalgia history and cultural heritage a growing middle class cohort who seek both intellectual stimulation and opportunities for serious leisure and wellbeing This book will prove to be a useful resource for understanding the impacts of book towns on art culture and society while also offering insightful research for those involved in existing or future development of book towns and other community cultural projects

Urban Regeneration in Europe Uwe Altrock, Detlef Kurth, 2024-11-25 We understand urban regeneration as all efforts managed funded or at least guided to some extent by public authorities that aim at improving stabilizing or revitalizing existing neighborhoods This comprises area based strategies improvements of public infrastructure and interventions into the physical structure of the built environment Their strategies may be redevelopment renewal careful regeneration socially integrative management and others Those efforts aim at dealing with reurbanization trends recently challenged by new suburbanization due to overheated development sharp increases in house prices and more and more professionals working from home The major objective of the book is to give an overview of the variety of approaches applied in European countries Therefore it takes a particular look at the systems of urban regeneration that build upon an interplay of specific legal frameworks policies public funding schemes physical planning tools partnerships and governance arrangements applied with the intention of solving urban problems For this purpose chapters present case studies of those national or regional systems or outstanding examples of long term efforts by major cities Urban Regeneration Peter Roberts, Peter W. Roberts, Hugh Sykes, 2000-02-11 Providing students and practitioners with a detailed overview of the key theoretical and applied issues this book is a comprehensive and integrated primer on regeneration The various chapters review the history and context of urban regeneration consider funding implications look at environmental social and community issues as well as employment education and training focus on managing urban regeneration consider land use issues and discuss monitoring and evaluation The book concludes with a comparative analysis with examples from America and Europe and a discussion of future trends The book represents the first systematic overview of urban regeneration in one volume and is set to become the standard reference Social Change Series 1: Regeneration, The Enterprising City Centre Gwyndaf Williams, 2003-11-06 This book focuses on urban development processes and the dynamics of changing city centres with the context of the emergence of urban entrepreneurialism as a driving force in delivering urban development Coastal towns Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee, 2007-11-21 The Government's first response Cm 7126 ISBN 97801017712620 to the Committee's report on coastal towns 2nd report session 2006 07 HCP 351 ISBN 9780215032843 was not well received by the Committee other members of Parliament and organisations such as the British Resorts and Destinations Association It was felt that the response failed to recognise the necessity for specific measures to support coastal communities The Committee requested a more considered response from the new Secretary of State The further response is published as appendix 3 The Government now accepts a number of the Committee's recommendations especially the need for further research on the challenges facing these communities and the disproportionately high rise in the number of people claiming sickness and disability benefit The Committee welcomes the

Government's intention to establish a cross departmental working group on issues affecting coastal towns and its commitment to establish a coastal areas network supported by Government and the regional development agencies

Urban Regeneration in Australia Kristian Ruming, 2018-02-20 Drawing together leading urban academics this book provides the first detailed and cohesive exploration of contemporary urban regeneration in Australian cities. It explores the multiple aspects and processes of regeneration including planning policy strategic and regulatory development financing sustainability remediation and transport. The book puts forward a unique and innovative scaled analysis of urban regeneration which positions urban regeneration as more than just large scale redevelopment projects. It examines the processes of urban change which occur outside inner suburbs which contribute to regenerating the city as a whole. The book moves beyond the planning and economic considerations of the regeneration process to describe the social and cultural aspects of regeneration. In doing so it focuses on the management of higher density environments culture as a trigger for regeneration and community opposition to the regeneration process. Urban Regeneration in Australia would benefit academics students and professionals of urban geography and planning as well as those with a particular interest in Australian urbanism. Private Sector Involvement in Regenerating Social Housing Estates Michelle Norris, Declan Redmond, 2009 Urban Regeneration J.N. Berry, N.G. Deddis, W.S. McGreal, 2013-11-05 This book provides an in depth analysis of the role of property investment and development in the urban regeneration process. It relates the physical economic financial and environmental aspects of urban change and development to the realities of particular cities by case studies drawn from Britain and Europe. Neoliberalism and Urban Regeneration Roger Green, Keith Popple, 2025-08-14 London is a major global city which attracts a massive influx of capital while concentrating power and wealth in the hands of the few. Meanwhile many communities suffer housing shortages poverty and dispossession. How can its diverse communities fight back against exclusionary regeneration projects? This accessible book tells the story of the Voice4Deptford campaign in Southeast London which has taken radical democratic and creative action to resist the destructive influence of neoliberalism at the community level. It shows how top down change is challenged and together with case studies from across London offers powerful ways forward for other urban communities globally. Public Relations Cases and Readings Daniel Moss, Barbara DeSanto, 2005-08-19 This unique collection of contemporary international public relations case studies gives readers in depth insights into the effective use of public relations in a range of organizational contexts. The cases examined demonstrate the breadth of contemporary public relations practice and the increasing importance and sophistication of the public relations function in both public and private sector organizations. Cases from the UK Norway Spain Sweden South Africa Canada and the USA are featured. Offering valuable insights into the development of PR and communication strategies the areas examined include corporate identity change and management global reputation management crisis management in the oil and shipping industries exploiting strategic alliances between voluntary and private sector organizations public relations support for international branding and market entry the importance of internal communications during international mergers the integration of public relations and marketing communications business to business communications Also including analysis and discussion questions to support the case studies and maintaining a good balance between theory and practice it is an invaluable resource for teachers researchers and students working in public relations corporate communications and public affairs The Retail Directory ,2006 Regeneration of the Built Environment from a Circular Economy Perspective Stefano Della Torre,Sara Cattaneo,Camilla Lenzi,Alessandra Zanelli,2019-12-30 This open access book explores the strategic importance and advantages of adopting multidisciplinary and multiscale approaches of inquiry and intervention with respect to the built environment based on principles of sustainability and circular economy strategies A series of key challenges are considered in depth from a multidisciplinary perspective spanning engineering architecture and regional and urban economics These challenges include strategies to relaunch socioeconomic development through regenerative processes the regeneration of urban spaces from the perspective of resilience the development and deployment of innovative products and processes in the construction sector in order to comply more fully with the principles of sustainability and circularity and the development of multiscale approaches to enhance the performance of both the existing building stock and new buildings The book offers a rich selection of conceptual empirical methodological technical and case study project based research It will be of value for all who have an interest in regeneration of the built environment from a circular economy perspective
