Stephen Crane

Shadow Over Grove Ho:

Shadows, Specters, Shards Jeffrey Skoller, 2005 Demonstrates how avant garde films better reflect the complexity of history than conventional film Spirit and Self in Medieval China Nanxiu Qian, 2001-01-01 The Shih shuo hsin yu conventionally translated as A New Account of Tales of the World is one of the most significant works in the entire Chinese literary tradition It established a genre the Shih shuo t i and inspired dozens of imitations from the later part of the Tang dynasty 618 907 to the early Republican era of the 20th century The Shih shuo hsin yu consists of more than a thousand historical anecdotes about elite life in the late Han dynasty and the Wei Chin period about AD 150 420 Terrorism and Temporality in the Works of Thomas Pynchon and Don DeLillo James Gourley, 2013-06-06 Terrorism and Temporality in the Works of Thomas Pynchon and Don DeLillo starts from a simple premise that the events of the 11th of September 2001 must have had a major effect on two New York residents and two of the seminal authors of American letters Pynchon and DeLillo By examining implicit and explicit allusion to these events in their work it becomes apparent that both consider 9 11 a crucial event and that it has profoundly impacted their work From this important point the volume focuses on the major change identifiable in both authors work a change in the perception and conception of time This is not however a simple change after 2001 It allows at the same time a re examination of both authors work and the acknowledgment of time as a crucial concept to both authors throughout their careers Engaging with several theories of time and their reiteration and examination in both authors work this volume contributes both to the understanding of literary time and to the work of Pynchon and DeLillo
