Shadow Of A Nation The Changing Face Of Britain:

The Shadow of a Nation Nick Clarke, 2003 This volume contains 50 years of British history seen through the lives of a disparate group of figures who make up the second Elizabethan age The Great British Dream Factory Dominic Sandbrook, 2015-10-01 SPECTATOR BOOKS OF THE YEAR 2015 Britain's empire has gone Our manufacturing base is a shadow of its former self the Royal Navy has been reduced to a skeleton In military diplomatic and economic terms we no longer matter as we once did And yet there is still one area in which we can legitimately claim superpower status our popular culture It is extraordinary to think that one British writer J K Rowling has sold more than 400 million books that Doctor Who is watched in almost every developed country in the world that James Bond has been the central character in the longest running film series in history that The Lord of the Rings is the second best selling novel ever written behind only A Tale of Two Cities that the Beatles are still the best selling musical group of all time and that only Shakespeare and the Bible have sold more books than Agatha Christie To put it simply no country on earth relative to its size has contributed more to the modern imagination This is a book about the success and the meaning of Britain's modern popular culture from Bond and the Beatles to heavy metal and Coronation Street from the Angry Young Men to Harry Potter from Damien Hirst to The X Factor

Reality TV Annette Hill, 2005 Annette Hill discusses a wide range of reality television shows drawing on research among reality TV viewers to consider how different audience groups think about factual television and whether they consider such programmes to be providing entertainment or information Sean Connery Christopher Bray, 2012-06-01 A biography of a star and an investigation of what can happen to a man when the images he creates take over his life Sean Connery's creation of secret agent James Bond invigorated Britain and its cinema allowing a cash strapped morale sapped country in decline to fancy itself still a player on the world stage How can such worship not play havoc with one's soul especially a soul as painfully unprepared for the pressures of stardom as Connery's Spirited and argumentative Christopher Bray's Sean Connery is the story of an actor learning his craft on the job and at the end of his career of a man pressing his stardom into the service of a burgeoning political awareness Crisis? What Crisis? Alwyn W. Turner, 2009-03-19 The 1970s They were the best of times and the worst of times Wealth inequality was at a record low yet industrial strife was at a record high These were the glory years of Doctor Who and glam rock but the darkest days of the Northern Ireland conflict Beset by strikes inflation power cuts and the rise of the far right the cosy Britain of the post war consensus was unravelling in spectacularly lurid style Fusing high politics and low culture Crisis What Crisis presents a world in which Enoch Powell Ted Heath and Tony Benn jostle for space with David Bowie Hilda Ogden and Margo Leadbetter and reveals why a country exhausted by decline eventually turned to Margaret Thatcher for salvation State of Emergency Dominic Sandbrook, 2010 In the early 1970s Britain seemed to be tottering on the brink of the abyss Under Edward Heath the optimism of the Sixties had become a distant memory This book recreates the gaudy schizophrenic atmosphere of the early Seventies the world of Enoch Powell
