Global Price Fixing John M. Connor,2007-05-24 I have devoted myself to studying the economic organization of industries for thirty years It has been my good fortune to work at places that tolerated my gadfly approach to research So long as I produced a few publications each year and wooed a few graduate students to share those interests I was free to sample a smorgasbord of economic delights why firms diversify the competitive role of advertising strategies for selling in overseas markets measuring market power and many others Although firmly chored in the eclectic analytical framework of industrial economics and focused on the food system I traversed a wide field at will A decade ago I had pretty much convinced myself that naked price fixing was not a high priority for scholarship True collusion was rife in a few industries such as bid rigging among suppliers of fluid milk to school districts in isolated rural districts Ripping off milk money from school children is reprehensible enough but the size of the economic losses from localized price fixing paled besides other sources of imperfect competition Moreover there were no great policy debates about the wisdom or merits of enforcing the price fixing prohibitions in the Nation's antitrust laws

John Calvin's Bible Commentaries On The Book Of Hosea John Calvin, Calvin produced commentaries on most of the books of the Bible His commentaries cover the larger part of the Old Testament and all of the new excepting Second and Third John and the Apocalypse His commentaries and lectures stand in the front rank of Biblical interpretation This book embraces the most difficult portion in some respects of THE OLD TESTAMENT and of that portion as acknowledged by all the most difficult is THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET HOSEA Probably no part of Scripture is commonly read with so little benefit as THE MINOR PROPHETS owing no doubt to the obscurity in which some parts are involved That there is much light thrown on many abstruse passages in this Work and more than by any existing Comment in our language is the full conviction of the writer Acute sagacious and sometimes profound the Author is at the same time remarkably simple plain and lucid and ever practical and useful The most learned may here gather instruction and the most unlearned may understand almost every thing that is said The whole object of the Author seems to be to explain simplify and illustrate the text and he never turns aside to other matters He is throughout an Expounder keeps strictly to his office and gives to every part its full and legitimate meaning according to the context to which he ever especially attends
