Dynamic Governance: Embedding Culture, Capabilities And Change In Singapore (English Version) Boon Siong Neo, Geraldine Chen, 2007-07-03 In a world of uncertainty and change current achievements are no guarantee for future survival Even if the initial chosen set of principles policies and practices are good static efficiency and governance would eventually lead to stagnation and decay No amount of careful planning can assure a government of continual relevance and effectiveness if there is no capacity for learning innovation and change in the face of ever new challenges in a volatile and unpredictable global environment This book provides an in depth look at dynamic governance the key to success in a world of rapid increasing globalization and unrelenting technological advancements If bureaucratic public institutions can evolve and embed the culture and capabilities that enable continuous learning and change their contributions to a country s socio economic progress and prosperity would be enormous The lessons from their efforts in institutionalizing culture capabilities and change could provide meaningful and valuable insights for transforming organizations in other contexts China's Surging Economy: Adjusting For More Balanced Development John Wong, Wei Liu, 2007-06-15 The Chinese economy today is at a critical crossroads Sustained rapid growth has given rise to structural strains as well as sectoral imbalances It has also generated socio economic problems such as rising income inequality rural discontent and environmental degradation All of these must be addressed before China can enter the next lap of high growth Containing 12 chapters this volume is a collaborative effort of leading economists from Beijing Singapore and elsewhere in the region in analyzing China s economic growth prospects and their concomitant problems and constraints Striving for Growth After Adjustment Luis Servén, Andrés Solimano, 1993 This book presents the results of about three years of work finished in early 1992 in the area of private investment and macroeconomic adjustment Its purpose is to explore the macroeconomic determinants of investment and the causes and cures for the gap between macroeconomic adjustment and stabilization and the resumption of economic growth in developing countries a gap that even today 10 years after the debt crisis and the subsequent adjustment of the eighties remains wide This volume highlights the central role of capital formation public and private in the restoration of sustainable growth Structural Changes and Adjustment of the Singapore Economy Since 1985 Teck Wong Soon, 1989 Economic growth and development in Singapore Peter Wilson, 2002-10-29 In this book Gavin Peebles and Peter Wilson offer an historical overview of the rapid growth and development of the Singapore economy detailing the institutions and policies which have made this growth possible They examine the current state of the economy and its future in terms of prospective growth and structural change Wages And Wages Policies: Tripartism In Singapore Chong Yah Lim, Rosalind Chew, 1999-03-01 This book consists of articles written by twenty authors including three eminent academicians from Australia and Britain It provides first hand information on the National Wages Council NWC and its contributions which includes the promotion of tripartism as an instrument of economic growth The book is divided into six parts Part I introduces into the practice of political communication and its development throughout the strategically important region of Southeast Asia with its large Moslem states as well as much further afield to countries such as China and post industrial Europe As such the book will be warmly welcomed by academics of politics international relations media communications and PR It will also appeal to researchers interested in political change the rise of the global media giants and the influence of authoritarian states such as China
