transformation of communists Identifying justice without reconciliation as the primary factor hampering the process of overcoming the past in the Czech Republic Communists and Their Victims promotes a transformative theory of justice that demonstrates that justice measures in order to be successful require a degree of reconciliation The Christian Doctrine of Immortality Stewart Dingwall Fordyce Salmond,1895 A Modern Reader's Guide to Dante's The Divine Comedy Joseph Gallagher,1999 The Divine Comedy has been a cornerstone of Western literature for the better part of a millennium In this work Joseph Gallagher brings the power and prestige of this medieval classic to a new generation of readers taking them on a guided tour through heaven purgatory and hell Formerly titled To Hell and Back with Dante Paperback The Christian doctrine of immortality by Stewart D[ingwall] F[ordyce] Salmond, ... Prof. of theol., Free Church College, Aberdeen Stewart Dingwall Fordyce Salmond,1896 The Shadow of Death Mark Canuel,2016-07-26 The Shadow of Death is a timely and ambitious reassessment of English Romantic literature and the unique role it played in one of the great liberal political causes of the modern age Mark Canuel argues that Romantic writers in Great Britain led one of the earliest assaults on the death penalty and were instrumental in bringing about penal law reforms He demonstrates how writers like Percy Bysshe Shelley Lord Byron William Wordsworth and Jane Austen defined the fundamental contradictions that continue to inform today s debates about capital punishment Celebrated reformers like Sir Samuel Romilly and William Ewart campaigned against the widespread use of death to punish crimes ranging from murder to petty theft but they were most influential for initiating a system of penalties built upon conflicting motivations and justifications Canuel examines the ways Romantic poets and novelists magnified these tensions while treating them as uniquely aesthetic opportunities seized upon contending rationales of punishment to express imaginative power and revealed how the imagination fueled the new penal code s disturbing vitality Death penalty reform Canuel argues in fact emerged from a new way of thinking about punishment as a negotiation among rationales rather than a seamless whole with leniency and severity constantly at odds He concludes by exploring how Romantic penal reform continues to influence contemporary views about the justice and injustice of legal sanctions The Nation ,1912 Dreaming, Religion and Society in Africa M.C. Jedrej,Rosalind Shaw,2023-11-20 The contributors to this investigation of dreaming in a diversity of African cultures and settings have each approached the matter with a respect for an indigenous discourse which does not necessarily subscribe to Western evaluations of the objective and subjective The matter of dreaming is not so much a psychological constant as ultimately sociological and historical Dream discourse as a strategy deploys contingencies in the elaboration of social relationships and the defence restoration and promotion of identities Dreaming is therefore prominent in such critical settings as sickness and healing artistic inspiration and craftwork election to religious office conversion to Islam or Christianity Political Reconciliation Andrew Schaap,2004-11-23 Since the end of the Cold War the concept of reconciliation has emerged as a central term of political discourse within societies divided by a history of political violence Reconciliation has been promoted as a way of reckoning with the legacy of past wrongs while opening the way for community in the future This book examines the issues of transitional justice in the context of contemporary debates in political theory concerning the nature of the political Bringing together research on transitional justice and political theory the author argues that if we are to talk of reconciliation in politics we need to think about it in a fundamentally different way than is commonly presupposed as agonistic rather than restorative
